The Art of Power Thich Nhat Hanh, 2007-08-14 Power is good for one thing only to increase our happiness and the happiness of others Being peaceful and happy is the most important thing in our lives and yet most of the time we suffer we run after our cravings we look to the past or the future for our happiness Turning our conventional understanding of power on its head world renowned Zen master spiritual leader and national bestselling author Thich Nhat Hanh reveals how true power comes from within What we seek we already have Whether we want it or not power remains one of the central issues in all of our lives Every day each of us exercises power in many ways and our every act subtly affects the world we live in This struggle for control and authority permeates every aspect of our private and public lives preventing us from attaining true happiness The me first mentality in our culture seeps unnoticed into our decisions and choices Our bottom line approach to getting ahead may be most visible in the business world but the stress fear and anxiety it causes are being felt by people in all walks of life With colorful anecdotes precise language and concrete practices Thich Nhat Hanh illustrates how the current understanding of power leads us on a never ending search for external markers like job title or salary The Art of Power boldly challenges our assumptions and teaches each of us how to access the true power that is within our grasp The Power of Mind Khentrul Lodrö T'hayé Rinpoche, 2022-09-06 A modern guide to lojong ancient Buddhist techniques for transforming all circumstances including pain anxiety and stress into mental well being that benefits us and the people around us We've all heard platitudes about cultivating love and compassion but how can we actually develop these qualities in ourselves and crucially share them in our world The Power of Mind provides the proven path of lojong or mind training for changing our experience from the inside out Regardless of what's happening in our lives Khentrul Rinpoche teaches that our route to freedom lies in our minds A thousand years ago the Indian saint Atisha risked his life to seek out lojong teachings in Indonesia and then brought them to Tibet where they flourished and spread to the rest of the world This book introduces those teachings the Seven Key Points of Mind Training which have been passed down from teacher to student for centuries Khentrul Rinpoche was inspired by his own teachers who like alchemists were able to follow these techniques during the Cultural Revolution and transform their immense suffering into something positive The Power of Mind guides the reader through these transformative practices one by one from recognizing the value of our human life to overcoming the sources of suffering together with meditation advice for incorporating these insights into our daily lives This wisdom is accessible to everyone whether Buddhist or not As Khentrul Rinpoche states Peace and happiness can be attained but not by searching for something in the outside world They start within us then extend out to the entire globe The Power of Buddhism Dalai Lama XIV, Jean-Claude Carrière, 1996 The Power of Mindfulness Thera Nyanaponika, 2014-12-01 The purpose of this essay is to demonstrate and explain the efficacy of the method of mindfulness satipatthana that is to show the actual power of mindfulness Those who do not yet know the Buddha's teaching well enough to accept it as a reliable guide may hesitate to take up without good reasons a practice that just on account of its radical simplicity may appear strange to them In this essay a number of such good reasons are therefore proffered for the reader's scrutiny They are also meant as an introduction to the general spirit of mindfulness and as pointers to its wide and significant perspectives Those who have already taken up the practice of mindfulness will recognize in this essay features of their own practice and be encouraged to cultivate them deliberately
