The Power We Celebrate Womens Stories Of Faith And Power:

The Power We Celebrate Musimbi R. A. Kanyoro, Wendy S. Robins, 1992-01 Power We Celebrate Women s Stories of Faith Power Empowerment and Autonomy of Women Godrick Efraim Lyimo, 2016-06-10 The emancipation and empowerment of women has been a worldwide phenomenon of concern to many countries and organizations within the twentieth and twenty first centuries Although Tanzania as a country and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania ELCT Northern Diocese as an institution have embraced the idea of gender equality most women in Tanzania have yet to experience this in full This book is therefore based upon an understanding of the church as participating in God s mission which is rooted in a context of equality and as such stands in a better position to empower women to overcome some of the patriarchal practices that have put them on the margin of attaining full humanity Therefore the book examines how Ushirika wa Neema Deaconess Centre contributes to the empowerment of women in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania ELCT Northern Diocese and fosters gender awareness in the church and the entire community Ushirika wa Neema Deaconess Centre provides women with opportunities such as the means for independent income for education for professional training and for learning life skills These opportunities change women s self esteem as well as raise their self confidence and respect in the church and community Women, Spirituality and Transformative Leadership Kathe Schaaf, Kay Lindahl, Kathleen S. Hurty, Reverend Guo Cheen, 2011-10-01 A dynamic conversation on the power of women s spiritual leadership and its emerging patterns of transformation We invite you to come with curiosity into this living community of spiritual women listening deeply as they share their personal stories of how their spiritual journeys have shaped and honed them as leaders We do not offer answers to all of the complex questions facing us as a human family but we invite you to join us as we surrender to the mystery of being open present and engaged together in these uncertain times from the Introduction This empowering resource engages women in an interactive exploration of the challenges and opportunities on the frontier of women s spiritual leadership Through the voices of North American women representing a matrix of diversity ethnically spiritually religiously generationally and geographically women will be inspired to new expressions of their own personal leadership and called into powerful collaborative action Women, Presbyterianism and Patriarchy Isabel Apawo Phiri, 2007 This is the first book by a Malawian woman theologian First released in 1997 it won an honorable mention in the Noma Award for Publishing in Africa in 1998 and is now updated here with a new introduction by the author The study traces the struggles and contribution of Chewa women to the Church of Central Africa Presbyterian Amongst the topics are female mediumships in traditional religion post missionary developments in Chigwirizano womens attempts to achieve some public manifestation of their personal relationship to God in open ministry and the current women s organisation in Nkhoma Synod Dr Isabel Apawo Phiri is in the Department of Theology and Religious Studies at the University of Malawi Feminist Expositions of the Old Testament in Africa (Tanzania) in the Context of the Office

Held by Deborah in Judges 4 and 5 Hoyce Lyimo-Mbowe, 2015 Both women and men were leaders since ancient times however few female leaders are reported Deborah is one of the powerful female leaders during the ancient Israel This work explored the feminist expositions of the Old Testament in Africa with focus on the context of the offices held by Deborah as narrated in the book of Judges Chapter 4 and 5 The exegetical part shed light onto the role played by the female leaders among the Israelites The feminist paradigms in Judges 4 and 5 demonstrate how female characters in these chapters construct a way to disagree with what seems to oppress women and deny their leadership capability The findings of this study determine that gender should not be perceived as having an effect on leadership in general African Women's Theology, Gender Relations, and Family Systems Theory Mpyana Fulgence Nyengele, 2004 African women theologians have written extensively about problems in gender relations in African contexts identifying oppressive elements and their effects on women's self concept and status in the church family and society This book provides much needed pastoral theological attention and a response to the psychospiritual relational and sociocultural effects of gender injustice and marginalization of women It critically examines concepts methods and principles of family systems theory analyzes gender relations in African families and churches and develops a theology of pastoral care based on the Trinitarian concept of perichoresis that offers pastoral guidelines for effective pastoral counseling with women and men as well as recommendations for corrective and preventative care grounded in educational strategies The paradigm of pastoral care that emerges attends both to women affected by gender injustice and to the sociocultural norms that cause distress and perpetuate gender oppression Women and International Human Rights Law Kelly Dawn Askin, Dorean Koenig, 2023-04-17 For in depth coverage of gender issues in human rights law from theory and cultural practices to legal instruments and the case law of international tribunals this major three volume work is without peer More than 100 leading authorities in the field offer trenchant analyses of problems and solutions crimes and abuses available recourses areas of empowerment the entire spectrum of women's rights discussed at a level of detail and legal awareness unavailable in any other single source Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The print edition is available as a set of three volumes 9781571050946 Stirring Up Liberation Theologies Jione Havea, 2024-07-31 In this critical time in world history when many spirits and bodies are plagued by AIDS covid monkeypox hunger bird flu mad cow disease and other ailments and many communities are broken by wars juntas climate crises domestic abuse poverty and other shitstems this book stirs up the ends of Liberation Theology release As long as the world is plagued and broken the release that Liberation Theology seeks are needed Bringing together a diverse and global array of theologians who have taken up the liberative mantle this book will demonstrate why liberation theology today needs releasing from its illusions and assumptions and what comes next once it does so With contributors including Miguel A De La Torre Anna Kasafi Perkins and Michael Jaggesar the book demonstrates that Liberation Theology is not pass or dead But it needs some stirring up The Promise of Lutheran Ethics Karen L.

Bloomquist, John R. Stumme, 1998-08-01 Here ten Lutheran theologians explore Lutheran emphases themes and approaches to offer their account of Christian ethics as a way of life in today's world Writing in dialogue they raise foundational concerns of biblical and theological sources and norms of Christian freedom and responsibility of call and social witness of justice and formation in prayer Then in a lively Table Talk the participants discuss and debate the tradition's insights and oversights and show how it might illumine today's burning ethical issues such as homosexuality Feminist Theology from the Third World Ursula King, 2015-02-12 This major new collection of readings demonstrates the range and vitality of feminist theology and its increasing influence on Christian women and men throughout the world Here are thirty eight key texts representing the voices of women in Africa Asia and Latin America as well as those working among minorities in places such as Israel the US and the Pacific The readings are grouped under five headings Doing Theology from Third World Women's Perspective Women's Oppression and Cries of Pain The Bible as a Source of Empowerment for Women Challenging Traditional Theological Thinking A Newly Emerging Spirituality All texts are placed in context by brief introductory comments while the main introduction to the whole book provides a helpful overview of the major issues and developments in Christian feminist thinking throughout the Third World and beyond Among the contributors are Chung Hyun Kyung Korea Ivone Gebara Brazil Kwok Pui lan Hong Kong Mercy Amba Oduyoye Ghana Delores S Williams USA African Feminist Theology and Baptist Pastors' Wives in Malawi Longwe, Molly, 2019-05-09 This book presents a story of the experiences of being church of the pastors wives within the Baptist Convention of Malawi BACOMA Formed in 1970 out of the missionary endeavours of the North American based Southern Baptist Convention SBC BACOMA is a voluntary national association of Baptist churches Molly Longwe's book presents a concise picture of African Feminist Theology and to relates it to the lived experiences of pastors wives in the Baptist Convention of Malawi Narrative, Identity and Ethics in Postcolonial Kenya Eleanor Tiplady Higgs, 2021-06-03 Can a Christian organization with colonial roots work towards reproductive justice for Kenyan women and resist sexist interpretations of Christianity How does a women's organization in Africa navigate controversial ethical dilemmas while dealing with the pressures of imperialism in international development Based on a case study of the Young Women's Christian Association YWCA in Kenya this book explores the answers to these questions It also introduces a theoretical framework drawn from postcolonial feminist critique narrative identity theory and the work of the Circle of Concerned African Women Theologians everyday Christian ethics The book evaluates the theory's implications as a cross disciplinary theme in feminist studies of religion and theology Eleanor Tiplady Higgs argues that Kenya YWCA's narratives of its Christian history and constitution sustain a link between its ethical perspective and its identity The ethical insights that emerge from these practices proclaim the relevance of the value of fulfilled lives as prescribed in the New Testament for Christian women's experiences of reproductive injustice Dictionary of African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong, Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa's history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490-1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243-183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909-1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918

Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01 This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today It deals with developments in the realms of church unity mission and evangelism laity women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948 The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question The bibliography is not exhaustive some 50 000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises Reimagining God Johanna W. H. Van Wijk-Bos, 1995-01-01 Johanna van Wijk Bos examines alternatives to the dominant male language associated with God in the Bible Focusing primarily on the Hebrew Bible Gender, Religion and Spirituality Caroline Sweetman, 1998 This collection explores the complex links between social and economic development and religious and spiritual belief Writers explore the scope for promoting women's rights and needs offered by religious belief and practice and analyse feminist responses to fundamentalist regimes which use religious doctrine to justify women's oppression Mother Earth, Postcolonial and Liberation Theologies Sophia Chirongoma, Esther Mombo, 2021-08-19 Mother Earth Postcolonial and Liberation Theologies adds another contribution to the ongoing interrogation of an imminent universal crisis global warming Examining the environmental crisis from liberation postcolonial and theological lenses in Africa the continent whose people stand to bear the brunt of ecological catastrophe the contributors provide fresh perspectives that place this book at the forefront of new research being done across the African continent The volume serves as a compendium for the intersection of African spirituality cultural expression and the earth Overcoming Challenges to Gender Equality in the Workplace Patricia M. Flynn, Kathryn Haynes, Maureen A. Kilgour, 2017-09-08 Many businesses and organizations are increasingly aware of the case for promoting gender equality both within and outside their organizational boundaries Evidence suggests that gender equality in the workplace boosts performance and legal frameworks in many countries mandate specific action on gender inequality in the workplace However despite organizational policies on promoting equality and equal opportunities there remain challenges to be overcome in many businesses including throughout their supply chains The book provides research rationales as to why responsible organizations must address the issue of gender equality in the workplace It also presents case studies action research and examples of good practices describing how businesses and organizations are working to promote gender equality in various contexts The book is designed to support the rationale for gender equality in business and organizations providing evidence of implementation of gender equality in the workplace and advice on how to deal with and overcome challenges It will be of interest to academics employees practitioners policy makers businesses institutions and organizations Gender and Citizenship in the Global Age Amri, Laroussi, Ramtohul, Ramola, 2015-03-01

One of the major issues this book examines is what the African experience and identity have contributed to the debate on citizenship in the era of globalisation The volume presents case studies of different African contexts illustrating the gendered aspects of citizenship as experienced by African men and women Citizenship carries manifold gendered aspects and given the distinct gender roles and responsibilities globalisation affects citizenship in different ways It further examines new forms of citizenship emerging from the current era dominated by a neoliberal focus The book is not exclusive in terms of theorisation but its focus on African contexts with an in depth analysis taking into consideration local culture and practices and their implications for citizenship provides a good foundation for further scholarly work on gender and citizenship in Africa Esther The Woman of God: A Queen's Courage That Changed History Dizzy Davidson, 2025-05-22
