1. Introduction

In the current era of globalization, Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM) culture, as one of the treasures of Chinese traditional culture, has garnered significant attention on a global scale. Traditional Chinese medicine art, as a unique form of artistic expression, not only inherits traditional culture but also faces the challenge of integration into modern society^[1]. This paper aims to explore the artistic expression of traditional Chinese medicine art and its integration with traditional culture. It seeks to propose innovative paths and explore the future development directions of traditional Chinese medicine art through practical exploration.

2. Responding to and Innovating Traditional Culture

2.1. Roots of Traditional Culture

Traditional culture is the soul of a nation, a sedimentation of history that carries rich philosophical, moral, and aesthetic concepts. Traditional Chinese medicine art, as a branch of culture, has deep roots in traditional culture. The artistic expression of traditional Chinese medicine originates from centuries of clinical practice and medical theory, deeply embedded in the soil of Chinese civilization. Through the profound exploration of the roots of traditional culture, a better understanding of the intrinsic spirit of traditional Chinese medicine art can be achieved, grasping its unique artistic language.

By responding to the roots of traditional culture, traditional Chinese medicine art inherits the essence of traditional culture, integrating the wisdom of Chinese medicine into artistic creation. In artworks, references to classical medical writings and homage to ancient medical practitioners are often observed, adding depth, and meaning through this resonance with the roots of traditional culture.

2.2. Urgency of Innovating Traditional Chinese Medicine Art

However, the inheritance of traditional culture does not imply stagnation. With societal development and changes in aesthetic perceptions, there is an urgent need for innovation in traditional Chinese medicine art. Traditional culture is diverse, and in the modern world, art needs to evolve with the times, revitalizing traditional culture with
