The Preacher-Prophet in Mass Society Jesse Jai McNeil, 1994-01-01      The Preacher-prophet in Mass Society Jesse Jai McNeil, 1961      Minister's Service Book David F. Wells, 1993-06-02

Evangelicals argues Wells have largely lost the truth that God also stands outside all human experience that he still summons sinners to repentance and belief regardless of their self image and that he calls his church to stand fast in his truth against the blandishments of the modern world      Mass Society Salvador Giner, 2013-10-22

Mass Society deals with the total outlook of human including modern politics culture social inequality community life and problems The book reviews the history of democracy and discontent The text analyzes the mob rule the disenchantment of progress and the history of democracy Modern sociological theory explains the opposition of two extreme societal models to describe the historical dynamics of mankind The book is an attempt to explain that a mass society outlook exists and has some inner coherence and distinctive quality The author argues that such outlook or theory is a prominent feature in the cultural imagination of man and that modern secular society cannot be understood without such theory The author then proceeds to identify majority with mass and the identification of human with mass human This identification will lead to a community vision though the author argues the growth of a mass interpretation of society has a negative effect on the liberal theory of the individual The text can be interesting for political science majors sociologists psychologists and economists      Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16

One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life
