The Press and Apartheid William A. Hachten, C. Anthony Giffard, 1984-01-01
South Africa's Alternative Press Les Switzer, 1997-02-13 Collection of essays on the South African alternative press from the 1880s to the 1960s Communication and Democratic Reform in South Africa Robert B. Horwitz, 2001-04-09 The book examines the reform of the communication sector in South Africa as a detailed and extended case study in political transformation the transition from apartheid to democracy The reform of broadcasting telecommunications the state information agency and the print press from apartheid aligned apparatuses to accountable democratic institutions took place via a complex political process in which civil society activism embodying a post social democratic ideal largely won out over the powerful forces of formal market capitalism and older models of state control In the cautious acceptance of the market the civil society organizations sought to use the dynamism of the market while thwarting its inevitable inequities Forged in the crucible of a difficult transition to democracy communication reform in South Africa was navigated between the National Party's embrace of the market and the African National Congress leadership's default statist orientation
Apartheid and Anti-Apartheid in Western Europe Knud Andresen, Sebastian Justke, Detlef Siegfried, 2020-12-12 This edited collection examines how Western European countries have responded and been influenced by the apartheid system in South Africa The debate surrounding apartheid in South Africa underwent a shift in the second half of the 20th century with long held positive racist European opinions of white South Africans slowly declining since decolonisation in the 1960s and the increase in the importance of human rights in international politics While previous studies have approached this question in the context of national histories more or less detached from each other this edited collection offers a broader insight into the transnational and entangled histories of Western European and South African societies The contributors use exemplary case studies to trace the change of perception covering a plurality of reactions in different societies and spheres from the political and social to the economic and cultural At the same time the collection emphasizes the interconnections of those reactions to what has been called the last overtly racist regime George Frederickson of the twentieth century Propaganda and Mass Persuasion Nicholas J. Cull, David H. Culbert, David Welch, 2003-07-15 A truly international authoritative A Z guide to five centuries of propaganda in both wartime and peacetime which covers key moments techniques concepts and some of the most influential propagandists in history This fascinating survey provides a comprehensive introduction to propaganda its changing nature its practitioners and its impact on the past five centuries of world history Written by leading experts it covers the masters of the art from Joseph Goebbels to Mohandas Gandhi and examines enormously influential works of persuasion such as Uncle Tom's Cabin techniques such as films and posters and key concepts like black propaganda and brainwashing Case studies reveal the role of mass persuasion during the Reformation and wars throughout history Regional studies cover propaganda superpowers such as Russia China and the United States as well as little known propaganda campaigns in Southeast Asia Ireland and Scandinavia The book traces the evolution of propaganda from the era of printed handbills to computer fakery and profiles such brilliant practitioners of the art as Third Reich film director Leni Riefenstahl and 19th century cartoonist Thomas Nast whose works helped to bring the notorious Boss Tweed to justice Media Restrictions in South Africa United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs. Subcommittee on Africa,1989

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis,2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa s Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd s Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This groundbreaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd s assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis s groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas s life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid s posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders,Peter Limb,2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa s past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country s politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

Media and Democracy in Africa Michael Leslie, 2017-07-05 Recent discussion of democratization in Africa has focused primarily on the reform of formal state institutions the public service the judiciary and the legislature Similarly both scholars and activists have shown interest in how associational life and with it a civil society might be enhanced in the countries of the African continent Much less concern however has been directed to the communications media although they form a vital part of this process Media and Democracy in Africa provides the first comprehensive and up to date assessment of the role of the media in political change in sub Saharan Africa The central argument of the volume is that while the media may still be relatively weak compared to their positions in liberal democracies they have come to play a much more important role than ever before since independence Although they have not yet demonstrated sufficient effectiveness as public watchdogs and agenda setters they have succeeded in creating new communicative spaces for people who have previously been intimidated or silent Building on this the contributors argue that a different conceptualization of democratization than the mainstream currently uses may be necessary to capture the process in Africa where it is characterized by contestation rather than consolidation This volume shows that the media scene in Africa is diverse It stretches from the well developed and technologically advanced situation in South Africa to the still fledgling media operations that are typical in sub Saharan Africa In these countries print media as well as television and radio are just beginning to take their place in society and do so using simple and often outdated technology The volume also examines how these growing outlets are supplemented by informal media the so called radio trottoir or rumor mill whereby the autocratic and bureaucratic direction of public affairs are subject to private speculation and analysis Media and Democracy in Africa is organized to provide a historical perspective on the evolution of the African media placing the present in the context of the past including both colonial and post colonial experiences It will be of interest to Africa area specialists students of media and communications political scientists and sociologists

The Routledge Companion to Sexuality and Colonialism Chelsea Schields, Dagmar Herzog, 2021-05-24 Unique in its global and interdisciplinary scope this collection will bring together comparative insights across European Ottoman Japanese and US imperial contexts while spanning colonized spaces in Latin America the Caribbean Africa the Indian Ocean the Middle East and East and Southeast Asia Drawing on interdisciplinary perspectives from cultural intellectual and political history anthropology law gender and sexuality studies and literary criticism The Routledge Companion to Sexuality and Colonialism combines regional and historiographic overviews with detailed case studies making it the key reference for up to date scholarship on the intimate dimensions of colonial rule Comprising more than 30 chapters by a team of international contributors the Companion is divided into five parts Directions in the study of sexuality and colonialism Constructing race controlling reproduction Sexuality in law Subjects souls and selfhood Pleasure and violence The Routledge Companion to Sexuality and Colonialism is essential reading for students and researchers in gender sexuality race global studies world history Indigeneity and settler colonialism      (Post)Colonial Ports Jill Didur,Nalini Mohabir,2025-05-05 This book examines the role of post colonial ports in creating and shaping the ecotonal cultural historical material environmental socio political and economic contexts in formerly colonized regions spanning the Caribbean Africa North America Europe and the Pacific The essays assess the role that literature visual culture architecture archives and ethnography can play in enriching our understanding of the complex histories of ports and port cities They present the relation between ports and colonial infrastructure such as immigration checkpoints detention centers mines plantations shipping containers canals sewers and rivers and their impact on human and more than human environments The volume approaches post colonial ports through the ecotone a concept borrowed from geography and ecology to describe a transition zone where two biological communities meet and mix such as a forest and a grassland to bring attention to port non spaces as a hinge between their environments communities and colonial infrastructure It foregrounds postcolonial and decolonial approaches to the ecotone to draw attention to the cultural ecological and geographical dynamics that inform the social fabric of contemporary ports and port cities in the wake of the empire This volume is aimed at scholars and postgraduates across disciplines such as literature geography fine arts cultural studies and history      Media and the Empire Ruth Teer-Tomaselli,Donal McCracken,2017-10-02 This volume on print and broadcast media in the 19th and 20th centuries highlights the pivotal role that the media played in the establishment and maintenance of imperial power The media bolstered both the ideological and financial objectives of the empire in a myriad of overt covert and downright scandalous ways From jeopardising the introduction of wireless telegraphy in order to maximise the financial gains of the investors of under sea cabling to newspaper proprietors cashing in on the thrilling wonderful and sometimes fabricated adventures of war correspondents in exotic lands the media has had a constant background influence in the public s perception of empire By covering diverse topics from Anthony Lejeune s radio talk show London Letters which supported the Allies by boosting morale and providing a link between soldiers fighting abroad and their families during both World Wars to the complete subversion of imperial influence as in the case of the proliferation of diverse media platforms being used by migrant communities in Britain as a means to promote colonization in reverse the book hints at the politics suspense and intrigue of both the print and broadcast sectors This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts      Unmaking of the torturer Elaine Bing,2013-10-01 Three policemen tell the horrifying stories of what they had done during the apartheid years how where and whom they had tortured They don t try to negate their part in the events and in fact have taken a great risk in telling their stories      Crisis of Legitimacy and Political Violence in Uganda, 1890 to 1979 Ogenga Otunnu,2016-12-26 This book demonstrates that societies experiencing prolonged and severe crises of legitimacy are prone to intense and persistent political violence The most significant factor accounting for the persistence of intense political violence in Uganda is the severe crisis of legitimacy of the state its institutions political incumbents and their challengers This crisis of legitimacy which is shaped by both internal and external forces past and present accounts for the remarkable continuity in the history of political violence since the construction of the state

Starring Mandela and Cosby Ron Krabill, 2010-09-15 During the worst years of apartheid the most popular show on television in South Africa among both Black and White South Africans was The Cosby Show Why did people living under a system built on the idea that Black people were inferior and threatening flock to a show that portrayed African Americans as comfortably mainstream Starring Mandela and Cosby takes up this paradox revealing the surprising impact of television on racial politics The South African government maintained a ban on television until 1976 and according to Ron Krabill they were right to be wary of its potential power The medium he contends created a shared space for communication in a deeply divided nation that seemed destined for civil war along racial lines At a time when it was illegal to publish images of Nelson Mandela Bill Cosby became the most recognizable Black man in the country and Krabill argues his presence in the living rooms of white South Africans helped lay the groundwork for Mandela's release and ascension to power Weaving together South Africa's political history and a social history of television Krabill challenges conventional understandings of globalization offering up new insights into the relationship between politics and the media

Understanding South Africa Carien du Plessis, Martin Plaut, 2019-11-15 The go to guide for those seeking an informed balanced and up to date analysis of South African politics and society in the Ramaphosa era

Breaking Story Gordon S. Jackson, 2019-03-14 This book provides an in depth analysis of the economic difficulties facing journalism including the impact of television's increasing share of the advertising market It focuses on the alternative press which arose in the mid 1980s at the height of the government's crackdown on dissent

U.S. Relations with South Africa: An Annotated Bibliography Y G-M Lulat, 1990-12-31 A comprehensive two volume annotated bibliography of books and monographs journal articles government documents documents of nongovernmental organizations and substantive magazine and newspaper articles published since the late nineteenth century Annotated entries contain a short abstract a table of contents and information on reviews Each volume contains an author and subject index and a periodical is included in Volume Two Topics covered include US Foreign Policy Southern Africa in US South African Relations Nuclear Technology and Other Sectors of Trade and Economic Relations Education Scientific and Cultural Exchanges African Americans and South Africa Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Divestment Disinvestment and Sanctions Comparative Studies This two volume work is part of a larger project that included publication of a nearly 700 page book titled United States Relations with South Africa A Critical Overview from the Colonial Period to the Present which is a critical overview of relations between the United States and South Africa going nearly as far back as the very beginning of their inception as permanent European colonial intrusions and it not only gives attention to the importance of contributions from nonofficial actors in shaping official relations but also considers the impact of the geopolitical location of South Africa within southern Africa where the presence of other nations particularly Angola Mozambique Namibia and Zimbabwe looms large      Media and the British Empire C. Kaul, 2006-03-28 The only true history of a country wrote Thomas Macaulay is to be found in its newspapers This book explores how the media shaped and defined the economic social political and cultural dynamics of the British Empire by viewing it from the perspective of the colonised as well as the colonisers
