Fifth United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders Australia. Australian Delegation to the United Nations Congress on the Prevention of Crime and the Treatment of Offenders,1975

Crime Prevention in the Urban Community Koichi Miyazawa, Setsuo Miyazawa, 2023-09-20 One of today's most pressing issues in criminology and crime prevention is the problem of crime in our cities and towns and its prevention The topic of crime prevention in the Urban Community was discussed at the 47th International Course of the International Society for Criminology ISC held at Chuo University Tokyo It was the very first time such an ISC meeting was held in Asia and this meant that finally a relatively large number of Japanese and other Asian participants were able to express their views on criminal policy and crime prevention in urban centres all over the world Crime in urban communities is not an exclusively Western phenomenon but it is also a considerable problem in other parts of the world This makes an interchange of ideas between Western Eastern and Third World criminologists particularly important General characteristics of the urban communities that suffer from a high crime rate are ethnic and racial tensions a mix of old housing areas and new business districts a prevailing sense of anonymity slums and juvenile delinquency The existence of these general characteristics besides mutual differences makes cooperation in the crime prevention sphere definitely worth the effort

Evidence-Based Crime Prevention David P. Farrington, Doris Layton MacKenzie, Lawrence W. Sherman, Brandon C. Welsh, 2003-09-02 Crime prevention policy and practice is on the whole far from objective Instead of being based on scientific evidence the crime policy agenda is seemingly driven by political ideology anecdotal evidence and programme trends Evidence Based Crime Prevention seeks to change this by comprehensively and rigorously assessing the existing scientific knowledge on the effectiveness of crime prevention programmes internationally Reviewing more than 600 scientific evaluations of programmes intended to prevent crime in settings such as families schools labour markets and communities this book grades programmes on their scientific validity using the scientific methods scale This collection which brings together contributions from leading researchers in the field of crime prevention will provide policy makers researchers and community leaders with an understandable source of information about what works what does not work and what is promising in preventing crime Crime Prevention Stephen Schneider,2014-12-16 In Crime Prevention Theory and Practice Second Edition Dr Schneider has updated every chapter in this reliable text using the latest research the most recently published articles and books and feedback from professors and students using the first edition Providing an introduction to dominant approaches key concepts theories and research

Crime Prevention Nick Tilley,2014-03-05 This book provides a concise and up to date account of crime prevention theory practice and research in a form designed to be accessible and interesting to both students and practitioners Readers will be equipped to think in an informed and critical way about what has been and might be done in practice to prevent crime at local and national levels What is distinctive in the approach is the emphasis on crime reduction mechanisms how they may be activated and the intended and unintended patterns of outcome produced Each of chapters two to five takes this as its organizing principle The key aim is to clearly convey ideas arguments and evidence as simply as possible whilst doing justice to the material available Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention Bonnie S. Fisher,Steven P.

Lab,2010-02-02 Victimology and crime prevention are growing interrelated areas cutting across several disciplines Victimology examines victims of all sorts of criminal activity from domestic abuse to street violence to victims in the workplace who lose jobs and pensions due to malfeasance by corporate executives Crime prevention is an important companion to victimology because it offers insight and techniques to prevent situations that lead to crime and attempts to offer ideas and means for mitigating or minimizing the potential for victimization In many ways the two fields have developed along parallel yet separate paths and the literature on both has been scattered across disciplines as varied as sociology law and criminology public health and medicine political science and public policy economics psychology and human services and more The Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention provides a comprehensive reference work bringing together such dispersed knowledge as it outlines and discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system and topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Two volumes containing approximately 375 signed entries provide users with the most authoritative and comprehensive reference resource available on victimology and crime prevention both in terms of breadth and depth of coverage In addition to standard entries leading scholars in the field have contributed Anchor Essays that in broad strokes provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics A representative sampling of general topic areas covered includes interpersonal and domestic violence child maltreatment and elder abuse street violence hate crimes and terrorism treatment of victims by the media courts police and politicians community response to crime victims physical design for crime prevention victims of nonviolent crimes deterrence and prevention helping and counseling crime victims international and comparative perspectives and more Handbook of Crime Prevention and Community Safety Nick Tilley,Aiden Sidebottom,2017-03-27 This second edition of the Handbook of Crime Prevention and Community Safety provides a completely revised and updated collection of essays focusing on the theory and practice of crime prevention and the creation of safer communities This book is divided into five comprehensive parts Part I brand new to this edition is concerned with theoretical perspectives on crime prevention and community safety Part II considers general approaches to preventing crime including a new chapter on the theory and practice of deterrence Part III focuses on specific crime prevention strategies including a new chapter on regulation for crime prevention Part IV focuses on the prevention of specific categories of crime and the fear they generate including new chapters on organised crime and cybercrime Part V considers the preventative process the methods through which presenting problems can be analysed responses formulated and implemented and their effectiveness evaluated Bringing together leading academics and practitioners from the UK US Australia and the Netherlands this volume will be an invaluable reference for researchers and practitioners whose work relates to crime prevention and community safety as well as for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in crime prevention Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, Christian Tams,Lars Berster,Björn Schiffbauer,2014-12-01 The 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide Genocide Convention has a special standing in international law and international politics For 60 years the crime of genocide has been recognised as the most horrendous crime in international law famously designated the crime of crimes On the occasion of the 60th anniversary of its adoption the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights stated that genocide is the ultimate form of discrimination In the same context the chief prosecutor of the International Criminal Court described the Genocide Convention as a visionary and founding text for the Court The Convention has as such influenced the subsequent development of many different areas of international law For example the 1951 Advisory Opinion on the Genocide Convention enabled the International Court of Justice to shape the modern regime of reservations to treaties More recently the prohibition against genocide has become a crucial pillar of the regime of international criminal law developing since the 1990s with genocide being one of the core crimes falling under the jurisdiction of the UN ad hoc tribunals the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia and the permanent International Criminal Court In this work the 19 provisions of the Convention are analysed article by article with abundant references to state practice and case law Crime Prevention Steven E. Barkan,Michael Rocque,2020-01-31 In Crime Prevention Programs Policies and Practices criminologists Steven E Barkan and Michael Rocque present a well rounded exploration of evidence based policies programs and practices Grounded in criminological theory and emphasizing the social psychological and biological roots of crime this text presents current research perspectives and examples that capture the key crime prevention concepts students should understand including the public health model for crime prevention Highlighting the importance of applying theory to real world solutions the authors discussion of crime prevention strategies integrates theory and practice throughout the text      Reducing the risk of violent crime Great Britain: National Audit Office,2008-02-21 The Home Office has been effective at raising the profile of domestic violence and alcohol related crime and encouraging local action to address these issues Such action is likely to have made some contribution to the overall fall in levels of violent crime It has not yet managed to address successfully barriers which are reducing the effectiveness of crime prevention activities at a local level and which have been raised in previous reports by the National Audit Office and the Committee of Public Accounts However the Home Office has made some progress in addressing these barriers The persistence of these barriers means that good practice has not been extended from small initiatives and Crime and Disorder Reduction Partnerships have not been able to take a long term strategic approach to tackling violent crime There are a number of NAO recommendations      100 Promising Crime Prevention Programs from Across the World Irvin Waller,Lily-Ann Gauthier,International Centre for the Prevention of Crime,1999      Crime Prevention Henry Shaftoe,2017-03-14 Much of the debate about how to prevent crime feeds off misinformation and moral panics This lively and thought provoking book aims to get to the core of the debates surrounding the prevention of crime Taking an interdisciplinary approach to this complex topic it illustrates the key role to be played in the prevention of crime by a number of professions such as housing managers planners teachers youth workers social workers health visitors and equally importantly by lay citizens Accessibly written and introducing a wide range of theories and issues from both academic literature and field based research Crime Prevention provides a balanced and wide ranging account for all concerned with crime and its prevention
