How often do you finish a novel only to find yourself flipping back to the first page and thinking I really ought to start that all over again Set in a struggling New England town the novel unfolds through interlocking stories something like Elizabeth Strout's Olive Kitteridge or Jennifer Egan's A Visit from the Goon Squad a rich and textured book with shades not only of those female authors but also Mary Gaitskill or Lorrie Moore through its investigation into female agency power and vulnerability Vogue.com A Most Anticipated Book of 2024 by Debutiful Oprah Daily and Vogue A Most Anticipated Book of Spring 2024 by the New York Times A gripping literary puzzle that unwinds the private lives of ten women as they confront tragedy in a small Massachusetts town Nashquitten MA is a decaying coastal enclave that not even tourist season can revive full of locals who have run the town's industries for generations When a young woman dies at a house party the circumstances around her death suspiciously unclear the tight knit community is shaken As a mother grieves her daughter a teacher her student a best friend her confidante the events around the tragedy become a lightning rod blame is cast secrets are buried deeper Some are left to pick up the pieces while others turn their backs and all the while a truth about that dreadful night begins to emerge Told through the eyes of ten local women Grabowski's Women and Children First is an exquisite portrait of grief and a powerful reminder of life's interconnectedness Touching on womanhood class and sexuality ambition disappointment and tragedy this novel is a stunning rendering of love and loss and a bracing lesson from a phenomenal new literary talent that no one walks this earth alone
