Sins Of Omission A Primer On Moral Indifference:

Sins of Omission S. Dennis Ford, Dennis Ford, 1990 Sins of Omission Craig L. Nesson, 1992 Through the Eyes of Titans: Finding Courage to Redeem the Soul of a Nation Danjuma G. Gibson, 2024-01-10 Human beings tend to romanticize history or idealize historical figures This is nowhere more apparent than the civil rights era of the twentieth century The problem is that when we idealize history we fail to learn from it The result is that history repeats itself along with its sins and atrocities The January 6 Capitol insurrection and the current racial reckoning we are experiencing is unoriginal to the American experience We have been here before This book seeks to humanize people we have idealized Readers are invited to challenge racial hatred and injustice in their own context by looking to the lives of historical figures who have faced the challenges we currently face By examining the self care practices of personalities like Ida B Wells Fannie Lou Hamer Benjamin Elijah Mays and Martin Luther King Jr this book examines the practices of introspection and self work these historical figures engaged in that enabled them to fulfill the body of work they are celebrated for today By humanizing these historical titans we can emulate similar practices of self care and introspection in our own lives that can equip us in continuing the ongoing work of dismantling structures of racial hatred and oppression and promoting freedom love equity and justice to redeem the soul of a nation Virtue as Consent to Being Phil Zylla, 2010-12-01 Virtue theory has become an important development in Christian ethics Efforts are made in this volume to bring pastoral theology into conversation with these developments This book probes the philosophical theology of Jonathan Edwards who proposed that virtue is a form of beauty defined as consent to being This leads to the notion of compassion as ontological consent Since language is the vehicle by which our experiences are conveyed the book probes the issue of how moral vision is expressed in experience near language through parable poem and lament Moral vision is articulated most adequately through such language and finding it is a kind of quest The last chapter is a proposal for a mature pastoral theology of virtue as an expansion of Edwards s concept of consent to being from the vantage point of pastoral theology A dynamic vision of virtue requires some connection between the experience of suffering and the inward striving toward the greatest good The essence of virtue can be best understood from a pastoral theological perspective as the relational dynamic of suffering with another human being Essays on Being Reformed Dirkie Smit, 2009-12-01 What does it mean to be Reformed Christians in the world today and in Africa and South Africa What does it mean to commemorate the legacy of John Calvin 1509 1564 after 500 years in a modern world characterised by democracy by popular notions of human dignity and human rights by worldwide struggles for individual freedoms and for social justice by a global economy in crisis when social historians argue about the lasting contribution of Calvin and his followers precisely with respect to all these modern phenomena The 28 essays by Dirkie Smit selected for this volume deal with such questions Public Theology, Religious Diversity, and Interreligious Learning Manfred L. Pirner, Johannes Lahnemann, Werner Haussmann, Susanne Schwarz, 2018-06-14 This book describes the relationship of

Christian Public Theology to other religions and their ways of contributing to the common good It also promotes mutual learning processes in public education to strengthen the public role and responsibility of religions in pluralistic societies This volume brings together not only public education and public theology but also scholars from a variety of disciplines such as philosophy cultural studies and sociology and from different parts of the world By doing so the book intends to widen the horizon and provide fresh impulses for public theology as well as the discourse on public religious education

Christian Beliefs and Teachings John C. Meyer, 1997 This book brings together a digest of the basic beliefs and teachings associated with the Christian religion It is intended as a primer of basic Christian beliefs written from a non sectarian ecumenical point of view It allows for much amplification and discussion by either the teacher or the discussion leader Seven prime categories of belief comprise the book s chapters The Christian God Jesus Christ Jesus and Reconciliation Christian Faith the Christian Church Christian Ethics and Christian Eschatology

Redeeming Sin? Ernst M. Conradie, 2017-10-11 Can Christian sin talk be retrieved within the public sphere In this contribution to ecotheology Ernst M Conradie argues that amid ecological destruction discourse on sin can contribute to a multidisciplinary depth diagnosis of what has gone wrong in the world He confronts some major obstacles related to the plausibility of sin talk in conversation with evolutionary biology the cognitive sciences and animal ethology He defends an Augustinian insistence that social evil rather than natural evil is our primary predicament If the root cause of social evil is sin then a Christian confession of sin may yet yield good news for the whole earth

Victims and the Postmodern Narrative or Doing Violence to the Body Mark Ledbetter, 2016-07-27 Victims and the Postmodern Narrative suggests that reading and writing about literature are ways to gain an ethical understanding of how we live in the world Postmodern narrative is an important way to reveal and discuss who are society s victims inviting the reader to become one with them A close reading of fiction by Toni Morrison Patrick Suskind D M Thomas Ian McEwan and J M Coetzee reveals a violence imposed on gender race and the body politic Such violence is not new to the postmodern world but merely reflects Western culture s religious traditions as the author demonstrates through a reading of stories from the Hebrew Bible and the Christian New Testament

Radical Sufficiency Christine Firer Hinze, 2021-02-01 In this timely book Christine Firer Hinze looks back at Monsignor John A Ryan s American Catholic defense of worker justice and a living wage advancing his efforts for an action oriented livelihood agenda that situates US working families economic pursuits within a comprehensive commitment to sustainable radical sufficiency for all
