presented here Corinne Saunders considers first forests in reality a reality which keeps breaking through in romance She looks also at the classical and biblical models including Virgil Statius and Nebuchadnezzar only then does she turn to the non real and non Classical i e the medieval and romantic Here she follows a clear chronological plan from twelfth to fifteenth centuries also covering the allegorized landscape of Spenser and the lovers woods of Arden or Athens in Shakespeare Her text by text layout does justice to the variety of possibilities taken up by different authors the forest as a place where men run mad and turn into animals a place of voluntary suffering a focus of significance in the Grail quests a lovers bower above all and centrally the place where the knight is tested and defined even as with Perceval created Middle-earth Minstrel Bradford Lee Eden,2010-04-13 The twentieth century witnessed a dramatic rise in fantasy writing and few works became as popular or have endured as long as the novels of J R R Tolkien Surprisingly little critical attention has been paid to the presence of music in his novels This collection of essays explores the multitude of musical literary allusions and themes intertwined throughout Tolkien s body of work Of particular interest is Tolkien s scholarly work with medieval music and its presentation and performance practice as well as the musical influences of his Victorian and Edwardian background Discographies of Tolkien influenced music of the 20th and 21st centuries are included
