Sister Margarita:

Emerging Frontiers Marie Brinkman, 2008 Founded in Indian Territory in 1858 the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth met a century later challenges of a new frontier in the church's call to adapt to modern circumstances and in their own awareness of deepening social and ecclesial needs For three decades sisters struggled with conditions that threatened unity issues of governance demands of professional training diverse backgrounds differing experience of communal life developing theology of religious vows Diminishing numbers coupled with need for leadership led to new institutional roles and new forms of ministry Emerging Frontiers records the struggle and its outcome A common past and determination to stay together marked the long search for a renewed common vision A new century brought re dedication to a Vincentian heritage and far flung partnerships in the mission given by Jesus Christ to his people Commitment to those in need especially women and children fidelity to the church faithful relationship with those of means and good will and with the earth transition to sponsorship of institutional ministries many now administered by lay women and men solidarity with all who stand for justice and peace this was the resolution of a renewed Community whose story is told here Young, Female and Black Heidi Safia

Antonio, Texas, 1943-2000 Mary Christine Morkovsky, CDP, 2009-06-29 In 1943 the bell attached to a rope on both floors of a plain box like convent in Houston Texas rang at 5 a m The nine Sisters of Divine Providence stationed at the grade school arose reciting aloud the traditional prayer that began Live Jesus in my heart My God I give you my heart Mercifully deign to receive it and grant that no creature shall possess it but Thou alone Continuing to pray aloud for five more minutes the Sisters who shared small bedrooms began to dress All had developed in their novitiate a rhythm for this process which launched each day in a uniform way Over 20 items of dress had to be donned in a certain order Before Morning Prayer at 5 25 in the small chapel on the first floor the Sisters also stripped their single beds flipped the thin mattresses and replaced the bed linens trying not to invade a companion's limited space Usually it was still dark outside when they started to recite morning prayers unique to the Congregation This was followed by chanting in Latin on one tone Matins Lauds Prime Tierce Sext and None from the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Then the superior read aloud some points for reflection and the Sisters meditated in silence for half an hour This was the first time of the day they had some relatively unstructured time and they sometimes experienced distractions Perhaps they planned how to teach something better or recalled problematic students At 6 30 one of the parish priests offered Mass which was followed by breakfast The Sisters ate in silence while one of them read passages from the Imitation of Christ By 8 a m they were leading their pupils across the playground to the children's daily Mass in the parish church In sharp contrast in 1990 Sister Mary Walter Gutowski CDP one of two Sisters living in a small apartment was the administrator of Our Lady of Guadalupe clinic for low income Latinos and African Americans in Rosenberg Texas Sister Walter who was credited with having delivered more than 3 000 babies under difficult rural circumstances once remarked When someone knocks at my door in the middle of the night I get dressed in two minutes flat because I never know what will be waiting for me outside 1 What explains this dramatic change of style and ritual in the routines of Catholic Sisters living in mission houses How did the Sisters move from cloisters to apartments How did the rigid routines of the nine Sisters of 1943 transmute into the singular and unstructured life of Sister Mary Walter What are the connections between the bell that rang at five in the morning and the one that sounded at any hour This history examines the period of 1943 to 2000 an era during which the Sisters of Divine Providence redefined their perspective and practices within the context of a changing American Catholic church It demonstrates that the Sisters were well situated to embrace the shifting demands of religious mission because their very heritage was grounded in ongoing transformations Those transformations were played out on a highly charged stage of oppression concerning multi racial relationships one that further prepared the Sisters for the intense dynamics of modern church life When the Sisters celebrated in 1966 the centennial of their arrival in Texas they were staffing their own college high schools and numerous grammar schools in several states as well as hospitals clinics and neighborhood centers They had incorporated a group of women from Mexico and encouraged the independence of a new Providence congregation in the U S Responding to Vatican encouragement after the second Vatican Council they began experiments to update structures and customs so as minister more effectively The most visible were in the areas of community living and governance and were accompanied by greater collegiality subsidiarity variety in prayer Culture, Motivation and Learning Farideh Salili, Rumjahn Hoosain, 2007-06-01 The influence of culture on learning and motivation has been the topic of much research in recent years Educational and psychological researchers are now aware that the findings of their studies may not apply to other cultures and that in this age of globalization and multiculturalism it is very important to examine the applicability of psychoeducational constructs to other cultures Understanding learning and motivational characteristics of students of diverse backgrounds will enable educators to develop appropriate curriculum and teaching strategies to motivate these students The aim of this book is to present research findings and views of scholars and researchers in the field of motivation and learning from a multicultural and international perspective Educators and scholars from different parts of the world have examined recent learning and motivation theories in different cultural contexts in order to explore the dynamics of sociocultural processes affecting student motivation Others have focused on teaching and learning strategies that are known to be effective with culturally diverse students Father Ralph Gerald O'Donovan, 1914 Daughter of Abraham KD McMahon, 2002-09-09 And the Lord God made for Adam and for his wife garments of skins and clothed them Then the Lord God said Behold the man has become like one of us knowing good and evil and now lest he put forth his hand and take also of the tree of life and eat and live for ever therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden he placed a flaming sword which turned every way to guard the way to the tree of life Genesis 3 21 24 In Book I Garments of Skin biotechnology had enabled man to slip past the flaming sword He has broken through to the Tree of Life and eaten of its fruit But now the soul is trapped in the garment of skin and this curse brought about by the hubris of science is poised to spread like a plague throughout all humanity Now in Book II of the Genomic Apocalypse former adversaries have united to defeat this onslaught of Satan But before they can confront humanity's vilest nemesis they must be joined by their sister the Daughter of Abraham Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1974 The Arms of God Sherrie Reynolds, 2011-03-21 The Arms of God is a love story in which the author weaves together the life stories of the Sisters of St Mary of Namur from their first call to religious life to teaching and mission work to a deeper sense of community during the challenging times that followed Vatican II As beautifully expressed by Sister Gabriella Falling in love with God determines if I will get up in the morning it is the WHY I am moved to do all these things am I called to do it is necessary to continue to remember and cherish our call to listen again to the language of love of the first love of what or Who drew you What gift do I give in return The Sisters journey carries them from the early days of Catholic education in Texas to Africa and the terrible years of the Rwandan genocide and to carrying God's message today in Fort Worth Texas Their intimate stories draw the reader into the Sisters lives sharing laughter in one moment and tears in the next Join these remarkable teachers nurses and missionaries as they accomplish the seemingly impossible while following the path God has placed before them Sister Patricia shares when you move from believing something to doing something uncomfortable having once done that then there's a freedom a different way of feeling a different way of understanding what might need to be done This is a timely story of love faith and freedom that challenges readers to listen for the call of God in their own lives Plays of G.
