Site Of The Social:

The Site of the Social Theodore R. Schatzki, 2002 Inspired by Heidegger's concept of the clearing of being and by Wittgenstein's ideas on human practice Theodore Schatzki offers a novel approach to understanding the constitution and transformation of social life Key to the account he develops here is the context in which social life unfolds the site of the social as a contingent and constantly metamorphosing mesh of practices and material orders Schatzki's analysis reveals the advantages of this site ontology over the traditional individualist holistic and structuralist accounts that have dominated social theory since the mid nineteenth century A special feature of the book is its development of the theoretical argument by sustained reference to two historical examples the medicinal herb business of a Shaker village in the 1850s and contemporary day trading on the Nasdaq market First focusing on the relative simplicity of Shaker life to illuminate basic ontological characteristics of the social site Schatzki then uses the sharp contrast with the complex and dynamic practice of day trading to reveal what makes this approach useful as a general account of social existence Along the way he provides new insights into many major issues in social theory including the nature of social order the significance of agency the distinction between society and nature the forms of social change and how the social present affects its future The

Social Media Age Zoetanya Sujon, 2021-04-07 Exploring power and participation in a connected world Social media are all around us For many they are the first things to look at upon waking and the last thing to do before sleeping Integrated seamlessly into our private and public lives they entertain inform connect and sometimes disconnect us They're more than just social though In addition to our experiences as everyday users understanding social media also means asking questions about our society our culture and our economy What we find is dense connections between platform infrastructures and our experience of the social shaped by power shifting patterns of participation and a widening ideology of connection This book introduces and examines the full scope of social media From the social to the technological from the everyday to platform industries from the personal to the political It brings together the key concepts theories and research necessary for making sense of the meanings and consequences of social media both hopefully and critically Dr Zoetanya Sujon is a Senior Lecturer and Programme Director for Communications and Media at London College of Communication University of the Arts London

Archaeological Sites as Space for Modern Spiritual Practice Raimund Karl, Jutta Leskovar, 2018-11-07

Archaeological heritage can be disputed especially where it is important to religions and their practitioners While the destruction of archaeological sites in war often due to religious fervour is frequently making the headlines apparently lesser disputes about local heritage sites go unreported This book focuses on these lesser but much more frequent potential conflicts between archaeological heritage management and conservation on the one hand and practitioners of religious beliefs who use archaeological heritage in their practice on the other By exploring case studies from Austria the Czech Republic Estonia France Norway Romania Russia Spain Sweden and Wales this book examines the interaction between spiritual practice and monuments conservation This book will be of great interest to heritage professionals archaeologists historians conservationists and religious practitioners alike through its exploration of various kinds of interactions between these different heritage communities and their interests in archaeology
