Surrealism And Women:

Surrealism and Women Mary Ann Caws, Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Gwen Raaberg, 1991-03-13 These sixteen illustrated essays present an important revision of surrealism by focusing on the works of women surrealists and their strategies to assert positions as creative subjects within a movement that regarded woman primarily as an object of masculine desire or fear While the male surrealists attacked aspects of the bourgeois order they reinforced the traditional patriarchal image of woman Their emphasis on dreams automatic writing and the unconscious reveal some of the least inhibited masculine fantasies The first resistance to the male surrealists projection of the female figure arose in the writings and paintings of marginalized woman artists and writers associated with Surrealism The essays in this collection explore the complexity of these women s works which simultaneously employ and subvert the dominant discourse of male surrealists Essays What Do Little Girls Dream Of The Insurgent Writing of Gis le Prassinos Finding What You Are Not Looking For From D jeuner en fourrure to Caroline Meret Oppenheim s Chronicle of Surrealism Speaking with Forked Tongues Male Discourse in Female Surrealism Androgyny Interview with Meret Oppenheim The Body Subversive Corporeal Imagery in Carrington Prassinos and Mansour Identity Crises Joyce Mansour s Narratives Joyce Mansour and Egyptian Mythology In the Interim The Constructivist Surrealism of Kay Sage The Flight from Passion in Leonora Carrington s Literary Work Beauty and Is the Beast Animal Symbology in the Work of Leonora Carrington Remedio Varo and Leonor Fini Valentine Andr Paul et les autres or the Surrealization of Valentine Hugo Refashioning the World to the Image of Female Desire The Collages of Aube Ell ou t Eileen Agar Statement by Dorothea Tanning Women Artists and the Surrealist Movement Whitney Chadwick, 2022-02-17 This pioneering book stands as the most comprehensive treatment of the lives ideas and art works of the remarkable group of women who were an essential part of the Surrealist movement Frida Kahlo Meret Oppenheim and Dorothea Tanning among many others became an embodiment of their age as they struggled towards artistic maturity and their own liberation of the spirit in the context of the Surrealist revolution Their stories and their achievements are presented here against the background of the turbulent decades of the 1920s 30s and 40s and the war that forced Surrealism into exile in New York and Mexico Farewell to the Muse: Love, War and the Women of Surrealism Whitney Chadwick, 2017-11-14 A fascinating examination of the ambitions and friendships of a talented group of midcentury women artists Farewell to the Muse documents what it meant to be young ambitious and female in the context of an avant garde movement defined by celebrated men whose backgrounds were often quite different from those of their younger lovers and companions Focusing on the 1930s 1940s and 1950s Whitney Chadwick charts five female friendships among the Surrealists to show how Surrealism female friendship and the experiences of war loss and trauma shaped individual women s transitions from someone else s muse to mature artists in their own right Her vivid account includes the fascinating story of Claude Cahun and Suzanne Malherbe in occupied Jersey as well as the experiences of Lee Miller and Valentine Penrose at the front line Chadwick draws on personal correspondence between women including the extraordinary letters between Leonora Carrington and Leonor Fini during the months following the arrest and imprisonment of Carrington's lover Max Ernst and the letter Frida Kahlo shared with her friend and lover Jacqueline Lamba years after it was written in the late 1930s This history brings a new perspective to the political context of Surrealism as well as fresh insights on the vital importance of female friendship to its progress

Surrealist women's writing Anna Watz, 2021-01-12 Surrealist women's writing A critical exploration is the first sustained critical inquiry into the writing of women associated with surrealism Featuring original essays by leading scholars of surrealism the volume demonstrates the extent and the historical linguistic and culturally contextual breadth of this writing It also highlights how the specifically surrealist poetics and politics of these writers work intersect with and contribute to contemporary debates on for example gender sexuality subjectivity otherness anthropocentrism and the environment Drawing on a variety of innovative theoretical approaches the essays in the volume focus on the writing of numerous women surrealists many of whom have hitherto mainly been known for their visual rather than their literary production These include Claude Cahun Leonora Carrington Kay Sage Colette Peignot Suzanne Césaire Unica Zürn Ithell Colquhoun Leonor Fini Dorothea Tanning and Rikki Ducornet

Automatic Woman Katharine Conley, 1996 Contemporary feminist critics have often described Surrealism as a misogynist movement In Automatic Woman Katharine Conley addresses this issue confirming some feminist allegations while qualifying and overturning others Through insightful analyses of works by a range of writers and artists Conley develops a complex view of Surrealist portrayals of Woman Conley begins with a discussion of the composite image of Woman developed by such early male Surrealists as André Breton Francis Picabia and Paul Eluard She labels that image Automatic Woman a term that comprises views of Woman as provocative and revolutionary but also as a depersonalized object largely devoid of individuality and volition This analysis largely confirms feminist critiques of Surrealism The heart of the book however examines the writings of Leonora Carrington and Unica Zürn two women in the Surrealist movement whose works Conley argues anticipate much contemporary feminist art and theory In concluding Conley shows how Breton's own views on women evolved in the course of his long career arriving at last at a position far more congenial to contemporary feminists Automatic Woman is distinguished by Katharine Conley's judicious understanding of how women and the image of Woman figured in Surrealism The book is an important contemporary account of a cultural movement that continues to fascinate influence and provoke us

Surrealist Women Penelope Rosemont, 2010-07-05 Beginning in Paris in the 1920s women poets essayists painters and artists in other media have actively collaborated in defining and refining surrealism's basic project achieving a higher open and dynamic consciousness from which no aspect of the real or the imaginary is rejected Indeed few artistic or social movements can boast as many women forebears founders and participants perhaps only feminism itself Yet outside the movement women's contributions to surrealism have been largely ignored or simply unknown This anthology the first of its kind in any language displays the range and significance of women's contributions to surrealism Letting surrealist women speak for themselves Penelope Rosemont has assembled nearly three hundred texts by ninety six women from twenty eight countries She opens the book with a succinct summary of surrealism's basic aims and principles followed by a discussion of the place of gender in the movement's origins She then organizes the book into historical periods ranging from the 1920s to the present with introductions that describe trends in the movement during each period Rosemont also prefaces each surrealist's work with a brief biographical statement
