Survival And Disembodied Existence:

Survival and Disembodied Existence Terence Penelhum, 1970 Making Sense of Survival After Death and Disembodied Existence David P. Hoover, 1974 Reason in the Service of Faith Paul Helm, 2023-03-01 Paul Helm is a distinguished philosopher with particular interests in the philosophy of religion His work covers some of the most important aspects of the field as it has developed in the last thirty years with particular contributions to metaphysics religious epistemology and philosophical theology In celebration of Helm s life s work Reason in the Service of Faith brings together a range of his essays which reflect these central concerns of his thought Over thirty of Helm s selected essays and four unpublished articles are gathered into five parts Metaphilosophical Issues Action Change and Personal Identity Epistemology God and Creation Providence and Prayer The volume is prefaced with a short editorial introduction and ends with an extensive bibliography of Helm s published works Demonstrating the important connection between Helm s theological and philosophical interests across his body of work this collection is a remarkable resource for scholars of religion philosophy and theology Immortality Paul Edwards, 2009-12-02 Is there life after death or do we simply cease to exist Renowned scholar Paul Edwards has compiled Immortality a superb group of philosophical selections featuring the work of both classical and contemporary authors who address the topics of immortality soul and body transmigration materialism epiphenomenalism physical research and parapsychology reincarnation disembodied existence and much more In addition to a 70 page editorial introduction offering an in depth discussion of the forms which belief in immortality has taken this volume includes selections from Thomas Aquinas A J Ayer Paul and Linda Badham John Beloff C D Broad Joseph Butler Rene Descartes C J Ducasse Paul Edwards Hugh Elliot Antony Flew John Foster Peter Geach John Hick John Hospers David Hume William James Raynor Johnson Immanuel Kant John Locke Lucretius Donald MacKay John Stuart Mill Derek Parfit Plato H H Price Joseph Priestley Thomas Reid Tertullian Peter van Inwagen and Voltaire Also included is a detailed annotated bibliography Eccentricity in Anthropology Stephen R. Milford, 2019-06-07 Eccentricity in Anthropology brings into conversation a constructive critical interpretation of David Kelsey s Eccentric Existence with a central yet often overlooked debate in theological anthropology the substantive relational imago Dei Milford s work explores new insights into human identity and dignity In particular he demonstrates the value of an alternate constructive of humanity in the image of God This construction utilizes an interpretation of Kelsey s anthropological formula so as to describe human identity as part of the created order in terms of its myriad features which are externally rooted Eccentricity in Anthropology demonstrates that an alternate approach to this debate is possible and that one can combine important aspects of both substantive and relational thinking As such Milford s work is an important contribution to studies in the doctrine of the imago Dei Taking Eccentric Existence s invitation to act as a springboard for further debate seriously it presents one possible fruitful use of Kelsey s work to address theological anthropological questions In a very real sense this book is both a discussion in systematic theology and at the same time a work in contemporary historical theology Death and Afterlife Stephen T. Davis, 2016-01-06 This book began as a series of papers at a conference called Death and Afterlife held in Claremont California in January 1987 under the auspices of the Department of Religion of the Claremont Graduate School The responses to each paper and several comments are also included A Sense of Presence Stephen H. Smith, 2016-09-15 Divided into five parts A Sense of Presence explores the central thesis that the resurrection of Jesus could be explained as a psychological event involving one hallucination possibly occurring to Peter and a hysterical reaction by colleagues which convinced them that Jesus had appeared to them too This approach is justified by showing that claims made by often impressionable people to have witnessed supernatural events in more recent times such as visions of the Virgin Mary or weeping statues have usually attracted a similar hysterical reaction involving large numbers Some of these reactions take hold sufficiently strongly to facilitate the development of new sects or movements which persist even when their credibility is challenged The remaining four parts set this thesis in context Part 1 shows that resurrection was already a widely accepted concept in the socio cultural world in which Jesus was born Part 2 deals with the New Testament accounts of the resurrection showing that they are often contradictory Part 4 presents and discusses the philosophical problems involved in a psycho physical person rising from the dead while Part 5 looks at the historical and theological issues associated with such an event The argument presented is not intended to be dogmatic but simply seeks to show that naturalistic alternative explanations to the one generally accepted by believers should be given far more attention than they usually receive A Sense of Presence invites readers to challenge the status quo and will appeal to those wishing to challenge generally accepted Christian views Death and Immortality R.W. Perrett, 2013-11-11 The research for this work was undertaken during my tenure of a Senior Tutor ship in the Faculty of Arts and Music at the University of Otago 1983-85 Versions of some of the chapters herein have already been accepted for publication in the form of journal articles in Philosophy Philosophy East and West Sophia and Religious Studies My thanks to the editors and publishers concerned for permission to reuse this material A number of people have assisted me in various ways My greatest debt is to Graham Oddie who supervised my doctoral research in this area and with whom I have had the benefit of innumerable discussions on these and other philosophical matters I am very grateful for all I have learned from him I would also like to thank Bob Durrant for commenting helpfully on Chapter 2 the late Jim Harvie both for his valuable suggestions particularly regarding the material of Chapter 4 and for his encouraging enthusiasm for the whole project George Hughes for his extensive comments on the whole work and for various points of detail Alan Musgrave Charles Pigden and Bryan Wilson Despite much good advice however I have some times preferred to go my own way recalling Blake's proverb If the fool would persist in his folly he would become wise With regard to the typing of the manuscript I am indebted to the word processor wizardry of Jane Tannahill and Christine Colbert Christian Theology Millard J. Erickson, 2013-08-15 Leading evangelical scholar Millard Erickson offers a new edition of his bestselling textbook now substantially updated and revised throughout

This edition takes into account feedback from professors and students and reflects current theological conversations with added material on the atonement justification and divine foreknowledge Erickson's comprehensive introduction is biblical contemporary moderate and fair to various positions and it applies doctrine to Christian life and ministry The Myth of an Afterlife Michael Martin, Keith Augustine, 2015-03-12 Because every single one of us will die most of us would like to know what if anything awaits us afterward not to mention the fate of lost loved ones Given the nearly universal vested interest in deciding this question in favor of an afterlife it is no surprise that the vast majority of books on the topic affirm the reality of life after death without a backward glance But the evidence of our senses and the ever gaining strength of scientific evidence strongly suggest otherwise In The Myth of an Afterlife The Case against Life after Death Michael Martin and Keith Augustine collect a series of contributions that redress this imbalance in the literature by providing a strong comprehensive and up to date casebook of the chief arguments against an afterlife Divided into four separate sections this collection opens with a broad overview of the issues as contributors consider the strongest evidence of whether or not we survive death in particular the biological basis of all mental states and their grounding in brain activity that ceases to function at death Next contributors consider a host of conceptual and empirical difficulties that confront the various ways of surviving death from bodiless minds to bodily resurrection to any form of posthumous survival Then essayists turn to internal inconsistencies between traditional theological conceptions of an afterlife heaven hell karmic rebirth and widely held ethical principles central to the belief systems supporting those notions In the final section authors offer critical evaluations of the main types of evidence for an afterlife Fully interdisciplinary The Myth of an Afterlife The Case against Life after Death brings together a variety of fields of research to make that case including cognitive neuroscience philosophy of mind personal identity philosophy of religion moral philosophy psychical research and anomalistic psychology As the definitive casebook of arguments against life after death this collection is required reading for any instructor researcher and student of philosophy religious studies or theology It issues to raise provocative issues new to readers regardless of background from those who believe fervently in the reality of an afterlife to those who do not or are undecided on the matter
