Chartered Territory Ben Zabulis, 2012-08-08 Ben Zabulis

Chartered Territory is a rich and diverse account of sixteen years spent living and working abroad as an engineer from the chaos of everyday life in Lagos to the unique Hong Kong via the conformity of salaryman life in Japan and the wonders of the subcontinent Personal accounts of climbing Mount Fuji and taking part in dragon boat races go hand in hand with events on a global scale as the author experiences a Nigerian coup d etat the handover of Hong Kong from Great Britain to China the terrifying SARS outbreak and the opening of Bhutan to more commercial tourism A unique light hearted and warm first hand account of ordinary and not so ordinary life in foreign cultures will leave the reader hungering after adventure themselves

Surviving SAJOMACO Bunmi Asaolu, 2021-08-27 Question What do you do when the kitchen wall collapses into the vat of beans being cooked for a horde of hungry schoolboys Answer You serve it up anyway Why let a few lumps of clay and the odd metal screw spoil a decent meal When Bunmi Asaolu arrived at the grand gates of St John Mary s Unity Secondary School SAJOMACO as a first year student you d be forgiven for assuming he was swapping life on the serene university campus he grew up on for another of equal civility Wrong Behind the gates of SAJOMACO lay a world of contradictions unspoken but strict hierarchical codes juxtaposed with utter chaos Asaolu presents a wry satirical and at once serious look at a Nigerian public boarding school in the 1990s through the eyes of a sheltered child navigating its brutal corridors In Surviving SAJOMACO Asaolu s experiences and those of his contemporaries are laid bare giving the reader a raw and at times jarring insight into the incongruencies of school life whilst subtly tracking the story of Nigeria itself Searching Greener Pastures Dolapo Ajakaiye, 2011 Gladys left a comfortable life in Nigeria with family to study in England Her husband John embedded in the traditional African culture failed to adapt to life in England and left his wife to cope with the difficult lifestyle Her marriage suffered and she experienced nostalgia and heartache She left a collective society and found herself in an individualistic society where no one cared if you existed or not This to her was a huge cultural shock She was faced with racial discrimination due to the colour of her skin and accent She witnessed first hand lack of respect for cultural diversity by the Whites The plight of the ethnic minority especially the Blacks saddened her They were always at the bottom of the ladder of preference In a society where stereotyping and assumption determines acceptance or rejection she questioned the greed of the African leaders especially those in her country Nigeria These leaders make life at home difficult and unbearable for the people and they pretend all is well Their citizens in search of greener pastures blindly subject themselves to voluntary exile and a new form of modern day slavery to the West in the form of brain drain Highly skilled and qualified professionals with University degrees from developing countries end up as menial workers in unskilled jobs like cleaners care support workers security guards waitresses and check out staff They hardly get decent jobs because of their skin colour and accent It is often difficult to retrace their steps and return home as all has been sacrificed for the sojourn The role of the West in the indirect modern day slavery is also examined Surviving in Biafra Alfred Obiora Uzokwe,2003 In 1966 several waves of rioting in northern Nigeria culminated in the brutal massacre of thousands of easterners by their northern Nigerian counterparts Sensing that their safety could no longer be guaranteed the easterners fled to the eastern region and established an independent nation called Biafra Refusing to accept her sovereignty Nigeria waged a thirty month war against Biafra targeting air assaults at civilian locations which resulted in the deaths of thousands of children women and the elderly Nigeria used land and sea blockade to prevent relief food from reaching hungry masses in Biafra and thousands of children died from a form of malnutrition called kwashiorkor At the end of it all in 1970 two million people had perished The Beat of My Drum Babatunde Olatunji,Robert Atkinson,2005 Babatunde Olatunji s record album Drums of Passion proclaimed that the time had come for America to recognize Africa s cultural contributions to the music world Through his many albums and live performances the Nigerian drummer popularized West African traditional music and spread his message of racial harmony In this long awaited autobiography Olatunji presents his life story and the philosophy that guided him Olatunji influenced and inspired musicians for more than forty years from luminaries to music students and the many ordinary people who participated in his drum circles He writes about rhythm being the soul of life and about the healing power of the drum Ultimately The Beat of My Drum shows why at the time of his death in 2003 Olatunji had become according to The New York Times the most visible African musician in the United States Surviving and Thriving Evelyn Sinclair,2019-08-08 A young Scotswoman marries a Nigerian against her parents wishes and accompanies him when he returns to his homeland in the 1960s Acclimatising to African culture becomes an exhilarating adventure But an unexpected bombing raid changes everything plunging her into a series of terrifying and lonely events Will their child be born safely Will she survive the conflict Find out how courage faith tenacity and resilience during the Nigerian Civil War lead to hope and a new life in this inspiring memoir GraceLand Chris Abani,2004 Born into poverty in the chaotic capital city of Nigeria Elvis is tempted by the underworld and enters a life of crime encountering beggars musicians and American pop culture as he tries to survive in postcolonial Nigeria Anderson s Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion

Motivational Speaker2 Tilawan,2012-07-19 Inspiring entertaining intriguing and thrilling He had a smooth and great command of the English language that left one in no doubt of the type of education he had I was not particularly elated about getting a male caller The men have a way of drawing you to their problems which often had to do with their business deals or financial difficulties and you would end up giving the same advice all over again and thus turning the show to be a boring repetition of talks But with the ladies you are sure to bounce on an interesting topic that reveals a lot of a sleazy life history It was not that the men had no history of scandals of theirs to reveal but it was the ladies that normally were more imminent on their life stories Hello DJ SST he said He was definitely not a regular caller probably not even a first caller My buddies on the show were all used to calling me with just SST Yeah you are welcome to the motivation dance club on Peoples FM and what dance steps do you have for us today I asked in my usual polite and rehearsed manner of speaking to a new caller Really sir this is my first time he said rather apologetically I was right He was a first time caller And he was coming with this sir stuff that I haven t heard on the show for such a long time Since I became a buddy and household name to my callers in Lagos everybody was quick to address me just as SST There was no sir or Mr for me now For a caller not to call me with my familiar initials could imply he was a new person on the sho as I call it And nobody wants to be seen as a new person on the show in Lagos Anyway I think I like the guy He sounded a little cultured and might even turn out to be a gentleman A gentleman in Lagos Well why not You never know as they say OK you are welcome to the motivation dance club and as you know I am DJ SST and we dont need introduction on the motivation dance club in Lagos We just need more people to move on to our dance floor and show us their dancing steps I was trying to loosen the tension that he exhibited in his voice Yes thanks sir he said
