Surviving Grief And Learning To Live Again:

Surviving Grief ... and Learning to Live Again Catherine M. Sanders, 2015-08-13 An insightful compassionate account of the grieving process that helps us through the pain and isolation experienced with the loss of a loved one. We're never really prepared for the loss of someone we love. Thrown into a state of emotional chaos, we experience rage, guilt, anxiety, and intense sadness all at once. It's the oldest story in the world; we tell ourselves millions of people have had to cope with this before, and yet we always believe that what we are experiencing is unique to us. We feel isolated in our anguish and often ashamed of what we are feeling. A profoundly compassionate and insightful book, Surviving Grief: Learning to Live Again, offers you the support and understanding you need to get you through this difficult time. Written by Dr. Catherine Sanders, a therapist and researcher specializing in bereavement issues and one who has lived through the loss of close family members, it helps you to see that what you are feeling is part of a natural process of readjustment and renewal. According to Dr. Sanders, grieving like any other natural regenerative process must be allowed to run its proper course if we are ever to regain our equilibrium and continue on with our lives. To help us better understand the process, she describes the five universal phases of grief: Shock, Awareness of Loss, Conservation, and The Need to Withdraw, Healing, and Renewal, and guides us through each. Drawing directly from her own experiences and those of her clients and her research studies, she delves deeply and compassionately into the different experiences of grief and talks about what it means to lose a mate, a parent, or a child. And she discusses the factors that can have an influence on the grieving process, such as age, gender, and the circumstances surrounding the loved one's death.

A Personal Grief N. E. Kurz, 2025-04-03

A Personal Grief Finding Faith Through Loss When a profound loss or tragedy of any kind enters into our lives it's not unusual for the event to knock us down in the totality of our body soul and spirit We've suffered loss beyond what we feel capable of surviving A child's death for example is a major change in life which can cause some bereaved parents to re-evaluate everything including their religious convictions Likewise after trauma of any kind whether it's a great personal tragedy of another sort or a natural disaster of some kind such as a hurricane in Florida or a tornado in Missouri or a raging wild fire in California whatever the event we're startled into realizing our profound need for stability and assistance in our lives And that's because sometimes we have to suffer great loss before we can wake up and respond with joy and gratitude to the good news of the incredible mercy grace and purpose for our lives of the One who made us This is the message to which N E Kurz turns in this book She notes that in our attempt to deal with our life after any great loss we'll actually need to dig into all facets of our existence We must persevere in all areas of our lives in order to regroup and to obtain complete healing We must take care of the earthly the physical and emotional part of our temporal being as well as strive for an understanding of the spiritual aspect the Ultimate Reality But how are we to do that We have to gain strength physically and emotionally to get on with what really matters our understanding of the spiritual part But where does that lead us Great loss in our lives may provoke either a strengthening of faith or conversely a crisis of faith Even persons who previously held strong religious convictions may sometimes find themselves struggling with religious concepts that do not seem to match up with the sorrows of life On the other hand for an agnostic person profound loss or crisis may result in a search for or a confrontation of various areas of doubts and questions in order to clarify the meaning and the relevance of personal faith However in trying to make a search for spiritual truth of this sort individuals may run into an assortment of modern problems which loom as serious barriers to faith making it difficult for them to actually find truth Although a majority of men and women in our day struggle with tough questions such as these most Christians downplay the importance of religious questioning Thus seekers of truth are often reluctant to ask the awesome questions lurking just beneath the surface Understanding first hand the current deemphasis on religious questioning N E Kurz has published this work the first book of her Window of Opportunity Trilogy both to call attention to the seriousness of the situation and to provide a context to help those struggling with both the temporal and the spiritual aspects of recovery from loss The second book will be A Reasonable Faith Finding Belief Through Rational Evidence Forthcoming Spring 2025 And the third will be A Perilous Time Keeping Faith During Periods of Adversity Forthcoming Summer 2025 In part one of A Personal Grief the author shares the story of her daughter Karen's untimely death which awakened her to the realization of her need to search for objective truth But then miraculously the Lord helped her to find answers to her questions lead her to faith and call her to write Hence she discovered faith through loss But in part two of her book she shares vital material that can assist others in their confrontations with both the temporal and the spiritual aspects of their loss First the temporal by sharing with them about overcoming such things as shock emotional pain depression panic guilt anger health aspects life changes and so forth Then the spiritual by helping them in their search for answers and Ultimate Reality

Grover Professor Emeritus,Susan G. Fowler,2011-07-13 This book provides a guide for grieving youth and adults as well as extensive descriptive lists of recommended professional literature resources Grief caused by loss is both a very common human experience and a highly individualized one For example children experience a number of losses that are unique to their young age such as sibling and parent death adoption or divorce and should be given special consideration by professionals and parents helping them in these situations For gay lesbian or cohabiting heterosexual couples that suffer the loss of a partner societal standards often deny the survivors in these relationships the right to grieve Helping Those Experiencing Loss A Guide to Grieving Resources is a book like no other supplying compassionate information for navigating the emotional distress that every man and woman will experience in their lifetime as well as a comprehensive guide to the literature of bereavement and grieving It explains the grieving process interpreting the results of research on the topic in plain language and addressing specific groups children young adults parents who have lost a child adults who have lost spouses and the aging population Recovering from the Loss of a Parent Katherine Fair Donnelly,2015-05-26 An extremely well written compassionate guide for the millions of people who come face to face with a death in their own families Losing a parent is a traumatic blow and the grief can seem unbearable But you are not alone and you can get through this In this first book dedicated to the experience of adults who have lost a parent expert on grief Katherine Fair Donnelly shares intimate telling interviews with surviving sons and daughters and presents practical ways in which surviving family members can take steps toward recovering from their devastating loss Transcending Loss Ashley Davis Bush,1997-08-01 Compassionate poignant and practical Transcending Loss will be a great blessing on your lifetime journey of recovery Harold Bloomfield MD psychiatrist and author of How to Survive the Loss of Love and How to Heal Depression Death doesn't end a relationship it simply forges a new type of relationship one based not on physical presence but on memory spirit and love There are many wonderful books available that address acute grief and how to cope with it But they often focus on crisis management and imply that there is an end to mourning and fail to acknowledge grief's ongoing impact and how it changes through the years This is a book about death and grief yes but more important it is a book about love and hope I have learned from my experience and interviews with courageous people about pain struggle resiliency and meaning Their stories show over time you can learn to transcend even in spite of the pain from the introduction by Ashley Davis Bush LCSW
