Cochrane,2007 When Canadians have legal problems they need useful and understandable legal information OCo not legal mumbo jumbo or weaselly fine print We are living in a society that is becoming increasingly complicated While trying to raise families buy homes and keep our jobs we are bumping into each other more and more In this book lawyer Michael Cochrane provides straight answers to common legal questions he encounters each week on his TV program Strictly Legal

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index ,1975 Do We Need a Marriage Contract? Michael G.

Cochrane,2010-05-14 Congratulations You ve decided to get married It s a wonderful time but there s more to think about than just the perfect wedding and honeymoon Marriage is more complicated than it used to be People are marrying later in life and perhaps for the second or third time Often they are bringing more assets and more liabilities into the relationship blending children from previous relationships and generally facing all kinds of new challenges Marriage contracts wills and Powers of Attorney are all valuable ways to set your expectations in advance Do We Need a Marriage Contract is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases Cochrane includes a sample marriage contract to address the critical issues you need to be aware of including Protection of assets brought into the marriage The special practical and financial concerns of blending children into new families Family pressure to have a marriage contract Business pressure to have a marriage contract How to have a discussion with your partner and not spoil the romance How marriage contracts work with your wills and Powers of Attorney How to work in a cost effective way with a lawyer How to avoid the relationship mistakes that lead to divorce This is your future together Get it right from the very beginning Take the advice of Michael Cochrane a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience in family law and carefully consider the numerous issues that can affect your relationship Do We Need a Cohabitation Agreement? Michael G.

Cochrane,2010-05-14 You re committed you re moving in together and you re blending your households But are you forgetting something Many Canadians find themselves in common law relationships and think that they aren t any different from a legal marriage It can be a shock to find out that when the going gets tough certain rights under the law not to mention financial obligations do or do not apply For instance if one common law partner becomes seriously ill or passes away will the other be able to access joint bank accounts Their shared home What happens if there is no will And what about the kids These are some of the many serious questions that couples need to consider before sharing their lives all of which can be addressed in a cohabitation agreement A cohabitation agreement allows a couple to make sure their partner and any children are taken care of in times of need or crisis that ownership in properties or financial resources are clear combined separated or protected Most of all these contracts allow for the peace of mind that comes with having a game plan in place should the relationship end due to death or separation Take the advice of Michael Cochrane a lawyer with more than 30 years of experience and consider the numerous issues that can affect a common law relationship Do We Need a Cohabitation Agreement is written in clear nontechnical language and includes real life examples based on Canadian cases Cochrane addresses critical issues such as wills and estates powers of attorney the special concerns of step families and same sex couples and how to have this discussion with your partner It will also help you work in a cost effective way with a lawyer should you decide that an agreement will benefit your relationship This is your future together Get it right from the very beginning The Everyday Guide to Canadian Family Law Michael George Cochrane,1991 Canadian Books in Print,2003 Canadian Book Review Annual Joyce M.
