Surviving Globalism The Social And Environmental Challenges:

Surviving Globalism Ted Schrecker, 2016-07-27 Management consultant Kenichi Ohmae describes the new reality of global economic competition as a borderless world What is the future of human values and of environmental quality in such a world The authors whose work is collected in Surviving Globalism try to answer these questions from the point of view of sociology social history philosophy geography and political theory Many argue that the gains made over the last few decades in terms of social justice and environmental protection are in grave peril Others take a somewhat more optimistic note but all emphasize the importance of dealing with environmental and social policy against the background of a transforming global economy

Globalization Jan Aart Scholte, 2017-03-16 This highly acclaimed bestselling textbook quickly established itself as one of the leading texts on the subject worldwide in its 1st edition Now substantially revised and updated Scholte provides students with a comprehensive introduction to globalization and questions why this phenomenon has occurred to what extent it changes the world and whether it is a force for good or ill Accessibly written by a leading authority both as an academic researcher and a policy consultant this second edition draws on the author's research in more than 20 countries over 5 continents Split into 3 parts the text first outlines a critical framework for understanding globalization before exploring its impact on society and the key debates surrounding its normative impact Exploring questions such as what globalization is how it has emerged and what effect it has had on society this text is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students seeking a thorough study of globalization New to this Edition A broader perspective on all the dimensions of globalization Makes use of the extensive new data and research findings since the first edition was released Draws more widely from other fields such as Business Studies Law and Economics

The Promise of the Third Way O. Newman, R. De Zoysa, Richard De Zoysa, 2001-05-16 Aiming to transcend the outdated conflict between Left and Right the Third Way was welcomed by leading figures on the world stage Its programme of modernisation flexibility and community regeneration indicated a way forward for the New Age Within a firm market emphasis equality of opportunity and social inclusion were given a prominent place However its lack of direction and disinclination to face hard decisions have left its promise unfulfilled This book puts forward a rigorous rethinking towards making the Third Way an effective instrument of progress for Britain as well as abroad

The Tropical Timber Trade Regime F. Gale, 1998-09-14 Gale explains why international negotiations have not produced a sustainable solution to tropical rainforest degradation Using an innovative critical approach to international regimes the author analyzes the structure and operation of the International Tropical Timber Organization ITTO He shows how the timber industry and producing and consuming country governments created a blocking alliance that favoured developmentalist interests and ideas The ITTO bolstered this alliance by permitting environmentalists merely to voice but not to negotiate their concerns

Dynamic Agroindustrial Clusters Gabriel Casaburi, 1999-03-08 The recent economic liberalization in developing countries is making many sectors succumb to new competitive pressures Governments face the dilemma of how to help firms compete without falling back into failed dirigiste policies Based on recent findings on the importance of inter firm cooperation public private collaboration and local policies in boosting competitiveness this book analyzes how much these elements explain the new dynamism of two agroindustrial sectors in Argentina and Chile dairy and fresh fruit respectively

Institutions and Institutional Change in China F. Wang, 2016-01-18 Wang proposes and applies an innovative analytical framework to study the institutional continuity and changes in China More specifically this study examines and explains the peculiar premodernity and the profound modernization process of China On the track of a state led modernization the dragon of China is found to be institutionally entering the nets of the market economy An inquiry of China's labour allocation patterns and their changes serves as the indicator for the institutional analysis

Dilemmas in Defence Decision-Making A. Crosby, 1998-05-13 The Cold War produced a matrix of Canadian US extra governmental military and economic relationships which significantly shaped Canadian political decision making as it related to the defence of the continent under the auspices of the North American Air Aerospace Defence Agreement NORAD In the post cold War era these relationships continue to effectively support a traditional security agenda for the Canadian government The rewritten NORAD Agreement signed in March 1996 is the vehicle for Canadian participation in US missile defence programs worldwide Paying particular attention to the decisions to adopt a nuclear weapons role for Canada's continental air defence forces to test the US air launched cruise missile in the Canadian North and to become increasingly involved in active missile and space based defence programs the author examines the Cold War construction of Canadian US military and economic relationships the effects of these relationships on political decision making the public discourse as a site of alternative understandings of Canada's role in the Cold War Ann Denholm Crosby provides a challenging analysis of Canadian defence decision making in both its Cold war and post Cold War contexts

Sanctions as Economic Statecraft S. Chan, A. Drury, 2000-07-14 This book approaches economic sanctions as a form of statecraft in order to better study the oft used but not well understood policy The chapters study a variety of historical and current cases involving the use of economic threats and promises Their authors come from both academic and policy making fields as well as different disciplinary backgrounds political science and economics They apply different research approaches case studies statistical analysis formal economics to increase our understanding of the sanction puzzle

Economic and Political Impediments to Middle East Peace L. Drake, 1999-11-09 The accords and protocols that underlie the Arab and Israeli peace agreements set into place economic policies and political processes so flawed that they are bound to fail The chapters in this volume look at the diplomatic and historical precedents that have led to this situation and they debate some cynically and some sympathetically the reasons why the institutional structures and trade regimes the process has created are so weak But for whatever reason the structural flaws built into the Middle East peace process are not only biased toward the dominant players but against the people who most want peace of contemporary theoretical debate in international political economy this book overturns a number of myths about the political economy of trade in one of the oldest areas of industry In this way the author systematically links the changing characteristics of the trade regime to structural change and adjustment in global industry He argues that state policy processes international regimes and the industrial adjustment strategies of firms must be conceptualised as integrated processes of governance cutting across levels of analysis in the global political economy
