Surviving The Moment Of Impact:

Invisible Loss Christina Rasmussen, 2024-06-18 From an acclaimed grief educator and the author of Second Firsts and Where Did You Go comes a road map to recognize and heal the unspoken often misunderstood experience of everyday loss so you can finally reenter and live your life in full Compared to most my problems are small I should be happy with what I've got Our inner judge often tells us grief is allowed for big losses but that we should tough out everyday heartbreak The loss of a loved one and a devastating divorce are likely to be accepted as grief events But what about moments when we feel overlooked disregarded or misunderstood This could look like rejection in the workplace lack of intimacy in a relationship being overlooked by friends or working in a position that's not a dream job These are losses society doesn't recognize mirror back to us or validate says acclaimed grief educator Christina Rasmussen As a result we don't recognize or validate them either This unacknowledged type of grief invisible losses that are often labeled as not worthy of recognition can be hard to define and may surface as feelings of anxiety depression angst or restlessness These are the moments when we shift perception of ourselves and can end up living in continuous survival mode without really recognizing or understanding why In Invisible Loss Rasmussen shines a light on this unrecognized form of grief Because we avoid invisible loss we don't process it instead we seek the protection of an endless waiting room in the hope that time will heal our wounds Here Rasmussen helps you meet your loss free from shame or guilt to explore The origin of your invisible loss and how you've coped along the way The five life reentry phases based on the Life Reentry Model Exercises to help you find your way out of the waiting room Guidance in reframing your thoughts toward your original self The entire world is silently grieving attempting to process a form of heartbreak unlike anything we've ever experienced We need a new language and road map for our invisible losses says Rasmussen This guide gives you the tools you need in order to heal move forward and embrace the life you were meant to lead

Surviving the Moment of Impact T. Cole Rachel, 2000 Surviving Beverly Gooden, 2022-06-05 Library Journal Self Help Bestseller Winner of the 2023 National Indie Excellence Award in African American Nonfiction Silver Winner of the 2023 Nautilus Book Award A revealing look at why domestic violence victims stay with their abusers and how they can ultimately leave And survive One Saturday morning Gooden is woken up by her husband shoving her off the bed for no discernible reason Despite her quick thinking and even quicker footsteps her husband catches her his sudden anger inexplicable No words are exchanged He begins to strangle her as he has done many times before With unflinching vulnerability Gooden outlines in painstaking detail what she had to do to walk away and how others can use her experiences to escape their own abuse from skimming the grocery money to squirreling away personal belongings to navigating a domestic violence shelter She offers strategies for overcoming the barriers survivors often face such as money housing overcritical social circles or most powerfully love Uniquely compassionate when it comes to the heartbreak of still loving one's abuser Gooden shares how she transformed and extended this love outward using her story to encourage others to choose themselves The voice and fire behind WhyIStayed Bev Gooden is exceptionally positioned to explore the many reasons victims stay in abusive relationships and how they can muster the resources and motivation to leave Surviving is unlike any memoir of survivorship given its nuance compassion and candor Above all it is an exquisitely powerful testament to Gooden s healing survivorship and dedication to helping others do the same Drum ,2003-07 A Street Survival Guide for Public Safety Officers Daniel Rudofossi,2017-08-09 An expansion of Dr Rudofossi s theory of Police and Public Safety Complex Trauma this text integrates other models of trauma and loss into a one of a kind intervention model It offers insider perspectives from police psychologists police managers and clinicians describing what police personnel experience on the job along with expert intervent Surviving Rome Kim Bowes,2025-11-04 A radical revision and worker s eye view of everything we thought we knew about the ancient Roman economy The story of ancient Rome is predominantly one of great men with great fortunes Surviving Rome unearths another history one of ordinary Romans who worked with their hands and survived through a combination of grit and grinding labor Focusing on the working majority Kim Bowes tells the stories of people like the tenant farmer Epimachus Faustilla the moneylender and the pimp Philokles She reveals how the economic changes of the period created a set of bitter challenges and opportunistic hustles for everyone from farmers and craftspeople to day laborers and slaves She finds working people producing a consumer revolution making and buying all manner of goods from fine pottery to children s toys Many of the poorest working people probably pieced together a living from multiple sources of income including wages And she suggests that Romans most daunting challenge was the struggle to save Like many modern people saving enough to buy land or start a business was a slow precarious slog Bowes shows how these economies of survival were shared by a wide swath of the populace blurring the lines between genders ages and legal status Drawing on new archaeological and textual evidence Surviving Rome presents a radical new perspective on the economy of ancient Rome while speaking to the challenges of today s laborers and gig workers surviving in an unforgiving global world

Reports Civil Aeromedical Research Institute (U.S.),1962 From Surviving to Metaviving Julie Mengert,2025-09-04 As treatments have advanced metastatic breast cancer has become a disease that some women can live with for years which has changed the language that women use to discuss living with this form of breast cancer as discussed in this book Using the framework of Celeste Condit s rhetorical formations which includes uses of metaphors topics and values among other rhetorical features the author examines how language has shifted from one of war and survivor rhetoric to that of metavivor rhetoric which includes metaphors of water and prison among others Another hallmark of this emerging rhetorical formation is existing in a state of liminality where the cancer neither progresses nor retreats leading to women experiencing time differently By examining how women discuss living with cancer in an online breast cancer support group the author analyzes the language shifts taking place and argues that women have moved from the dominant war survivor rhetorical formation to one grounded in metavivor rhetoric Within this evolution comes an understanding of what it means to live with a chronic yet ultimately terminal illness and an acknowledgment of the impact that their lives perceived time has on these language choices
