Out of Order? (Routledge Revivals) E. Cashmore,E. McLaughlin,2013-10-08 First published in 1991 this book evaluates and compares the problematic relationships that have sometimes existed between police and Afro Caribbean people in Britain and in the United States of America Contributors from both sides of the Atlantic assess conflicting claims from police and black communities as to whether some police are racist or too brutal in their operations Although this book was written in the early 90s many of the issues discussed remain interesting and relevant to our society today Black

Youth in Crisis (Routledge Revivals) E. Cashmore,B. Troyna,2013-10-08 First published in 1982 this book considers the position of young Afro Caribbean people in Britain in the 1980s It looks at how at the time this group of young people were disproportionately hit by growing unemployment seemed to be over represented in crime statistics and were often disadvantage at school The authors of the book analyse the struggles of the time and look at the reasons for their existence

The Street Casino Simon Harding,2014-06-11 Gang violence is on the increase in certain neighbourhoods There is an urgent need for a fresh perspective that offers insight into gang structure organisation and offending behaviour to explain this increase Using the findings from an extensive ethnographic study of local residents professionals and gang members in south London and drawing on his vast experience and knowledge of the field Simon Harding proposes a unique theoretical perspective on survival in violent street gangs He applies Bourdieu s principles of social field analysis and habitus to gangs establishing them as a social arena of competition where actors struggle for distinction and survival striving to become players in the game in the casino of life Success is determined by accruing and retaining playing chips street capital Harding s dramatic and compelling insights depict gang life as one of constant flux where players jostle for position reputation status and distinction This perspective offers new evidence to the field that will help academics students practitioners and policy makers to understand the dynamics of gang behaviour and the associated risks of violence and offending Simon Harding is currently a senior lecturer in criminology at Middlesex University UK He draws on 25 years of experience in research public policy and project delivery as a crime reduction and community safety practitioner Ethnicity And Crime: A Reader

Spalek, Basia,2008-07-01 Basia Spalek has compiled an excellent reader about a much researched and highly sensitive subject Crucially she contextualises ethnicity and crime within broadly defined social and intellectual contexts avoiding the limitation of all too frequently repeated research based solely on statistical measures and policy evaluations Simon Holdaway Professor of Criminology and Sociology Sheffield University Issues in relation to race and ethnicity have generated substantial and ever growing interest from and within a multitude of academic research and policy contexts This book brings together important material in race and ethnic studies and provides different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime and the criminal justice system Ethnicity and Crime A Reader consists of a collection of works that capture the main themes that arise from within this vast area of work It is divided into five sections Race and crime racial discrimination and criminal justice The racialisation of crime Social political and cultural contexts Race ethnicity and victimisation Self and discipline reflexivity Ethnic identities and crime Ethnic identities institutional reflexivity and crime Each section contains recurring and overlapping themes and includes many different ways of thinking about race and ethnicity in relation to crime It spans theoretical approaches that might be labelled as positivist critical race analyses left realist approaches feminist as well as post modern perspectives This is the first title in the new series Readings in Criminology and Criminal Justice and follows the series format of thematic sections together with an editor s introduction to the complete volume and an introduction to each section
