

50 YEARS OF PROMISE

Year 1995. "Right now, we are right in this house where an old man is being killed brutally. The cause of death is remains unknown. But the forensics has come down to the conclusion where the death is unnatural. The old man also seems to be a war veteran as we the apprehend a soldier badge right on his right hand." Coming from a voice of a female reporter.

FLASH TO THE PAST

Early 1945. A soldier, seems to be running away from something. The terrified looks on his face tells that he had been through hell. He keeps on running and running until he goes into a forest. Then, he trips over a tree while running downhill. He rolling downwards and keep rolling until he passed out.

After a few moments, a warm atmosphere surrounds this soldier. Feeling comfy and relieved as he finally finds his peace after went through the hard battles against the German armies. He slowly opens up his eyes and wakes up inside a comfy looking house with a fireplace being lit. Lay down on top of a soft sofa with a warm tea on top of the small table right beside him. "Is this what heaven feels like?", he said it inside his mind.

Feeling drowsy, he wakes up and wander around the house. As he keeps on wandering, a voice of an old lady comes from behind. He startles and turn around really fast. The old lady said, "how do you feel?" with a happy yet disturbing smile on her face. He went blank for a few seconds and then nod as he recollects his thoughts. He asks the old lady, "where am I and who are you?". Then a voice of an old man is heard as he says, "it doesn't matter who we are. The good thing is that you're okay."

The soldier then feeling comfortable and they having a good conversation for quite a while. The soldier expresses his anger and sadness about the death of his family. His family got execute by the German armies. The old couple seems to be sympathized with him. After a few conversations, the old couple leave the soldier alone as to let him rest after a rough day. The clock just went past midnight as the soldier is having a deep sleep. The atmosphere suddenly changes and the soldier can feel a chill down his spine. He wakes up instantly.
