Choral & Organ Guide ,1955      Listen Again David Wulstan,2015-10-29 How do you tell the key of a piece without looking at a score How do you know when a musical work ended before an audience applauds or a radio announcer returns on air Was there in fact a breakdown of tonality in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries These questions and others are the focus of David Wulstan s Listen Again A New History of Music He also shows where the nuove musiche of the early Baroque era came from and what the two critical but unlinked chords in the middle of Bach s Brandenburg Concerto No III signify Previous literature in music does not properly address these questions and innumerable others In Listen Again Wulstan illustrates how music from Bach to Bart k was far less revolutionary than customarily imagined and that the inversionist doctrine of Rameau and kindred acoustical misconceptions courtesy of Heinrich Schenker and other analysts solve fewer problems than their purveyor claim In Listen Again Wulstan takes to task early theorists who were mostly clerics who ignored non ecclesiastical music and their modern equivalents who consider only the blinding white of the written or printed score whilst ignoring music as heard and interpreted by the ear and brain Instead Wulstan enquires into the musical activities of the common folk to addressing key issues that early and modern theorists have regularly overlooked The book will appeal anyone who has dismissed harmony theory and the like as alien in effect to practical music Readers will find in Listen Again that the true history of music has far more practical relevance for performers than the aridity of music theory coursework demonstrating by example how this work a book about music not as in the case of so much theoretical work a book about books      The Folksong Element in the Music of Vaughan Williams Elsie Margaret PAYNE,1953      To a Nordic princess Percy Grainger,1929 Percy Grainger s cover design for published edition      Sussex Sermons Preached to a Rural Congregation Richard Lewis Browne (M.A.),1854      Music Clubs Magazine ,1933      Sussex Sermons, preached to a rural congregation Richard Lewis BROWNE,1854
