Sverige I Min Spegel:

After the Soviet Empire ,2015-10-05 The break up of the Soviet Union is a key event of the twentieth century The 39th IIS congress in Yerevan 2009 focused on causes and consequences of this event and on shifts in the world order that followed in its wake This volume is an effort to chart these developments in empirical and conceptual terms It has a focus on the lands of the former Soviet Union but also explores pathways and contexts in the Second World at large The Soviet Union was a full scale experiment in creating an alternative modernity The implosion of this union gave rise to new states in search of national identity At a time when some observers heralded the end of history there was a rediscovery of historical legacies and a search for new paths of development across the former Second World In some parts of this world long repressed legacies were rediscovered They were sometimes as in the case of countries in East Central Europe built around memories of parliamentary democracy and its replacement by authoritarian rule during the interwar period Some legacies referred to efforts at establishing statehood in the wake of the First World War others to national upheavals in the nineteenth century and earlier In Central Asia and many parts of the Caucasus the cultural heritage of Islam in its different varieties gave rise to new markers of identity but also to violent contestations In South Caucasus Georgia Armenia and Azerbaijan have embarked upon distinctly different but invariably contingent paths of development Analogously core components of the old union have gone through tumultuous but until the last year and a half largely bloodless transformations The crystallization of divergent paths of development in the two largest republics of that union i e Russia and Ukraine has ushered in divergent national imaginations but also in series of bloody confrontations Nordic War Stories Marianne Stecher-Hansen,2021-02-03

Histories of Public Diplomacy and Nation Branding in the Nordic and Baltic Countries Louis Clerc,Nikolas Glover,Paul Jordan,2015-09-29 Histories of Public Diplomacy and Nation Branding in the Nordic and Baltic Countries provides an historical perspective on public diplomacy and nation branding in the Nordic and Baltic countries from 1900 to the present day It highlights continuity and change in the efforts to strategically represent these nations abroad and shows how a self understanding of being peripheral has led to similarities in the deployed practices throughout the Nordic Baltic region Edited by Louis Clerc Nikolas Glover and Paul Jordan the volume examines a range of actors that have attempted to influence foreign opinions and strengthen their country's political and commercial position
