Swallowed By A Snake The Gift Of The Masculine Side Of Healing Second Edition:

"Dearest Angel ..." William Zimmerman, 2010-07-14 After suffering the traumatic loss of his child to abortion the day before his twenty fifth birthday in 1999 William found himself in a mental and emotional whirlwind of despair and regret of depression and guilt Nothing could prepare him for the devastating experience of losing a child and the emotions he would encounter in the aftermath The many thoughts and emotions that he experienced after the abortion were becoming far too much for his mind to contain Eighteen months after the abortion he began writing letters to the child he lost as a desperate cry for help Realizing the purpose behind the pain William battled every emotional demon imaginable to document his journey He knew he wasnt alone in his grief He wanted others who have suffered from the loss of their children to abortion to know that they too were not alone He worked on this journey over the course of ten years He has seen the depths of an emotional hell in which he questioned his own will to live Dearest Angel is the document of his journey a journey of regret and repair of grief and gratitude and of hurt and healing

has rendered a favorable verdict Mr Svoboda had the following things to say about In Search Of Fatherhood Transcending Boundaries which is authored by Diane A Sears a member of the University Council for Akamai Universitys Fatherhood and Mens Studies Program and the Managing Editor of a quarterly international male parenting journal IN SEARCH OF FATHERHOOD FORUM FOR AND ABOUT THE FATHERS OF THE WORLD BSI International still a relatively new player in pro male publishing has been putting out its IN SEARCH OF FATHERHOOD Forum For and About the Fathers of the World for well over half a decade Now BSI has released this fascinating and wide ranging volume collecting 17 pieces by 16 contributors all focused in one way or other on the ever important issue of fatherhood I personally read it cover to cover on a recent plane flight Svoboda stated BSIs publications both its journal and this book have a unique flavor For one thing substantial representation is given to men of color Its authors vary in literary skill though everything it publishes is engaging and easy to follow Some of its articles tend to have a somewhat politically reactionary flavor though despite my own personal largely progressive background I dont view this as a negative factor Svoboda continued At the same time BSIs style is very male in its sensibility stories are put out there as the authors see them with no apologies and no punches pulled Many of BS

Gently Grieving Constance M. Mucha, 2006-05-01 Using the reader as story teller this is a practical yet compassionate guide to healing and wholeness following the death of a loved one Men and Loss Kerry Jones, Martin Robb, 2024-07-19 This important book draws together new research and theories about bereavement on the one hand and men and masculinities on the other to increase our understanding of men s experience of loss and contribute towards improving support services for men following bereavement Bereavement and loss are unavoidable events in life and can be challenging experiences for anyone regardless of gender However in contemporary western cultures men s experience of bereavement continues to be framed by socially constructed ideas surrounding masculinity which dictate that men must be stoic following a loss with grief manifesting in either anger or despair Men who do not grieve in accepted masculine ways can feel judged alienated or disenfranchised This interdisciplinary and interprofessional collection presents theoretical analysis reports of research findings reviews of support and interventions and a wealth of personal accounts It includes chapters discussing partner loss childhood bereavement perinatal loss and bereavement through suicide as well as bereavement at all stages of the life course Men and Loss is an essential read for advanced students and researchers with an interest in men s health and bereavement studies from a range of disciplinary backgrounds including nursing medicine counselling sociology social work and psychology Tuesday Mornings with the Dads Dads Group, The Dads Group, 2009-08 Tuesday mornings with the dads tells the stories of fourteen men who share the same thing in common they ve all lost children in one way or another It s about how these children lived ow they blessed their families and their communities And more than anything it s about how their fathers have had to continue to live after their deaths Foreword by Tony Dungy Principles and Practice of Grief Counseling Howard R. Winokuer, Darcy L. Harris, 2012-02-14 The book is well written interesting informative thorough and useful As an educator for 43 years this is the sort of text that I would be pleased to use in my classroom I would highly recommend this book It is an important contribution to the field Gerry R Cox PhD in Illness Crisis and Loss This core introductory textbook for undergraduate and graduate level courses is the first volume to combine the knowledge and skills of counseling psychology with current theory and research in grief and bereavement It is grounded in the belief that grief counseling is distinct from other therapeutic issues because grief is an adaptive response rather than a form of pathology The book describes the unique aspects of grief as a normal response to loss and views the goal of counseling bereaved individuals as one of facilitating the unfolding of the healthy and adaptive aspects of the process as it manifests itself within each client Grief is considered a response to losses that are both death and non death related and psychological physical social economical and practical experiences of grief are addressed The text introduces various theories of bereavement and examines different therapeutic modalities that can be used in the context of grief and loss Specific counseling practices that facilitate successful interventions are discussed particularly that of presence considered by the authors to be the primary therapeutic stance when working with bereaved individuals The text also addresses grief counseling with special populations ethical issues and self care concerns for counselors Case studies discussion and reflection questions and suggested additional resources are included in each chapter Key Features Regards grief therapy as a unique form of counseling based on grief as an adaptive response rather than as a form of pathology Combines the knowledge and skills of counseling psychology with current research in grief and bereavement Written by a prominent clinician and an educator with over 60 years of combined experience in grief counseling Focuses on the importance of presence as the most important therapeutic foundation for working with bereaved individuals Life and Beyond Anthony Grzelka, 2010-10 LIFE AND BEYOND A MEDIUMS GUIDE TO DEALING WITH LOSS AND MAKING CONTACT is an interactive book that will help people to cope with grief and loss through teaching them how to make connections with the spirit world It gives hands on grief coping initiatives and addresses many different types of loss including grief and loss in men and how to us The Practice of Clinical and Counselling Supervision Nadine Pelling, Philip Armstrong, 2024-12-11 Quality supervision assists in quality service provision The Practice of Clinical and Counselling Supervision Australian and International Applications is the third edition of the leading Australian state of the art text for supervision training applicable to a vast range of applied therapists Counsellors psychologists psychotherapists social workers and clinical nurse supervisors will all find the presentation of supervision approaches methods and applications helpful From introductory conceptualisations of counselling to ethical applications and from interacting with suicidality to addressing supervisee fears this book has what supervisors need to know about supervision Specialty areas including domestic violence Christian counselling and the status of supervision research are also covered This third edition uniquely details information on supervision and counselling in various countries and thus honours the diversity of applied supervision globally With an impressive list of contributors from Australia and the broader region this book provides a wealth of practical information advice theory research evidence and essential training for supervisors
