Swallowing The Golden Stone Stories And Essays:

Swallowing the Golden Stone Walter Wangerin, Jr., 2001 A collection of stories essays and poems including Lowercase People Elisabeth and the Water Troll and To Weave a World The God-Hungry Imagination Sarah Arthur, 2007-10-01 What kind of story is your church telling Ministry experts describe our culture as having lost its story Through neglect or rejection the next generation seems unplugged from the church s core beliefs For the most part young people simply do not feel part of the ongoing communal story Paradoxically this has occurred at a time when youth have fully embraced social networks that connect the world in self obsessed I narratives This world is starving for a story bigger than what you find on Facebook and YouTube Sarah Arthur emphasizes the importance of story an intrinsic aspect of the Christian faith but an aspect that is often overlooked in ministry especially youth ministry Arthur shows how youth ministry can be planned as a transforming series of story moments instead of programming She weaves together her personal experiences and insights along with the sociological work on the faith of teenagers from the book Soul Searching by Christian Smith and Melinda Denton Repeatedly and unapologetically Arthur stresses the importance of a distinct Christian language for teenagers If teens can t speak the Christian language they don t know the Christian story If they don t know the Christian story they don t know how Christians are supposed to live So what s her solution to this narrative deficiency The idea of youth ministers as bards or storytellers Arthur reminds youth ministers that their primary task is to tell the Christian story to reclaim the imagination as part of spiritual formation and to reclaim the church as God s ongoing story This book would be insightful for all ministers not only those who work with youth It can help us make a significant shift in the way we think about and approach ministry in the postmodern world Indianapolis Monthly , 2001-09 Indianapolis Monthly is the Circle City s essential chronicle and guide an indispensable authority on what s new and what s news Through coverage of politics crime dining style business sports and arts and entertainment each issue offers compelling narrative stories and lively urbane coverage of Indy s cultural landscape How to Grow a Young Reader Kathryn Lindskoog, Ranelda Mack Hunsicker, 2002-06-18 In an age of electronic games TV videos and the Internet You can raise a book lover Reading opens up a lifetime of learning and delight to children In How to Grow a Young Reader Kathryn Lindskoog and Ranelda Mack Hunsicker offer suggestions for creating a reader friendly home truths about how literature strengthens character development and helpful strategies for nurturing a love of reading in any child Includes a helpful guide to over 1 800 books

The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature George Thomas Kurian, James D. Smith III, 2010-04-16 The written word is one of the defining elements of Christian experience As vigorous in the 1st century as it is in the 21st Christian literature has had a significant function in history and teachers and students need to be reminded of this powerful literary legacy Covering 2 000 years The Encyclopedia of Christian Literature is the first encyclopedia devoted to Christian writers and books In addition to an overview of the Christian literature this two volume set also includes 40 essays on the principal genres of Christian literature and more than 400 bio bibliographical essays describing the principal writers and their works These essays examine the evolution of Christian thought as reflected in the literature of every age The companion volume also features bibliographies an index a timeline of Christian Literature and a list of the greatest Christian authors The encyclopedia will appeal not only to scholars and Christian evangelicals but students and teachers in seminaries and theological schools as well as to the growing body of Christian readers and bibliophiles Faith Reads David Rainey,2008-07-30 At last a resource for librarians who wish to build or develop their nonfiction collection and use it to better serve the needs of adult Christian readers Covering the three major branches of Christianity Roman Catholic Protestant and Orthodox the author organizes more than 600 titles into subject categories ranging from biography the arts and education to theology devotion and spiritual warfare Award winning classics are noted Introductory narrative frames the literature and helps librarians better understand Christian literature and learn how to establish selection criteria for building a Christian nonfiction collection The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2002 Jesus Walter Wangerin Jr.,2009-05-18 Walter Wangerin Jr is know for his powerful storytelling in such books as The Book of the Dun Cow The Book of God and Paul A Novel Now he offers the most important story of the Christian faith the life of Jesus presented in the author s inimitable style Rich in atmosphere and historical detail and as compelling as any contemporary fiction this novel will move readers with its creative perspectives and deep insights Reliving the Passion Walter Wangerin Jr.,2010-06-01 No story has more significance than this the death and resurrection of Jesus But somehow the oft repeated tale of Christ s passion can become too familiar too formalized for us to experience its incredible immediacy The meditations in Reliving the Passion which received a Gold Medallion Award in 1993 follow the story as given in the gospel of Mark from the moment when the chief priests plot to kill Jesus to the Resurrection But these readings are more than a recounting of events they are an imaginary reenactment leading the reader to re experience the Passion or perhaps see it fully for the very first time As only a great storyteller can Walter Wangerin enables the reader to see the story from the inside to discover the strangeness and wonder of the events as they unfold It s like being there In vivid images and richly personal detail Wangerin helps us recognize our own faces on the streets of Jerusalem breathe the dark and heavy air of Golgotha and experience as Mary and Peter did the bewilderment the challenge and the ultimate revelation of knowing the man called Jesus The story gets personal for every reader writes Wangerin for this is indeed our story the story whereby we personally have been saved from such a death as Jesus died No there is not another tale in the world more meaningful than this here is where we all take our stands against sin and death and Satan upon this historical historic event I consider it a holy privilege to participate in it retelling Read this book slowly Read it with a seeing faith Walk the way with Jesus We his followers of later centuries do follow even now Read walk come sigh live Live Rise again Letters from the Land of Cancer Walter Wangerin, Jr.,Walter Wangerin,2010 After receiving his cancer diagnosis Wangerin wrote letters about confronting his mortality about living with the messiness of undone tasks and bodily weakness These meditations present his testimony to faith love and the shocking reality of hope
