SWANN'S WAY

Swanns Way Heritage Press

Catherine Heatherington

Swanns Way Heritage Press:

Harmonies of Heaven and Earth Joscelyn Godwin, 1987-11-01 Joscelyn Godwin explores music's effects on matter, living things and human behavior. Turning to metaphysical accounts of the higher worlds and theories of celestial harmony, the author follows the path of musical inspiration on its descent to Earth, illuminating the archetypal currents that lie beneath Western musical history.

Thresholds: Rethinking Spirituality Through Music Marcel Cobussen, 2017-07-05 In Thresholds, Marcel Cobussen rethinks the relationship between music and spirituality. The point of departure is the current movement within contemporary classical music known as New Spiritual Music, with as its main representatives Arvo Pärt, John Tavener and Giya Kancheli. In almost all respects, the musical principles of the new spiritual music seem to be diametrically opposed to those of modernism: repetition and rest versus development and progress; tradition and familiarity versus innovation and experiment; communication versus individualism and conceptualism; tonality versus atonality and so on. As such, this movement is often considered as part of the much larger complex called postmodernism. Joining in with ideas on spirituality as presented by Michel de Certeau and Mark C. Taylor, Cobussen deconstructs the classification of the spiritual dimensions of music as described above. Thresholds presents an idea of spirituality in and through music that counters strategies of exclusion and mastering of alterity and connects it to wandering, erring and roving. Using the philosophy of Martin Heidegger, Georges Bataille, Jean-François Lyotard, Jacques Derrida and others, and analysing the music of John Coltrane, the mythical Sirens, Arvo Pärt and The Eagles, to mention a few, Cobussen regards spirituality as a non-concept that escapes categorization, classification and linguistic descriptions. Spirituality is a topological, non-discursive and a manifestation of otherness. And it is precisely music, or better, listening to music, that induces these thoughts by carefully encountering, analysing and evaluating certain examples from classical, jazz, pop and world music. It is possible to detach spirituality from concepts of otherworldliness and transcendentalism. Thresholds opens a space in which spirituality can be connected to music that is not commonly considered in this light, thereby enriching the ways of approaching and discussing music. Landside | Airside Victor Marquez, 2019-01-18 Why do we love and hate airports at the same time? Have you been a victim of tiresome walks, congestion, long lines, invasive pat-downs, eternal delays and so on? Perhaps no other technological system has been challenged by continuously changing paradigms like airports. Think a minute on rail stations; think of how successful are the rail networks of the world in connecting nations with just minimum security measures. Why aviation and airports are so radically different in this regard. In order to answer those questions, the author embarks on a thorough revision of airport history and airport planning that in the end builds up a new theory about how airports are formed from the outset. Within its journey from the early airfield to the newest hubs of today, Dr. Marquez identifies for the first time the Landside-Airside boundary as the single most important feature that shapes an airport. In this sense, his finding challenges the historical linearity that until today used to explain a century of airports. From both an analytical and theoretical S.T.S.

stance Dr Marquez assures that it is only when airports needed to be fully reinvented LaGuardia Dulles and Tampa when they become transparent and we may be able to understand their lack of technological stability Swann's Way Marcel Proust, 2013-11-14 The narrator interrupts reminiscences about his childhood spent in late nineteenth century France to recall the affair which a friend of the family carried on with young Odette de Crecy The Unsilvered Screen Graeme Harper, Rob Stone, 2007 Critics from the UK US Australia Canada and Japan discuss views on canonical surrealist works and the role of surrealism in modern cinema animation digital cinema and documentary Sales Parke-Bernet Galleries, 1968
