

2. Eggs

The female swan lays 3-5 cream-colored eggs in the nest.

3. Incubation

The female swan sits on the eggs to keep them warm while the male swan stands guard and protects the eggs.

4. Hatching

The eggs hatch after about 32 days. Baby tundra swans are called cygnets. The babies have gray, down feathers and pink beaks. The feathers eventually turn white and the beaks turn black.

1. Nesting

The male and female swans use grass and moss to build a large nest on elevated land near a pond or lake. Tundra swans nest in the Arctic tundra of Alaska and Canada.

Tundra Swan Life Cycle

6. Adult

The swan reaches full maturity at about 3 or 4 years of age.

5. Cygnets

The cygnets can swim within 24 hours of hatching, and then they follow their mother to find food. The cygnets stay with their parents for about a year and a half.

The North American Swans: Their Biology and Conservation Paul Johnsgard, 2020-03-23 Among birds swans are relatively long lived species and are also among the most strongly monogamous having prolonged pair and family bonds that strongly influence their reproductive and general social behavior which in combination with their beauty and elegance contribute to the overall high degree of worldwide human interest in them This volume of more than 59 000 words describes the distributions ecology social behavior and breeding biologies of the four species of swans that breed or have historically bred in North America including the native trumpeter and tundra swans the introduced mute swan and the marginally occurring whooper swan Also included are 5 distribution maps 15 drawings 27 photographs by the author and a reference section of nearly 1 000 literature citations

Swan people Robin Ridington, 1978-01-01 This volume presents some of the myths and oratories of the Dunne za or Beaver of the upper Peace River The first section offers a discussion of how the Dunne za adapt the prophet tradition common to northwestern Native peoples to a nomadic hunter lifestyle while the second presents a collection of mythic and oratorical texts Published in English

Bewick's Swan Eileen Rees, 2010-01-29 A fascinating and highly readable monograph showcasing one of the flagship species of wetland conservation in Britain to superb effect The arrival of thousands of Bewick s Swans from their Arctic breeding grounds to lakes and wetlands throughout northern and eastern Britain is an unforgettable sight Popular among both birders and the wider public these elegant birds are among the best studied waterfowl in the world Beginning with the work of the late Sir Peter Scott in the 1950s Britain s Bewick s have been the subject of intensive behavioural study while their population ecology has provided a similar focus for research In Bewick s Swan Eileen Rees tells the story of these birds in rich detail Rees discusses their biology in full with sections on population and distribution breeding biology wintering behaviour food and feeding ecology taxonomy and phylogeny migration and conservation much original research is included and there is frequent reference to the Bewick s sibling subspecies the Tundra Swan of North America Personal recollections from a lifetime of study weave through the narrative which is illuminated by Dafila Scott s evocative illustrations

The Nordic Swan - from Past Experiences to Future Possibilities Kristiina Aalto, 2008 This report presents the third evaluation of the Nordic Swan ecolabelling scheme The evaluation is conducted from the perspective of the public administration and it examines the role of the Nordic Swan in a policy context Recommendations are presented for authorities in the Nordic countries and for the bodies operating the schemes on a Nordic and national level The evaluation focuses on current opportunities and challenges in the operating environment of the scheme It examines the relations between the Nordic Swan and the EU Eco label in the Nordic countries including their governance procedures popularity and reception in the market Other current topics addressed include the progress achieved by the Nordic marketing strategy for the Swan and some current governance issues in the scheme including the grounds for public funding for the Nordic Swan The report also analyses the relations between the Swan and other environmental information systems In particular the report investigates the opportunities and challenges ensuing from the current attention to climate issues for the Nordic Swan

Nordic Swan Ecolabel and Product Environmental Footprint: Focus on Product Environmental Information Suikkanen, Johanna, Nissinen, Ari, Wesnæs, Marianne, 2019-09-27 The purpose of this report is to compare the Nordic Swan Ecolabel and the Product Environmental Footprint with a focus on environmental information The report compares the methods used by the Nordic Swan Ecolabel and the PEF to identify the product group specific relevant environmental aspects The analysis is based on the currently valid Swan Criteria and pilot phase final PEF Category Rules PEFCRs The report concludes that there are methodological differences in the way product comparisons are made The report proposes recommendations for both schemes in terms of co operation and required further work related to the differences in methodological approaches to avoid very different results in what will be considered as an environmentally sound product

Swan Legends Luna Clear, AI, 2025-02-26 Swan Legends explores the rich symbolism of swans throughout history religion and literature More than just elegant birds swans represent transformation purity and liminality across diverse cultures The book reveals that swans have been potent symbols in mythology from the tale of Leda and the Swan to Celtic swan maidens reflecting humanity's evolving understanding of life death and spirituality The book examines the historical context of swan veneration from ancient civilizations to medieval folklore and analyzes the swan as a literary motif noting how authors use the swan to evoke themes of love loss and beauty It also scrutinizes the swan's representation across different faiths correlating it with grace and spiritual ascension By integrating perspectives from history literature and religious studies Swan Legends provides a comprehensive analysis of the swan's symbolic power The book unfolds in three major movements first exploring the appearance of swans in mythology then examining them as a literary device and finally delving into their religious symbolism The concluding section explores the implications of these symbols how they inform contemporary culture and how they are employed in modern art

Nordic Swan Ecolabel and Organisation Environmental Footprint: Focus on the organisation environmental information used in the retail sector Salo, Hanna, Suikkanen, Johanna, Nissinen, Ari, 2019-09-27 The Organisation Environmental Footprint OEF initiative of the European Commission and the Nordic Swan Ecolabel both aim at more sustainable consumption and production We compared the two schemes in relation to their environmental information concerning the retail sector The Swan aims to push stores to perform better and to help customers make environmental choices whereas the OEF aims to create a common Life Cycle Assessment based methodology to assess impacts related to a retailer's product portfolio Overall the OEF is considered a broader approach still under development while the Swan is well known in the Nordics Their scopes relevant impact categories and life cycle stages differed However climate change

resource use and biodiversity impacts were significant in both schemes Possible synergies concern criteria setting measurement and communication

Circular Economy and the Nordic Swan Ecolabel Johanna Suikkanen,Ari Nissinen,2017-09-20 The transition to Circular Economy necessitates right incentives for choosing products and services with lower environmental impacts in the form of price signals and sufficient environmental information An ecolabel indicates that the product is environmentally speaking among the best products available on the market and thus has the role to steer stepwise developments towards sustainability The Swan criteria promote quality products with requirements on durability and the use of secondary raw materials To further align the criteria with Circular Economy future criteria development might focus more on aspects including upgradability reparability multi functionality component reuse and innovative forms of consumption and production This report was prepared as part of a Nordic project and the results could be useful in the development of the Nordic Ecolabel in the future
