

A vibrant movie poster for Disney's "Encanto". The central figure is Mirabel, a young girl with dark skin and curly hair, wearing a white top with a colorful floral pattern and a teal skirt. She is smiling and waving. Surrounding her are the other members of the Madrigal family, including her parents, grandparents, and siblings, all dressed in traditional Colombian clothing. In the background, there is a large, ornate house with a red roof and a large tree. The scene is set in a lush, green landscape with a body of water in the distance. The overall atmosphere is festive and magical, with confetti and small lights scattered throughout.

Bibliographic Guide to Chicana and Latina Narrative Kathy Leonard, 2003-08-30 There has been a dramatic increase in the amount of narrative work published by Chicana and Latina authors in the past 5 to 10 years. Nonetheless, there has been little attempt to catalog this material. This reference provides convenient access to all forms of narrative written by Chicana and Latina authors from the early 1940s through 2002. In doing so, it helps users locate these works and surveys the growth of this vast body of literature. The volume cites more than 2,750 short stories, novels, novel excerpts, and autobiographies written by some 600 Mexican American, Puerto Rican, Cuban American, Dominican American, and Nuyorican women authors. These citations are grouped in five indexes: an author title index, title author index, anthology index, novel index, and autobiography index. Short annotations are provided for the anthologies, novels, and autobiographies. Thus, the user who knows the title of a work can discover the author, the other works the author has written, and the anthologies in which the author's shorter pieces have been reprinted, along with information about particular works.
