Surrealism And The Exotic:

Surrealism and the Exotic Louise Tythacott, 2003-09-02 Surrealism and the Exotic is the story of the obsessive relationship between surrealist and non western culture Describing the travels across Africa Oceania Mexico and the Caribbean made by wealthy aesthetes it combines an insight into the mentality of early twentieth century collectors with an overview of the artistic heritage at stake in these adventures Featuring more than 70 photographs of artefacts exhibitions and expeditions in progress it brings to life the climate of hedonism enjoyed by Breton Ernst Durkheim and Mauss It is an unparalleled introduction to the Surrealist movement and to French thought and culture in the 1920s and 1930s Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Collège de Sociologie 1937-39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism's mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Collège de Sociologie and Georges Bataille's theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Collège and Bataille's dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille's theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Collège's thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers, Joana Cunha Leal, Benedikt Hjartarson, Margarida Brito Alves, 2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures art's increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level literary translation the advance of technology and the ever changing grand narratives of art history As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes the collection features discussions of Japan Latin America Africa Asia and the Pacific As a whole the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly AfroSurrealism Rochelle Spencer,2019-12-09 Examining the surrealist novels of several contemporary writers including Edwidge Danticat Tananarive Due Nalo Hopkinson Junot Diaz Helen Oyeyemi and Colson Whitehead AfroSurrealism the first book length exploration of AfroSurreal fiction argues that we have entered a new and exciting era of the black novel one that is more invested than ever before in the cross sections of science technology history folklore and myth Building on traditional surrealist scholarship and black studies criticism the author contends that as technology has become ubiquitous the ways in which writers write has changed writers are producing more surrealist texts to represent the psychological challenges that have arisen during an era of rapid social and technological transitions For black writers this has meant not only a return to Surrealism but also a complete restructuring in the way that both past and present are conceived as technology rather than being a means for demeaning and brutalizing a black labor force has become an empowering means of sharing information Presenting analyses of contemporary AfroSurreal fiction this volume examines the ways in which contemporary writers grapple with the psychology underlying this futuristic technology presenting a cautiously optimistic view of the future together with a hope for better understanding of the past As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural media and literary studies with interests in the contemporary novel Surrealism and black fiction The Poetics of Ethnography in Martinican Narratives Christina Kullberg,2013-11-04 Drawing on narratives from Martinique by Aimé Césaire Édouard Glissant Ina Césaire and Patrick Chamoiseau among others Christina Kullberg shows how these writers turn to ethnography even as they critique it as an exploration and expression of the self They acknowledge its tradition as a colonial discourse and a study of others but they also argue for ethnography's advantage in connecting subjectivity to the outside world Further they find that ethnography offers the possibility of capturing within the hybrid culture of the Caribbean an emergent self that nonetheless remains attached to its collective history and environment Rather than claiming to be able to represent the culture they also feel alienated from these writers explore the relationships between themselves the community and the environment Although Kullberg's focus is on Martinique her work opens up possibilities for intertextual readings and comparative studies of writers from every linguistic region in the Caribbean not only francophone but also Hispanic and anglophone In addition her interdisciplinary approach extends the reach of her work beyond postcolonial and literary studies to anthropology and ecocriticism Remade in America Joanna Pawlik,2021-09-21 Re-viewing surrealism in Charles Henri Ford's Poem posters 1964 5 Encountering surrealism Nadja 1928 and autobiographical beat writing Blackening surrealism Ted Joans ethnographic surrealist historiography Turning on surrealism queer psychedelia Hystericising surrealism the marvelous in popular culture Surrealist Sorcery Will Atkin,2023-08-10 Often regarded as an artistic movement of interwar Paris Surrealism comprised an international community of artists writers and intellectuals who have aspired to change the conditions of life itself over the course of the past century Consisting of a wide range of dedicated case studies from the 1920s to the 1970s this book highlights the international dimensions of the Surrealist Movement and the radical chains of thought that linked its followers across the globe from France to Romania and from Canada to the former Czechoslovakia From very early on the surrealists approached magic as a means of bypassing discrediting and combatting rationalism capitalism and other institutionalized systems and values that they saw to be constraining influences upon modern life Surrealist Sorcery maps out how this interest in magic developed into a major area of surrealist research that led not only to theoretical but also practical explorations of the subject Taking an international perspective Atkin surveys this important quality of the movement and how it s remained an important element in the surrealist project and its ongoing legacy No Pasaran Shane Burley,2022-10-25 A collection written by a who s who of antifascist researchers and theorists in the US including Tal Lavin Culture Warlords Kim Kelly Fight Like Hell Hilary Moore No Fascist USA and Daryle Lamont Jenkins One People s Project No Pasar n is an anthology of antifascist writing that takes up the fight against white supremacy and the far right from multiple angles From the history of antifascism to today s movement to identify deplatform and confront the right and the ways an insurgent fascism is growing within capitalist democracies a myriad of voices come together to shape the new face of antifascism in a moment of social and political flux A Companion to Magical Realism Stephen M. Hart,Wen-chin Ouyang,2005 The Companion to Magical Realism provides an assessment of the world wide impact of a movement which was incubated in Germany flourished in Latin America and then spread to the rest of the world It provides a set of up to date assessments of the work of writers traditionally associated with magical realism such as Gabriel Garc a M rquez in particular his recently published memoirs Alejo Carpentier Miguel ngel Asturias Juan Rulfo Isabel Allende Laura Esquivel and Salman Rushdie as well as bringing into the fold new authors such as W B Yeats Seamus Heaney Jos Saramago Dorit Rabinyan Ovid Mar a Luisa Bombal Ibrahim al Kawni Mayra Montero Nakagami Kenji Jos Eustasio Rivera and Elias Khoury discussed for the first time in the context of magical realism Written in a jargon free style and with all quotations translated into English this book offers a refreshing new interdisciplinary slant on magical realism as an international literary phenomenon emerging from the trauma of colonial dispossession The companion also has a Guide to Further Reading Stephen Hart is Professor of Hispanic Studies University College London and Doctor Honoris Causa of the Universidad Nacional Mayor de San Marcos Lima Peru Wen chin Ouyang lectures in Arabic Literature and Comparative Literature at the School of Oriental and African Studies London CONTRIBUTORS Jonathan Allison Michael Berkowitz John D Erickson Robin Fiddian Evelyn Fishburn Stephen M Hart David Henn Stephanie Jones Julia King Efra n Kristal Mark Morris Humberto N ez Faraco Wen Chin Ouyang Lois Parkinson Zamora Helene Price Tsila A Ratner Kenneth Reeds Alejandra Rengifo Lorna Robinson Sarah Sceats Donald L Shaw Stefan Sperl Philip Swanson Jason Wilson Surrealism and Photography in Czechoslovakia Krzysztof Fijalkowski,2017-07-05 Surrealism and Photography in Czechoslovakia On the Needles of Days sheds much needed light on the location of the greatest concentration of Surrealist photography and examines the culture and tradition within which it has taken root and flourished The volume explores a rich and important artistic output very little of which has been seen outside of its land of origin Based on extensive research at museums in Prague and Brno and many conversations with participants in and historians of the movement Krzysztof Fijalkowski Michael Richardson and Ian Walker analyse how this photographic work has developed cohesively and rigorously from the beginnings of Czech Surrealism in 1934 to the intriguing researches of the present day Czech and Slovak Surrealist group by way of mysterious veiled responses to the repressive contexts with which they were faced from the 1950s to the 1980s The main chapters ordered chronologically are intersected with shorter texts examining specific works The reader will find in this volume images that present challenges to our understanding of how photographic work has been used within surrealism pinpointing individual pictures whose dynamic charge may induce instants of compelling interrogation and disruption

Adopting the Tune of Term: An Psychological Symphony within Surrealism And The Exotic

In a world consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of instant conversation, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony created by the published word usually diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and distractions that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, nestled within the pages of Surrealism And The Exotic an enchanting literary treasure overflowing with raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an elegant composer of language, this fascinating masterpiece conducts viewers on a psychological journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden melodies and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of this moving examination, we shall investigate the book's main harmonies, analyze their enthralling writing style, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers' souls.
