Shirinian, 2024-10-11 In Survival of a Perverse Nation Tamar R Shirinian traces two widespread rhetorics of perversion sexual and moral in postsocialist Armenia showing how they are tied to anxieties about the nation's survival In her fieldwork with Armenians Shirinian found that right wing nationalists focus on sexual perversion centers the figure of the homosexual while questions of moral perversion surround oligarchs and other members of the political economic elite While the homosexual is seen as non or improperly reproductive the oligarch's moral deviations from the caring and paternalistic expectations associated with national leadership also endanger Armenia's survival Shirinian shows how both figures threaten the nation's proper social reproduction a source of great anxiety for a nation whose primary point of identity is surviving genocide In the existential threat posed by these forms of perversion Shirinian finds paths where nonsurvival might mean the creation of futures that are queerer and more just Detailing how the language of perversion offers trenchant critiques of capitalism as a perversion of life Shirinian presents a new queer theory of political economy

Gendered Paradigms in Theologies of Survival Mariam Youssef, 2019-11-07 Gendered Paradigms in Theologies of Survival Silenced to Survive is a book about women in survival communities and the ways that survival and theology are used to shut down women's voices Mariam Youssef examines the ways in which the condition of survival puts religious women in a bind by embedding paradigms into theology that more often than not reinforce women's subordination as a condition of survival Women in survival communities are not only grappling with the existential threat that comes with their survival identities but also struggling to make their voices heard within their own communities where their needs are frequently put on the back burner Survival communities often find themselves responding to their trauma in ways that prescribe strict patriarchal norms promoting notions of gender binary and compulsory heterosexuality
