Traveller : The New Era David Nilsen,1993 Computer Gaming World ,1995 At the Margins of the Renaissance Giancarlo Maiorino,2010-11-01 Examines one of the first Renaissance novels to feature an ordinary man not a nobleman or ancient hero as the main character The Chinese Revolution on the Tibetan Frontier Benno Weiner,2020-06-15 In The Chinese Revolution on the Tibetan Frontier Benno Weiner provides the first in depth study of an ethnic minority region during the first decade of the People s Republic of China the Amdo region in the Sino Tibetan borderland Employing previously inaccessible local archives as well as other rare primary sources he demonstrates that the Communist Party s goal in 1950s Amdo was not just state building but also nation building Such an objective required the construction of narratives and policies capable of convincing Tibetans of their membership in a wider political community As Weiner shows however early efforts to gradually and organically transform a vast multiethnic empire into a singular nation state lost out to a revolutionary impatience demanding more immediate paths to national integration and socialist transformation This led in 1958 to communization then to large scale rebellion and its brutal pacification Rather than joining voluntarily Amdo was integrated through the widespread often indiscriminate use of violence a violence that lingers in the living memory of Amdo Tibetans and others Black Travel Writing Isabel Kalous,2021-11-05 What does it mean for Black diasporic writers to travel to Africa Focusing on the period between the 1990s and 2010s Isabel Kalous examines autobiographical narratives of travel to Africa by African American and Black British authors She places the texts within the long tradition of Black diasporic engagement with the continent scrutinizes the significance of Black mobility and demonstrates that travel writing serves as a means to negotiate questions of identity belonging history and cultural memory To provide a framework for the analyses of contemporary narratives her study outlines the emergence development and key characteristics of the multifaceted genre of Black travel writing Authors discussed include among others Saidiya Hartman Barack Obama and Caryl Phillips Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1970-12 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Housing in the Margins Hanna Hilbrandt,2021-07-01 Housing in the Margins offers a theoretically informed and empirically detailed exploration of unruly housing practices and their governance at the periphery of Berlin An original empirical contribution to understanding housing precarity in the context of the German housing crisis A novel approach to theorizing the nexus of informality and the state in ways that bridge analytical divides between debates about Northern and Southern states An innovative account of urban development in Berlin that contributes to the limited discussions of urban informality in Euro American cities A theoretical understanding of the ways in which negotiations and transgressions are embedded in the making of urban order A historically informed narrative of the development of allotment gardens in Berlin with a particular focus on housing practices at these sites Business of Civil War Patience Kabamba,2013-03-20 Within the context of the absence of effective state sovereignty and the presence of numerous armed struggles for power Nande traders have managed to build and protect self sustaining prosperous transnational economic enterprises in eastern Congo This book discusses the commercial enterprises of the Nande trust networks and the subsequent transnational community they have produced thereby challenging the assumption that a weak state or a failed state or even a collapsed state can be presumed to signal a failed society It demonstrates the fact that several sovereignties and property right systems can coexist side by side reinforcing each other an idea which seems inconceivable for those with a normative view of governmental institutions and state sovereignty Rethinking the question of African state formation the study contributes to the formulation of a more rigorously transnational and local paradigms in the study of post colonial African state formations It constitutes an original contribution to critical theory of societal responses to processes of state implosion and the anthropology of new social formations that emerge when states disintegrate especially in war torn Africa The book also discusses issues related to the dynamics of conflict new state formation transnational trade network ethnicity and global political and economic governance In the midst of abundant anti ethnic literature on African studies this study posits that there may be a renewed usefulness and necessity in theorizing the salience and continuing production of ethnic differences in a manner that challenges the notion of ethnicity as merely a devious and divisive invention of colonialism that must simply be overcome Centering the Margins of Anthropology's History Regna Darnell,Frederic W. Gleach,2021-05 The series Histories of Anthropology Annual presents diverse perspectives on the discipline s history within a global context with a goal of increasing the awareness and use of historical approaches in teaching learning and conducting anthropology The series includes critical comparative analytical and narrative studies involving all aspects and subfields of anthropology Volume 14 Centering the Margins of Anthropology s History focuses on the conscious recognition of margins and suggests it is time to bring the margins to the center both in terms of a changing theoretical openness and a supporting body of scholarship if not to problematize the very dichotomy of center and margins itself The essays explore two major themes of anthropology s margins First anthropologists and historians have long sought out marginalized and forgotten ancestors arguing for their present day relevance and offering explanations for the lack of attention to their contributions to theory analysis methods and findings Second anthropologists and their historians have explored a range of genres to present their results in provocative and open ended formats This volume closes with an experimental essay that offers a dynamic multifaceted perspective that captures one of the dominant if sometimes marginalized voices in history of anthropology Steven O Murray s career developed at the institutional margins of several academic disciplines and activist discourses but his distinctive voice has been and will remain at the center of our history The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism Linda L. Lowry,2016-09 Taking a global and multidisciplinary approach The SAGE International Encyclopedia of Travel and Tourism examines the world travel and
