Surviving In Two Worlds Contemporary Native American Voices:

Surviving in Two Worlds Lois Crozier-Hogle, Darryl Babe Wilson, Ferne Jensen, 2010-06-28 Surviving in Two Worlds brings together the voices of twenty six Native American leaders. The interviewees come from a variety of tribal backgrounds and include such national figures as Oren Lyons, Arvol Looking Horse, John Echohawk, William Demmert, Clifford Trafzer, Greg Sarris, and Roxanne Swentzell. Their interviews are divided into five sections grouped around the themes of tradition, history and politics, healing, education and culture. They take readers into their lives, their dreams and fears, their philosophies and experiences, and show what they are doing to assure the survival of their peoples and cultures as well as the earth as a whole. Their analyses of the past and present and especially their counsels for the future are timely and urgent. Surviving in Culture, Painting Nature Gunlög Fur, 2019-05-23. In the late 1920s a group of young Kiowa artists pursuing their education at the University of Oklahoma encountered Swedish born art professor Oscar Brousse Jacobson (1882-1966). With Jacobson's instruction and friendship the Kiowa Six, as they are now known, ignited a spectacular movement in American Indian art. Jacobson, who was himself an accomplished painter, shared a lifelong bond with group member Stephen Mopope (1898-1974), a prolific Kiowa painter, dancer and musician. Painting Culture, Painting Nature explores the joint creativity of these two visionary figures and reveals how indigenous and immigrant communities of the early twentieth century traversed cultural, social and racial divides. Painting Culture, Painting Nature is a story of concurrences. For a specific period, immigrants such as

Jacobson and disenfranchised indigenous people such as Mopope transformed Oklahoma into the center of exciting new developments in Indian art which quickly spread to other parts of the United States and to Europe Jacobson and Mopope came from radically different worlds and were on unequal footing in terms of power and equality but they both experienced according to author Gunl g Fur forms of diaspora or displacement Seeking to root themselves anew in Oklahoma the dispossessed artists fashioned new mediums of compelling and original art Although their goals were compatible Jacobson s and Mopope s subjects and styles diverged Jacobson painted landscapes of the West following a tradition of painting nature uninfluenced by human activity Mopope in contrast strove to capture the cultural traditions of his people The two artists shared a common nostalgia however for a past life that they could only re create through their art Whereas other books have emphasized the promotion of Indian art by Euro Americans this book is the first to focus on the agency of the Kiowa artists within the context of their collaboration with Jacobson The volume is further enhanced by full color reproductions of the artists works and rare historical photographs
