Places of Memory Alan Peshkin,2013-11-26 While visiting New Mexico the author was struck with the opportunity the state presents to explore the school community relationship in rural religious and multiethnic sociocultural settings In New Mexico the school community relationship can be learned within four major culture groups Indian Spanish American Mexican and Anglo Together studies of these culture groups form a portrait of schooling in New Mexico further documenting the range of ways that host communities in our educationally decentralized society use the prerogatives of local control to create schools that fit local cultural inclinations The first of four planned volumes this book studies the Pueblo Indians and Indian High School The school is a nonpublic state accredited off reservation boarding school for more than 400 Indian students A large majority of the students are from Pueblo tribes while others are from Navajo and Apache tribes As a state accredited school it subscribes to curricular safety and other requirements of New Mexico As a nonpublic school devoted to Indian students it has the prerogative to be as distinctive as the ethnic group it serves USE SHORT BLURB COPY FOR CATALOGS This ethnography of the Pueblo Indians and Indian High School explores some of the ways that host communities in our decentralized society use the prerogatives of local control to create schools that fit local cultural inclinations Begging to

Be Black Antjie Krog,2012-03-23 In 1992 a gang leader was shot dead by an ANC member in Kroonstad The murder weapon was then hidden on Antjie Krog's stoep In Begging to Be Black Krog begins by exploring her position in this controversial case From there the book ranges widely in scope both in time reaching back to the days of Basotho king Moshoeshoe and in space as we follow Krog's experiences as a research fellow in Berlin far from the Africa that produced her Begging to Be Black is a book of journeys moral historical philosophical and geographical These form strands that Krog interweaves and sets in conversation with each other as she explores questions of change and becoming coherency and connectedness before drawing them closer together as the book approaches its powerful end Experimental and courageous Begging to Be Black is a welcome addition to Krog's own oeuvre and to South African literary non fiction Souls of a Survivor Nhi

Aronheim,2021-05-25 The Unbelievable True Story of a Vietnamese Refugee Who Not Only Made the United States Her

Home But Learned the True Value of Hope Love and Religion Along the Way The soles of Nhi Aronheim's feet still bear the scars of her escape from Vietnam trudging through the jungles of Cambodia as a twelve year old with a group of strangers seeking the land of opportunity America Her quest for survival through the Cambodian jungle eventually led her to a boat that took her to Thailand and an orphanage where Nhi lived for two years until she qualified for refugee status in the United States Years later she returned to Vietnam with a film producer to reunite with the family she never thought she'd see again A second trip to Vietnam brought her two mothers birth and adopted face to face Yet Soles of a Survivor isn't just another inspirational survival story It's about the lessons Nhi learned about humanity diversity and unconditional love since arriving in the United States She now has a deeper appreciation for the parallels between the Jewish and Vietnamese cultures and others After she met her Jewish beau they got married She eventually converted to Judaism though the process was challenging for an Asian woman adopted into a Christian household Her story shows it matters less what religion we're part of as long as we radiate goodness to those we meet Now she relishes being a Vietnamese Jew Having come full circle from prosperity to poverty and back Nhi hopes to encourage others to believe that in spite of overwhelming odds all things are possible if one has an intense desire focused energy and the audacity to grasp presented opportunities Living in the World Theodore Ihejieta, 2018-06-21 Living in the World By Theodore Ihejieta Living in the World is a book of love and life called circle of positive energy and energy of sunlight The book is a book of Planet Earth because the living planet gave sunlight energy to the author of living in the world The author is a human being who did not like the way human beings were suffering in the world and thought that he needed to do something in order to improve the standard of living in the world Author Theodore Ihejieta was born into a Christian family who believed in God and trusted God to protect them from evil and death Death killed the author's father which made him stop trusting God Death killed the immediate junior brother of the author and made him declare war against God The author read many religious books and discovered that human beings did not know God because human beings did not have the intention to know God Ihejieta wants to know God and succeeds in knowing God because God showed Himself to him when he started questioning the integrity of God Living in the World is a healing book for human beings to absorb and chase death away because living in the world destroys the fear of God and the devil of God in human beings Entangled Territorialities Francoise Dussart, Sylvie Poirier, 2017-04-24 Entangled Territorialities offers vivid ethnographic examples of how Indigenous lands in Australia and Canada are tangled with governments industries and mainstream society Most of the entangled lands to which Indigenous peoples are connected have been physically transformed and their ecological balance destroyed Each chapter in this volume refers to specific circumstances in which Indigenous peoples have become intertwined with non Aboriginal institutions and projects including the construction of hydroelectric dams and open mining pits Long after the agents of resource extraction have abandoned these lands to their fate Indigenous peoples will continue to claim ancestral ties and responsibilities that cannot be understood by agents of capitalism The editors and contributors to this volume develop an anthropology of entanglement to further examine the larger debates about the vexed relationships between settlers and indigenous peoples over the meaning knowledge and management of traditionally owned lands
