Susan B. Anthony Jeanne Gehret, Ma, Jennifer Spungin, 1994-01-01 And Justice for All Virginia Snyder, 2008-08-29

Throughout my life I have probed more than one hundred homicides including fifteen death row cases whereby I helped save six men from execution My cases have included a retired teacher whose dismembered body was hidden in a trunk a pedophile who killed a sixteen year old and got away with murder because he was an informer for the police department an attorney who held one of his elderly clients hostage and a Cuban fry cook Luis Diaz who was unjustly convicted and imprisoned as a serial rapist for twenty six years But And Justice for All is more than individual cases it is also about the corruption and callousness of many officials who were and are major players in our justice system This book is about my searching for justice in Florida but based on my extensive reading and experience I believe that circumstances are similar elsewhere in our country This story is about my successes as in the Luis Diaz case and about my continuing challenges those cases I have not resolved to my satisfaction I do not believe in the concept of failure because even as a child it has never been in my nature to quit I have fought city hall and won I know what one person can do to challenge the system From the Introduction
