Gurstein, 2024-05-28 A deeply personal yet broadly relevant exploration of the ephemeral life of the classic in art from the eighteenth century to our own day Is there such a thing as a timeless classic More than a decade ago Rochelle Gurstein set out to explore and establish a solid foundation for the classic in the history of taste To her surprise that history instead revealed repeated episodes of soaring and falling reputations rediscoveries of long forgotten artists and radical shifts in the canon all of which went so completely against common knowledge that it was hard to believe it was true Where does the idea of the timeless classic come from And how has it become so fiercely contested By recovering disputes about works of art from the eighteenth century to the close of the twentieth Gurstein takes us into unfamiliar aesthetic and moral terrain providing a richly imagined historical alternative to accounts offered by both cultural theorists advancing attacks on the politics of taste and those who continue to cling to the ideal of universal values embodied in the classic As Gurstein brings to life the competing responses of generations of artists art lovers and critics to specific works of art she makes us see the same object vividly and directly through their eyes and feel in all its enlarging intensity what they felt

Saving Abstraction Ryan Dohoney, 2019-09-16 Saving Abstraction Morton Feldman the de Menils and the Rothko Chapel tells the story of the 1972 premier of Morton Feldman's music for the Rothko Chapel in Houston Built in 1971 for people of all faiths or none the chapel houses 14 monumental paintings by famed abstract expressionist Mark Rothko who had committed suicide only one year earlier Upon its opening visitors responses to the chapel ranged from spiritual succor to abject tragedy the latter being closest to Rothko's intentions However the chapel's founders art collectors and philanthropists Dominique and John de Menil opened the space to provide an ecumenically and spiritually affirming environment that spoke to their avant garde approach to Catholicism A year after the chapel opened Morton Feldman's musical work Rothko Chapel proved essential to correcting the unintentionally grave atmosphere of the de Menil's chapel translating Rothko's existential dread into sacred ecumenism for visitors Author Ryan Dohoney reconstructs the network of artists musicians and patrons who collaborated on the premier of Feldman's music for the space and documents the ways collaborators struggled over fundamental questions about the emotional efficacy of art and its potential translation into religious feeling Rather than frame the debate as a conflict of art versus religion Dohoney argues that the popular claim of modernism's autonomy from religion has been overstated and that the two have been continually intertwined in an agonistic tension that animates many 20th century artistic collaborations Lawrence Alloway Lucy Bradnock, Courtney J. Martin, Rebecca Peabody, 2015-07-01 Lawrence Alloway 1926 1990 was a key figure in the development of modern art in Europe and America from the 1950s to the 1980s He is credited with coining the term pop art and with championing conceptual art and feminist artists in America His interests as a critic and as a curator at the Solomon R Guggenheim Museum in New York were wide ranging however and included architecture design earthworks film neorealism science fiction and public sculpture Early in his career he was associated with the Independent Group in London and although he was largely self taught he was a noted educator and lecturer A prolific writer Alloway sought to escape the conventions of art historical discourse This volume illuminates how he often shaped the field and anticipated approaches such as social art history and visual and cultural studies Lawrence Alloway Critic and Curator provides the first critical analysis of the multiple facets of Alloway's life and career exploring his formative influence on the disciplines of art history art criticism and museum studies The nine essays in this volume depend on primary archival research much of it conducted in the Lawrence Alloway Papers held by the Getty Research Institute Each author addresses a distinct aspect of Alloway's eclectic professional interests and endeavors Athenian Potters and Painters III John Oakley, 2014-08-31 Athenian Potters and Painters III presents a rich mass of new material on Greek vases including finds from excavations at the Kerameikos in Athens and Despotiko in the Cyclades Some contributions focus on painters or workshops Pseas the Robinson Group and the structure of the figured pottery industry in Athens others on vase forms plates phialai cups and the change in shapes at the end of the sixth century BC Context trade kalos inscriptions reception the fabrication of inscribed painters names to create a fictitious biography and the reconstruction of the contents of an Etruscan tomb are also explored The iconography and iconology of various types of figured scenes on Attic pottery serve as the subject of a wide range of papers chariots dogs baskets heads departures an Amazonomachy Menelaus and Helen red figure komasts symposia and scenes of pursuit Among the special vases presented are a black spotlight stamnos and a column krater by the Suessula Painter Athenian Potters and Painters III the proceedings of an international conference held at the College of William and Mary in Virginia in 2012 will like the previous two volumes become a standard reference work in the study of Greek pottery Art and Pluralism Nigel Whiteley, 2012-08-03 This book examines the writings of Lawrence Alloway 1926 1990 one of the most influential and widely respected art writers of the post War years It provides a close and critical reading of his writings and sets his work in the cultural and political context of the London and New York art worlds of the 1950s to the early 1980s Picturing Reform in Victorian Britain Janice Carlisle, 2012-05-31 An innovative exploration of Victorian art and politics that examines how paintings and newspaper illustrations visualized franchise reform The Scenic Charge Artist's Toolkit Jennifer Rose

After Modernist Painting Craig Staff,2013-03-14 Painting has often been declared dead since the 1960s and yet it refuses to die Even the status and continued legitimacy of the medium has been repeatedly placed in question As such painting has had to continually redefine its own parameters and re negotiate for itself a critical position within a broader more discursive set of discourses Taking the American Clement Greenberg s Modernist Painting as a point of departure After Modernist Painting will be both a historical survey and a critical re evaluation of the contested and contingent nature of the medium of painting over the last 50 years Presenting the first critical account of painting rather than art generally this book provides a timely exploration of what has remained a persistent and protean medium Craig Staff focuses on certain developments including the relationship of painting to Conceptual Art and Minimalism the pronouncement of paintings alleged death its response to Installation Art s foregrounding of site how it was able to interpret ideas around appropriation simulation and hybridity and how today painting can be understood as both imaging and imagining the digital After Modernist Painting is an invaluable resource for those seeking to understand the themes and issues that have pertained to painting within the context of postmodernism and contemporary artistic practice Antiquities of Westminster John T. Smith,1807 The Cultural Aesthetics of Eighteenth-Century Porcelain MichaelE. Yonan,2017-07-05 During the eighteenth century porcelain held significant cultural and artistic importance This collection represents one of the first thorough scholarly attempts to explore the diversity of the medium s cultural meanings Among the volume s purposes is to expose porcelain objects to the analytical and theoretical rigor which is routinely applied to painting sculpture and architecture and thereby to reposition eighteenth century porcelain within new and more fruitful interpretative frameworks The authors also analyze the aesthetics of porcelain and its physical characteristics particularly the way its tactile and visual qualities reinforced and challenged the social processes within which porcelain objects were viewed collected and used The essays in this volume treat objects such as figurines representing British theatrical celebrities a boxwood and ebony figural porcelain stand works of architecture meant to approximate porcelain visually porcelain flowers adorning objects such as candelabra and perfume burners and tea sets decorated with unusual designs The geographical areas covered in the collection include China North Africa Spain France Italy Britain America Japan Austria and Holland Collections of Painting in Madrid, 1601-1755 (Parts 1 and 2) Marcus B. Burke, Peter Cherry, 1997-01-01 This two part book on collections of paintings in Madrid is part of the series Documents for the History of Collecting Spanish Inventories 1 which presents volumes of art historical information based on archival records One hundred forty inventories of noble and middle class collections of art in Madrid are accompanied by two essays describing the taste and cultural atmosphere of Madrid in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Antiquities of Westminster John Thomas Smith, 1807
