conditions that led to the eventual collapse of the Warsaw Pact by the end of the decade In 1972 Ryszard Kuklinski a senior officer on the Polish General Staff volunteered his services to the United States at a time of increased friction between the Soviet Bloc and the Free World During the Polish crisis from the initial outbreak of labor unrest in July 1980 until the declaration of martial law in December 1981 Col Kuklinski provided periodic reporting and commentary on the chaotic progression of events He focused on the increasing refinement of the plans for introducing martial law the internal political debates surrounding these preparations and the almost constant pressure from Moscow for the Poles to do something to contain and destroy Solidarity
