The Missing Millions Kinfe Abraham,1995 One of the most important political historians of Africa writes eloquently and in great detail on the reasons for the current underdevelopment of Africa Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Protecting Human Security in Africa Ademola Abass,2010-09-23 Protecting Human Security in Africa discusses some of the most potent threats to human security in Africa It deals especially with those threats to the security of African people which are least understood or explored In themes varying from corruption the proliferation of small arms and light weapons food security the devastation of internal displacement in Africa the link between natural resources and human security to the problems of forced labour threats to women s security and environmental security the book examines the legal and policy challenges of protecting human security in Africa This work also analyses the role of NGOs and the civil society in advocating human security issues in Africa It considers the role of regional human rights mechanisms and judicial bodies such as the African Commission for Human Rights and the African Court of Human and Peoples Rights in seeking to guarantee human security in Africa Finally with particular reference to the Somalia Zimbabwe Kenya and Darfur crises the book studies the role of African regional organizations especially the African Union in protecting the human security of Africans Written by leading experts on its various themes this is an indispensable book for all those seeking to learn more about the real challenges facing Africans and African organizations Africa and U.S. National Interests Frances K. Scott,1997

Africa Air University (U.S.). Library,1996 Assault on Rural Poverty Haileleul Getahun,Hailemariam Getahun,2001 In Assault on Rural Poverty Haileleul Getahun analyzes the various causes of rural poverty and constraints impeding increased agricultural productivity during the last four decades in Ethiopia under three different regimes Getahun examines the feudalistic system under Emperor Haile Selassie the command economic system of the military junta led by Mengistu Haile Mariam and the current capitalist system of the Federal Republic of Ethiopia led by Meles Zenawi Getahun discusses the lessons drawn from Ethiopian experience during these three regimes as well as from other African and Asian countries These provide the basis for recommending a small farmer led agricultural and rural development strategy that if implemented would alleviate rural poverty in Ethiopia The author maintains that the keys for successful development are the provision of institutional savings and credit for small scale farmers and small business owners the deep involvement of the community in project planning implementation evaluation and sharing of the benefits and the use of development support communication for motivation information dissemination and training Getahun argues strongly that ethnic politics in Ethiopia are destructive to Ethiopian society and militates against sustainable development Rather the path to peace and sustainable development requires that ethnic politics be scrapped and replaced by a genuinely democratic and widely acceptable system of governance Capacity Building in Developing Countries Valentine U. James,1998-05-26 The term capacity building refers to enabling the indigenous people of developing countries to carry out development processes successfully by empowering them through strengthened domestic institutions provision of domestic markets and improvement of local government efforts to sustain infrastructures social institutions and commercial institutions Capacity building also involves the need to recognize indigenous interest groups encourage local efforts provide incentives for privatization and coordinate local regional and international strategies to enhance productivity and wise use of natural and human resources Most important capacity building encourages a bottom up or grassroots effort for sustainable development The grassroots effort begins with the family unit Capacity building addresses all areas of social economic and health and environmental processes through a holistic approach The chapters of this book written by experts in their fields address these three areas of the developing societies

Special Bibliography Series United States Air Force Academy. Library,1997 Special Bibliography Series ,1957 The Potentiality of 'developmental States' in Africa Pamela Mbabazi,Ian Taylor,2005 The Potentiality of Developmental States in Africa investigates the potential role of the state in Africa in promoting development in this era of globalisation Using Botswana and Uganda as case studies the volume argues that it is not the amount of state involvement in the economy that matters but the quality This set of original studies compares and contrasts issues that distinguish the two countries development record and style of activity of the state in promoting development Written by a collection of researchers drawn mainly from Botswana and Uganda this book argues that there are some elements of the developmental state model in both countries These elements have arguably contributed to some of the relative successes in the two states Contextualising the case studies within the history and political economy of the respective countries the book is a valuable addition to the on going debate on the role nature and character of states in Africa A must read for students researchers politicians and development practitioners Book jacket Vanderbilt Journal of Transnational Law ,2002
