The Mixed Up Family A Mix And Match:

Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples Adrienne Edgar, 2022-05-15 Co winner of the Central Eurasian Studies Society's prize for best book in History and the Humanities in 2022 and 2023 and winner of the The Joseph Rothschild Prize in Nationalism and Ethnic Studies of the Association for the Study of Nationalities Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples examines the racialization of identities and its impact on mixed couples and families in Soviet Central Asia In marked contrast to its Cold War rivals the Soviet Union celebrated mixed marriages among its diverse ethnic groups as a sign of the unbreakable friendship of peoples and the imminent emergence of a single Soviet people Yet the official Soviet view of ethnic nationality became increasingly primordial and even racialized in the USSR's final decades In this context Adrienne Edgar argues mixed families and individuals found it impossible to transcend ethnicity fully embrace their complex identities and become simply Soviet Looking back on their lives in the Soviet Union ethnically mixed people often reported that the official nationality in their identity documents did not match their subjective feelings of identity that they were unable to speak their own native language and that their ambiguous physical appearance prevented them from claiming the nationality with which they most identified In all these ways mixed couples and families were acutely and painfully affected by the growth of ethnic primordialism and by the tensions between the national and supranational projects in the Soviet Union Intermarriage and the Friendship of Peoples is based on more than eighty in depth oral history interviews with members of mixed families in Kazakhstan and Tajikistan along with published and unpublished Soviet documents scholarly and popular articles from the Soviet press memoirs and films and interviews with Soviet era sociologists and ethnographers Proceedings of the 2022 2nd International Conference on Computer Technology and Media Convergence Design (CTMCD 2022) Kannimuthu Subramanian, Jian Ouyang, Wei Wei, 2024-03-07 This is an open access book With the rapid development of society and the continuous progress of computer science and technology when entering the information age design has also been integrated into the new media age in time The application of computer technology in design has broken the limitations of traditional design achieved a huge breakthrough in the field of design provided more innovative forms of expression for design and also achieved subversive changes in design methods We need to note that design comes from life and then it is a matter of applying tools and crafting techniques to realize it For designers maintaining innovation is still the first and foremost in creation How to use technology to enable design without relying on technology is still a dilemma Therefore it is necessary to create a space for the researchers practitioners and enthusiasts in the field of computing and design to gather and discuss this current issue The International Conference on Computer Technology and Media Convergence Design aims to accommodate this need as well as to 1 Advance the academic field by exploring cutting edge research and applications 2 Open up new horizons broaden the horizons of computer technology research and design 3 Create academic forums to provide opportunities for academic resource sharing and research exchanges 2022 2nd International Conference on
