The Moroccan:

The Moroccan Women's Rights Movement Amy Young Evrard, 2014-06-09 Among various important efforts to address women's issues in Morocco a particular set of individuals and associations have formed around two specific goals reforming the Moroccan Family Code and raising awareness of women's rights Evrard chronicles the history of the women's rights movement exploring the organizational structure activities and motivations with specific attention to questions of legal reform and family law Employing ethnographic scrutiny Evrard presents the stories of the individual women behind the movement and the challenges they faced Given the vast reform of the Moroccan Family Code in 2004 and the emphasis on the role of women across the Middle East and North Africa today this book makes a timely argument for the analysis of women's rights as both global and local in origin evolution and application New Literary Voices of the Moroccan Diaspora Ieme van der Poel, 2022-09-15 The highly charged debate over Morocco's diasporic minorities in Europe has led to a growing interest in the literary production of these new Europeans This comparative study is the first to discuss together a body of texts including contemporary Judeo Moroccan literature written in French Spanish Catalan and Dutch which have never been studied as a group Faced with such a variegated field of literary production the aim of this book is not to tie individual works of literature to their national place of origin but to reconceptualize the idea of a Moroccan literature with regard to the transnational and multilingual experiences from which it arises Drawing on a wide range of theoretical insights from Fatima Mernissi's concept of female subalternity to Abdelmalek Sayad's principle of the immigrants' absent history this book allows for the re-evaluation of the relationship between migration and postcolonial literary studies A careful analysis of the literary techniques used in the texts under scrutiny here highlights their poetic qualities without bypassing their political relevance with regard to the intercultural relations between Morocco and Europe as they are presently unfolding across the Mediterranean and beyond Conquistadors of the Red City: The Moroccan Conquest of the Songhay Empire Comer Plummer III, 2018-01-09 Conquistadors of the Red City The Moroccan Conquest of the Songhay Empire recounts the ambitions of a sixteenth century Moroccan ruler to defy geography and send his army across the Sahara Desert in search of the elusive gold fields of West Africa In destroying the empire of the Songhay the Moroccans established a trans-Saharan state but their quest for riches proved to be futile and ruinous for themselves and for the entire region This extraordinary chapter of African history is told through Moroccan and West African chroniclers as well as Western travelers and hostages at the Moroccan imperial court in Marrakech Their unique perspectives offer rare insight into one of the most important chapters in the history of early modern Africa and the precursor of an even more devastating phase of the exploitation of the continent the Atlantic slave trade The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel, 1976-1989 Anouar El Younssi, 2024-12-03 The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel 1976-1989 examines the trajectory of the Moroccan experimental novel and makes a link between its emergence in the early mid 1970s and the Arab defeat in the six day war with Israel in 1967 Drawing on works by Mu ammad Barr dah Abdull h al Arw A mad al Mad n and others the book contends that the Moroccan experimental novel reflects an historic turning point and transitional cultural landscape It further shows that the experimental novel laid the ground for a different vision of literature an important feature of which was the intent to surpass the traditional realist model as executed by Moroccan novelist Abdulkar m Ghall b 1919 2017 and Egyptian Nobel laureate Naj b Ma f 1911 2006 This new vision of literature seeks to create new discursive spheres for the treatment of the social and the political This book will be an important contribution to debates around Moroccan Arabic Maghrebi literature as well as to the field of literary experimentalism more broadly

The Moroccan Soul Spencer D. Segalla, The Moroccan Goums Edward L. Bimberg, 1999-07-30 Bimberg provides a military history of the Moroccan Goums the knife wielding irregular troops who distinguished themselves fighting under French command in Tunisia Italy France and Germany during World War II Recruited from the hill tribes of Morocco s Atlas Mountains the Goums were garbed throughout the war in the traditional djellaba of their homeland and were armed with long sharp knives in addition to rifles machine guns and mortars They terrified the enemy not only by their ferocity but by their odd appearance Their particular skill in mountain warfare prompted General Patton to request their participation in his Sicilian campaign and they fought brilliantly in this and many other key campaigns This account follows these forces from their native North African mountains across the battlefields of World War II to their final triumph in the Austrian Alps It recounts their tactics and their strange traditions as remarkable Beau Geste type French officers led them into battle In Italy 12 000 strong they swarmed over the forbidding Aurunci range which no one thought could possibly be penetrated by any sizable force under combat conditions to spearhead the French forces in turning the German flank in Operation Diadem the final drive on Rome Their later exploits in the capture of Marseilles in the Vosges Mountains and on the drive to the Rhine were equally sensational

The Architectural Representation of Islam Eric Roose,2025-10-01 This book is a study of Dutch mosque designs objects of heated public debate Until now studies of diaspora mosque designs have largely consisted of normative architectural critiques that reject the ubiquitous domes and minarets as hampering further Islamic architectural evolution The Architectural Representation of Islam Muslim Commissioned Mosque Design in The Netherlands represents a clear break with the architectural critical narrative and meticulously analyzes twelve design processes for Dutch mosques It shows that patrons by consciously selecting steering and replacing their architects have much more influence on their mosques than has been generally assumed Through the careful transformation of specific building elements from Islamic architectural history to a new context they literally aim to construct the ultimate Islam Their designs thus evolve not in opposition to Dutch society but to those versions of Islam that they hold to be false

Migration, Settlement, and the Concepts of House and Home Iris Levin, 2015-11-19 How do migrants feel at home in their houses Literature on the migrant house and its role in the migrant experience of home building is inadequate This book offers a theoretical framework based on the notion of home building and the concepts of home and house embedded within it It presents innovative research on four groups of migrants who have settled in two metropolitan cities in two periods migrants from Italy migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from mainland China migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Melbourne Australia and migrants from Morocco migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from the former Soviet Union migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Tel Aviv Israel The analysis draws on qualitative data gathered from forty six in depth interviews with migrants in their home environments including extensive visual data Levin argues that the physical form of the house is meaningful in a range of diverse ways during the process of home building and that each migrant group constructs a distinct form of home building in their homes houses according to their specific circumstances of migration namely the origin country country of destination and period of migration as well as the historical economic and social contexts around migration

The Origins of Secular Institutions H. Zeynep Bulutgil, 2022 An original theory and meticulous analysis of how advocates of political secularization emerged historically and why they succeeded in some contexts but not others Why do some countries adopt secular institutions while others do not In The Origins of Secular Institutions Zeynep Bulutgil develops a theory that combines ideational and organizational mechanisms to explain how institutional secularization occurs She first focuses on why political groups with a secularizing agenda emerge Her argument is that the circulation of Enlightenment literature among the elite and associations through which the elite could exchange ideas were the main factors that influenced the early emergence of secularizing political movements She then turns to the conditions under which these movements succeed Secularizing political groups are at a comparative disadvantage when it comes to recruiting grassroots support because unlike religious actors they cannot rely on a pre existing institutional structure They become likely to overcome this obstacle if they have time to build a robust organization before religious political movements emerge Bulutgil supports these arguments by combining statistical analysis of original historical data with comparative analysis of countries in Europe France Spain The United Kingdom and the Middle East North Africa Turkey Morocco and Tunisia An authoritative explanation of why political secularization occurred in some countries but not others this book will reshape our understanding of an issue of unsurpassed importance for over two centuries the effects of modernity on politics

Sufis and Salafis in the Contemporary Age Lloyd Ridgeon, 2015-04-23 Sufis and Salafis in the Contemporary Age explores the dynamics at play between what are usually understood as two very different forms of Islam namely Sufism and Salafism Sufism is commonly understood as the peaceful and mystical dimension of Islam whereas Salafism is perceived as strictly pietistic and moralist and for some it conjures up images of violent manifestations of Islam Of course these generalisations require more nuanced investigation and this book provides a number of case studies from around the Islamic world to unpack the intricate relationship between the two The diversity of the case studies that focus on Islamic groups in India Iraq Egypt Morocco Turkey and South East Europe reflect the multiplicity of relationships that exist between the Salafis and Sufis The specific case studies are framed by an introduction that provides essential historical background and definitions of the terms and also by general studies of the Sufi Salafi relationship which enable the reader to focus on the large picture This will be the first book to investigate the relationship between Sufism and Salafism in such a wide fashion and includes chapters on traditional Sufis as well as from those who consider that Sufism and Salafism are not necessarily contradictory The Europa World Year: Kazakhstan - Zimbabwe ,2004 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company
