Markku Lehtimäki, Arja
Rosenholm, Vlad Strukov

The Mottled Screen Reading Proust Visually:

The Mottled Screen Mieke Bal,1997 In The Mottled Screen the author challenges the view that literary texts cannot be examined by words alone arguing that images also play a role in the interpretation process Proust's Imaginary

Museum Gabrielle Townsend,2008 This study of Marcel Proust s creative imagination examines an aspect of the novel that has hitherto been largely overlooked the author s dependence on secondary visual sources Gabrielle Townsend argues that reproductions play a key role in the work s complex multi layered structure Literature and Visual Technologies J.

Murphet,L. Rainford,2003-11-05 This is the first major collection of essays specifically to address the impact of visual technologies on the production of literature in the twentieth century Literature and Visual Technologies investigates the manifold effects which a visual century has wrought upon literary conventions From the influence of Mutoscope parlours on Joyce s fiction to the interrelation between Peter Greenaway s A TV Dante the collection consists of an integrated series of high level intellectual engagements with a hundred years of cultural revolution and covers the whole twentieth century from silent to digital film Visual Representations of the Arctic Markku Lehtimäki,Arja Rosenholm,Vlad Strukov,2021-03-31

Privileging the visual as the main method of communication and meaning making this book responds critically to the worldwide discussion about the Arctic and the North addressing the interrelated issues of climate change ethics and geopolitics A multi disciplinary multi modal exploration of the Arctic it supplies an original conceptualization of the Arctic as a visual world encompassing an array of representations imaginings and constructions By examining a broad range of visual forms media and forms such as art film graphic novels maps media and photography the book advances current debates about visual culture The book enriches contemporary theories of the visual taking the Arctic as a spatial entity and also as a mode of exploring contemporary and historical visual practices including imaginary constructions of the North Original contributions include case studies from all the countries along the Arctic shore with Russian material occupying a large section due to the country s impact on the region The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver Ayala Amir,2010-07-17

The Visual Poetics of Raymond Carver draws on the study of visual arts to illuminate the short stories of noted author Raymond Carver in the broader context of vision and visualization in a literary text Ayala Amir examines Carver s use of the eye of the camera technique Amir uncovers the tensions that structure his visual aesthetics and examines assumptions that govern scholarly discussions of his work relating these matters to the complex nature of photography and to the current visual turn of cultural studies The research uses visual approaches to reflect upon traditional issues of narrative study duration dialogue narration description frame character and meaning Amir shows how Carver s visual aesthetics shapes the meaning of his stories while also challenging accepted notions of the boundaries of the literary Anamnesia Peter Collier,Anna

Magdalena Elsner,Olga Smith,2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time

Relatively recently memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history This collection of essays selected from the proceedings of a seminar on Memory given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture including literature cinema and the visual arts Anamnesia the book's title develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis recollection as a dynamic and creative process which includes forgetting as much as remembering concealment as much as imagination Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation of contradictions and even aporia

Fifty Key Writers on Photography Mark Durden, 2013 A clear and concise survey of some of the most significant writers on photography who have played a major part in defining and influencing our understanding of the medium It provides a succinct overview of writing on photography from a diverse range of disciplines and perspectives and examines the shifting perception of the medium over the course of its 170 year history Key writers discussed include Roland Barthes Susan Sontag Jacques Derrida Henri Cartier Bresson Geoffrey Batchen Fully cross referenced and in an A Z format this is an accessible and engaging introductory guide

The Art of the Text Susan R Harrow, 2013-09-15 The Art of the Text contributes to the fast developing dialogue between textual studies and visual culture studies It focuses on the processes through which writers think and readers respond visually and in essays by researchers in literature screen and visual studies the volume explores the visibility of the literary and non literary text with a sustained focus on French material of the later nineteenth and twentieth centuries Visibility is appraised here not as a state but as a set of processes of adaptation resistance negotiation and transformation By reading visually the contributors here reactivate the visual textual relations of canonical texts from Romanticism to Naturalism Surrealism to high Modernism from film to fan literature television to picture language

Optiques Andrea Goulet, 2013-04-05 Andrea Goulet takes the study of the novel into the realm of the visual by situating it in the context of nineteenth century scientific and philosophical discourse about the nature of sight She argues that French realism detective fiction science fiction and literature of the fantastic from 1830 to 1910 reflected competition between two modern visual modes a not yet outdated idealism and an empiricism that located truth in the body More specifically the book argues that key narrative forms of the nineteenth century were shaped by a set of scientific debates between idealism and materialism in Honor Balzac's Com die humaine between deduction and induction in early French detective fiction and between objective vision and subjective vision in the optogram fictions of Jules Verne and others Goulet aims to revise critical views on the modern novel in a number of ways For instance although many literary studies focus on the impact of cinema photography and painting Optiques asserts the materialist bases of realism by establishing a genealogy of popular fictional genres as fundamentally optical that is as articulated according to bodily notions of sight With its chronological and interdisciplinary scope Optiques stands to contribute an important chapter to the study of literary modernity in its scientific context
