Six Masters Of Early Qing And Wu Li:

Chinese Art and Dynastic Time Wu Hung, 2022-05-03 A sweeping look at Chinese art across the millennia that upends traditional perspectives and offers new pathways for art history Throughout Chinese history dynastic time the organization of history through the lens of successive dynasties has been the dominant mode of narrating the story of Chinese art even though there has been little examination of this concept in discourse and practice until now Chinese Art and Dynastic Time uncovers how the development of Chinese art was described in its original cultural sociopolitical and artistic contexts and how these narratives were interwoven with contemporaneous artistic creation In doing so leading art historian Wu Hung opens up new pathways for the consideration of not only Chinese art but also the whole of art history Wu Hung brings together ten case studies ranging from the third millennium BCE to the early twentieth century CE and spanning ritual and religious art painting sculpture the built environment and popular art in order to examine the deep rooted patterns in the historical conceptualization of Chinese art Elucidating the changing notions of dynastic time in various contexts he also challenges the preoccupation with this concept as the default mode in art historical writing This critical investigation of dynastic time thus constitutes an essential foundation to pursue new narrative and interpretative frameworks in thinking about art history Remarkable for the sweep and scope of its arguments and lucid style Chinese Art and Dynastic Time probes the roots of the collective imagination in Chinese art and frees us from long held perspectives on how this art should be understood Published in association with the Center for Advanced Study in the Visual Arts National Gallery of Art Washington DC China and Maritime Europe, 1500-1800 John E. Wills, Jr, 2010-12-31 China and Maritime Europe 1500 1800 looks at early modern China in some of its most complicated and intriguing relations with a world of increasing global interconnection New World silver Chinese tea Jesuit astronomers at the Chinese court and merchants and marauders of all kinds play important roles here Although pieces of these stories have been told before these chapters provide the fullest and clearest available summaries based on sources in Chinese and in European languages making this information accessible to students and scholars interested in the growing connections among continents and civilizations in the early modern period

François de Rougemont, S.J., Missionary in Ch'ang-Shu (Chiang-Nan) Noël Golvers, François de Rougemont, 1999 This book reconstructs the life of a Jesuit missionary in a small inland residence in China Ch ang shu Chiang nan Province primarily but not exclusively on the basis of the evidence of a newly re discovered private Account Book covering the period from October 1674 to April May 1676 This pocket note book mainly represents the missionary s private expenses and to a much lesser extent the revenues he received As such it is an exceptional document in the missionary documentation Absolutely unique is the part concerning his personal spiritual exercises his successes as well as failings in that field After a lengthy introduction in which both the life of the author and the complex composition of the Account Book are reconstructed the text is presented in a bilingual Latin English edition In seven chapters the contents are further described and analysed from various angles the general topographical setting the author's ten journeys through the region in 1674-1676 the social contacts referred to the various aspects of priestly and pastoral life the means of propagation written as well as pictorial the material culture of the mission the financial structure of the whole undertaking including the patterns of expenditure revealed All the evidence available in this Account Book is combined with other contemporary information mainly from unpublished sources including a large number of quotations from the lost Couplet Rougemont correspondence that has survived in Estrix's Elogium F de Rougemont 1690 the text of which is also published here for the first time Thus the Account Book assumes its place as an exceptional private document with a major relevance for the reconstruction of missionary life in China

Three Thousand Years of Chinese Painting Richard M. Barnhart, Xin Yang, Nie Chongzheng, James Cahill, Hung Wu, Lang Shaojun, 1997-01-01 Written by a team of eminent international scholars this book is the first to recount the history of Chinese painting over a span of some 3000 years Wu Li (1632-1718) Xiaoping Lin, 2001 By constructing this work in biographical sequence focusing in particular on Wu Li's intellectual development and how it affected his artistic creation and by examining selected pieces in both philosophical and pictorial terms Xiaoping Lin has created a comprehensive study of Wu Li's life and art

The Cambridge History of China: Volume 9, The Ch'ing Dynasty to 1800, Part 2 Willard J. Peterson, 2016-04-07 Volume 9 Part 2 of The Cambridge History of China is the second of two volumes which together explore the political social and economic developments of the Ch'ing Empire during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries prior to the arrival of Western military power Across fifteen chapters a team of leading historians explore how the eighteenth century's greatest contiguous empire in terms of geographical size population wealth cultural production political order and military domination peaked and then began to unravel The book sheds new light on the changing systems deployed under the Ch'ing dynasty to govern its large multi ethnic Empire and surveys the dynasty's complex relations with neighbouring states and Europe In this compelling and authoritative account of a significant era of early modern Chinese history the volume illustrates the ever changing nature of the Ch ing Empire and provides context for the unforeseeable challenges that the nineteenth century would bring A General History of Chinese Art Xifan Li,2022-10-03 This volume investigates the artistic development during the Qing Dynasty the last of imperial Chinese dynasties and shows the importance of opera and playwriting during this time period Further analysis is dedicated to the development of scroll painting and the revival of calligraphy and seal carving A General History of Chinese Art comprises six volumes with a total of nine parts spanning from the Prehistoric Era until the 3rd year of Xuanton during the Qing Dynasty 1911 The work provides a comprehensive compilation of in depth studies of the development of art throughout the subsequent reign of Chinese dynasties and explores the emergence of a wide range of artistic categories such as but not limited to music dance acrobatics singing story telling painting calligraphy sculpture architecture and crafts Unlike previous reference books A General History of Chinese Art offers a broader overview of the notion of Chinese art by asserting a more diverse and less material understanding of arts as has often been the case in Western scholarship A Story of Ruins Wu Hung,2013-02-15 This richly illustrated book examines the changing significance of ruins as vehicles for cultural memory in Chinese art and visual culture from ancient times to the present The story of ruins in China is different from but connected to ruin culture in the West This book explores indigenous Chinese concepts of ruins and their visual manifestations as well as the complex historical interactions between China and the West since the eighteenth century Wu Hung leads us through an array of traditional and contemporary visual materials including painting architecture photography prints and cinema A Story of Ruins shows how ruins are integral to traditional Chinese culture in both architecture and pictorial forms It traces the changes in their representation over time from indigenous methods of recording damage and decay in ancient China to realistic images of architectural ruins in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries to the strong interest in urban ruins in contemporary China as shown in the many artworks that depict demolished houses and decaying industrial sites The result is an original interpretation of the development of Chinese art as well as a unique contribution to global art history Art as a Pathway to God Susangeline Yalili Patrick,2024-04-22 This book integrates history theology and art and analyzes the Jesuits cross cultural mission in late imperial China Readers will find a rich collection of resources from historical sites museums manuscripts and archival materials including previous unpublished works of art The production and circulation of art from different historical periods and categories show the artistic theological and missional values of Christian art It highlights European Jesuits Asian Christians transnationalism and gives voice to Chinese Christian women and their patronage of art in the seventeenth century It offers a rare systematic study of the relation between art and mission history Mon Van Genechten (1903-1974) Lorry Swerts,Koen De Ridder,2002 His first work when he was still in Flanders testify to the sense of humanity compassion and popular wit that is so typical of his artistic tradition He learnt the Chinese painting techniques

the hard way and this apprenticeship caused a certain stiffness or conventionality in the works he produced during this period The mission he had to produce religious paintings reinforced this tendency At the same time the discipline of Chinese painting greatly softened and enriched his sense of line and landscape and his drawings were gradually filled with the spirit with the cosmic feature which Chinese painting aims at expressing But the most striking feature of Mon Van Genechten s artistic evolution was his coming back to the popular compassionate vein that characterized his first works without losing what he had learnt during his Chinese apprenticeship

BOOK JACKET 10,000 Chinese Numbers , Singing of the Source Jonathan Chaves,1993-01-01 A comprehensive presentation and study of the poetry of Wu Li 1632 1718 one of the orthodox masters of early Ch ing dynasty painting with particular attention to the circumstances that led this Chinese scholar deeply immersed in Neo Confucianism and Buddhism to convert to Christianity and then t Imperial Illusions Kristina Kleutghen,2015-01-01 In the Forbidden City and other palaces around Beijing Emperor Qianlong r 1736 1795 surrounded himself with monumental paintings of architecture gardens people and faraway places The best artists of the imperial painting academy including a number of European missionary painters used Western perspectival illusionism to transform walls and ceilings with visually striking images that were also deeply meaningful to Qianlong These unprecedented works not only offer new insights into late imperial China s most influential emperor but also reflect one way in which Chinese art integrated and domesticated foreign ideas In Imperial Illusions Kristina Kleutghen examines all known surviving examples of the Qing court phenomenon of scenic illusion paintings tongjinghua which today remain inaccessible inside the Forbidden City Produced at the height of early modern cultural exchange between China and Europe these works have received little scholarly attention Richly illustrated Imperial Illusions offers the first comprehensive investigation of the aesthetic cultural perceptual and political importance of these illusionistic paintings essential to Qianlong s world Art History Publication Initiative For more information visit <http://arthistorypi.org/books/imperial-illusions>
