Sheldon, 2025-09-26 The High Calling by Charles Monroe Sheldon is a novel that follows the intertwined lives of townspeople confronted with moral crossroads asking whether their daily choices truly reflect their Christian faith The story centers on a group of men and women whose professional and personal lives are tested when they begin to take seriously the question What would Jesus do Businessmen face the temptation of easy profit at the cost of fairness a young lawyer struggles between career advancement and justice a pastor questions whether his ministry serves comfort or genuine service and families must reconcile personal desires with the demands of community responsibility The novel builds its drama around these moral tests showing how each character's decision shapes not only their own lives but also the health of the community The high calling of the title is not limited to church or ministry it extends to every vocation and circumstance running a business practicing law raising children or leading in politics all of which become opportunities for either compromise or faithfulness Through successes and failures Sheldon presents a picture of a society wrestling with the tension between material ambition and spiritual duty The narrative is less about dramatic external events than about the slow persistent struggle of conscience Readers witness how a single act of integrity can ripple outward inspiring others while one compromise can erode trust and weaken the moral fabric of the town In this way the novel reads both as a story and as a practical guide illustrating the cost and the reward of living consistently with one's beliefs Charles Monroe Sheldon 1857 1946 an American pastor and writer used fiction as a way to popularize the ideals of the Social Gospel movement His works including the famous In His Steps emphasize applied Christianity urging believers to live their faith in the marketplace the courtroom and the home Through The High Calling Sheldon reinforced his conviction that every life regardless of profession carries the responsibility of reflecting Christ in action The Prize of the High Calling of God Stendal, Russell M., 2022-11-11 What is the greatest danger to the Christian life Is it the government or the next pandemic Is it the wrath of unbelievers or exposure to their lifestyles The life of a committed Christian is often fraught with difficulty and danger yet this is not something that should be seen as abnormal The apostle Paul dealt with trials and was in jeopardy throughout his entire ministry even to the point of being incarcerated for his faith Even so he knew that the greatest danger to the Christian life comes from within us Namely the insatiable and unchecked desires of the flesh of which he also referred to as the old man Paul understood that the flesh must be dealt with before believers can ever come to maturity in Christ therefore this was a matter he addressed within most of his epistles In totality Paul teaches that we must be crucified with Christ so that we can live by the Spirit and not fulfill the lust of the flesh This is because he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption but he that sows in the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life Galatians 6:8 How can this be our reality In this latest book
