The Mithraic Liturgy Clergy And Devotees:

The Mithraic Liturgy, Clergy and Devotees Franz Cumont, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving, and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work. The Mysteries of Mithra Franz Cumont, 1903 The Mysteries of Mithra Franz Cumont, 2018-12-14 First published in 1956, this seminal study by the great Belgian scholar Franz Cumont remains the definitive coverage of a great ideological struggle between the West and the Orient in the first centuries of the Christian era. Mithraism, a mystery religion originating in Persia, spread rapidly through the Roman Empire and achieved such strength that Europe almost became Mithraic. Dr. Cumont, the world's greatest authority on aspects of classical religions, here discusses the origins of this colourful oriental religion and its association with the Roman army. Then, utilizing fragmentary monuments and texts in one of the greatest feats of scholarly detection, he reconstructs the mystery teachings and secret doctrines, the hidden organization and cult of Mithra. This volume includes 70 illustrations. Princeton Theological Review, 1904 The Princeton Theological Review, 1904 Includes section: Reviews of recent literature. The Jung Cult Richard Noll, 1997-06-05 This revolutionary reassessment of Jung's research conclusions and character asserts that Jung falsified his key research in developing the theory of a collective unconsciousness. Noll also reveals evidence that Jung founded a pro-fascist religious cult in which he intended to be worshipped as an Aryan Christ, propagated racist and anti-Semitic theories, and practiced polygamy for much of his life. Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1915 Includes its Report 1896-1945. The Seduction of Unreason Richard Wolin, 2019-04-30 Ever since the shocking revelations of the fascist ties of Martin Heidegger and Paul de Man, postmodernism has been haunted by the specter of a compromised past. In this intellectual genealogy of the postmodern spirit, Richard Wolin shows that postmodernism's infatuation with fascism has been extensive and widespread. He questions postmodernism's claim to have inherited the mantle of the Left, suggesting instead that it has long been enamored with the opposite end of the political spectrum. Wolin reveals how, during the 1930s, C. G. Jung, Hans Georg Gadamer, Georges Bataille, and Maurice Blanchot were seduced by fascism's promise of political regeneration and how this misapprehension affected the intellectual core of their work. The result is a compelling and unsettling reinterpretation of the history of modern thought. In a new preface, Wolin revisits this illiberal intellectual lineage in light of the contemporary resurgence of political authoritarianism. The Reformed Church Review, 1904 The Literary News Frederick Leypoldt, 1903
