Abbott, 2013-05-19 The Mother at Home was particularly written for the mother who is employed full time at home in the work of raising a family but the principles are applicable to every mother and every father as well This classic book has served to raise godly children for generations Mothers everywhere have found it to be of vital help to them in their awesome task Full of wisdom and practical teaching to be cherished by all read it often as it isn't possible to glean everything in one or two readings You'll gain timeless biblical guidance and successful parenting practices it's full of practical advice for running a successful home raising children that love and worship God and avoiding the most universal parenting pitfalls Written before the politically correct days when parents were not afraid to discipline their children in the admonition of the Lord The Mother at Home will prove to be an enormously helpful and encouraging manual for Moms emphasizing the need to be diligent in parenting as slackness in this God-given responsibility will heap up trouble in years to come Give this fantastic book to any mother of young children as a valuable aid in reflection and course adjustment while there still remains time to impact the lives of their children for good It's far more effective than the modern books which erroneously encourage a child-led parenting methodology Raise your children God's way The Mother at Home, Or, The Principles of Maternal Duty Familiarly Illustrated John Stevens Cabot Abbott, 1840 The Mother at Home John S.
