analyze the presentation of non fiction on the international stage Cultural Journeys into the Arab World Dalya Cohen-Mor,2018-09-01 A diverse collection of fiction and nonfiction literature from across the Arabic speaking world Cultural Journeys into the Arab World provides a fascinating window into Arab culture and society through the voices of its own writers and poets Organized thematically the anthology features more than fifty texts including poems essays stories novels memoirs eyewitness accounts and life histories by leading male and female authors from across the Arabic speaking world Each theme is explored in several genres both fiction and nonfiction and framed by a wealth of contextual information that places the literary texts within the historical political cultural and social background of the region Spanning a century of Arab creative writing from the dean of Arabic letters Taha Hussein to the Nobel laureate Naguib Mahfouz and the celebrated poet Adonis the anthology offers unforgettable journeys into the rich and dynamic realm of Arab culture Representing a wide range of settings viewpoints and socioeconomic backgrounds the characters speak of their conditions aspirations struggles and achievements living in complex societies marked by tensions arising from the persistence of older traditions and the impact of modernity Their myriad voices paint a vivid and intimate portrait of contemporary Arab life in the Middle East revealing the common humanity of a region of vital significance in world affairs The Divine Luminous Wisdom M. R. Bawa Muhaiyaddeen,1972 Hegemonic Transitions, the State and Crisis in Neoliberal Capitalism Yildiz Atasoy,2009-01-08 More than 15 years have passed since the end of the Cold War but uncertainty persists in the political economic shaping of the world economy and state system Although many countries have institutionalized neoliberal policies since the mid 1970s these policies have not taken hold to the same degree nor have their effects been uniform across all countries Nevertheless there has been widespread deepening of inequalities and therefore scepticism towards the neoliberal project Uncertainty prevails not only in the relations between states but also in the relations between forces of capital citizens and political power within states Moreover there is conceptual confusion in our understanding of the events and processes of neoliberal global transformation This collection of essays provides a comprehensive theoretical and empirical examination of neoliberal restructuring as a complex political process In an effort to penetrate and clarify this complexity the book explores the connections between the economy state society and citizens while also offering current examples of resistance to neoliberalism The book provides a forum for rethinking politics that represents a turn to societal forces as essential not only to the uncovering of this complexity but also to the formulation of democratic possibilities beyond global hegemonic projects The book does not seek to produce a new model for social change nor does it dwell on the spatial aspects of modernity s new form or the emergence of a new state hegemony China or new forms of rule empire in managing the world capitalist economy Instead the book argues that an understanding of hegemonic transformations requires the problematization of global power as embedded in historically specific social relations
