In some instances these under sixteen years of age have accompanied, wife, perhaps, the children of relatives and not of the same Slocum. In other cases were children very young born and were not included in the enumeration.

Names appear after their emancipation often because the names of their former masters, as was formerly the case with servants in other countries. The Massachusetts Revolutionary War Bells, and the Rhode Island Colonial Bells, show that there were in the Revolutionary War several negro soldiers with the army.
