CIA field agent training and his first assignment back to Israel as a liaison officer at the American embassy in Tel Aviv Bill's adventures continued in assignment to Beirut and eventually Afghanistan Ash Road Ivan Southall, 2013-09-25 The best selling Ash Road is an action packed adventure story so evocative of rural Australia you can taste the Eucalyptus It's hot dry and sweaty on Ash Road where Graham Harry and Wallace are getting their first taste of independence camping just the three of them When they accidentally light a bushfire no one would have guessed how far it would go All along Ash Road fathers go off to fight the fires and mothers help in the first aid centres The children of Prescott are left alone presumed safe until it's the fire itself that reaches them These children are forced to face a major crisis with only each other and the two old men left in their care Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children's Book Council Book of the Year on three occasions An icon of Australian children's literature he wrote over sixty books in his lifetime and has been published in twenty three different countries He died in 2008 To the Wild Sky Ivan Southall, 2014-04-23 Winner Australian Children's Book of the Year 1967 No one had talked about fuel what was the use of talking anyway But they all knew that engines which run on fuel have to run out of fuel sometime and that the Egret just couldn't keep on going for ever They seemed to have been sitting in this plane imprisoned for days waiting to die Gerald just flew on and on as though he wanted to fly away to another world almost as though he didn't want to go down almost as though he didn't know how to go down When the Egret's pilot dies suddenly mid flight six teenagers the only passengers on board face a terrifying situation Gerald has had some flying lessons but he has never flown alone and he has never landed a plane Lost and afraid they fly on as the fuel gauge drops and night closes in Will they find a clear landing place Could they land in the sea If they do somehow land safely how will they find their way back to civilisation Ivan Southall's To the Wild Sky is a breathtaking adventure real kids facing a very real danger with no one but themselves to rely on Ivan Southall was the first Australian author to receive the Carnegie Medal and was awarded the Australian Children's Book Council Book of the Year on three occasions An icon of Australian children's literature he wrote over sixty books in his lifetime and has been published in twenty three different countries He died in 2008 The book that shines brightest is Ivan Southall's To the Wild Sky This was a proudly Australian story and the first novel to utterly confound me by denying the usual happy ever after That was the moment I first understood the magic an author has in their hands Tim Pegler author of Five Parts Dead National Union Catalog, 1973 Who's who in Australia, 2004 The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn, 2015-03-26 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books the flowering of imaginative illustration and writing the Harry Potter phenomenon the rise of young adult and crossover fiction and books that tackle extraordinarily difficult subjects The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature provides an indispensable and fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature Its 3 500 entries cover every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children's hymns Originally published in 1983 the
