The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects Richard Kurin, 2013-10-29 The Smithsonian Institution is America s largest most important and most beloved repository for the objects that define our common heritage Now Under Secretary for Art History and Culture Richard Kurin aided by a team of top Smithsonian curators and scholars has assembled a literary exhibition of 101 objects from across the Smithsonian s museums that together offer a marvelous new perspective on the history of the United States Ranging from the earliest years of the pre Columbian continent to the digital age and from the American Revolution to Vietnam each entry pairs the fascinating history surrounding each object with the story of its creation or discovery and the place it has come to occupy in our national memory Kurin sheds remarkable new light on objects we think we know well from Lincoln s hat to Dorothy s ruby slippers and Julia Child s kitchen including the often astonishing tales of how each made its way into the collections of the Smithsonian Other objects will be eye opening new discoveries for many but no less evocative of the most poignant and important moments of the American experience Some objects such as Harriet Tubman s hymnal Sitting Bull s ledger Cesar Chavez s union jacket and the Enola Gay bomber tell difficult stories from the nation s history and inspire controversies when exhibited at the Smithsonian Others from George Washington s sword to the space shuttle Discovery celebrate the richness and vitality of the American spirit In Kurin s hands each object comes to vivid life providing a tactile connection to American history Beautifully designed and illustrated with color photographs throughout The Smithsonian's History of America in 101 Objects is a rich and fascinating journey through America's collective memory and a beautiful object in its own right Inside the White House Noel Grove, 2013 With the White House Historical Association Front cover Profiles & Portraits of American Presidents & Their Wives Margaret Byrd Bassett, 1969 All illustrated biographical look into the personal and political lives of the presidents of the United States and their families Guide to Collective Biographies for Children and Young Adults Sue Barancik, 2005 Help middle and high school students find the books they need for school reports quickly and easily The author has indexed the lives and accomplishments of more than 5 700 notable men and women from ancient through modern times in this tool that will aid librarians media specialists and teachers with a student's search to find biographies written especially for their age group First Ladies and the Press Maurine H. Beasley, 2005-12 Looking at the personal interaction between each first lady from Martha Washington to Laura Bush and the mass media of her day Maurine H Beasley traces the growth of the institution of the first lady as a part of the American political system Presidential Temples Benjamin Hufbauer, 2005 This book explores the visual and material cultures of presidential commemoration memorials and monuments libraries and archives and the problematic ways in which presidents themselves have largely taken over their own commemoration The author sees these various commemorative sites as playing a key role in the construction of our collective political and cultural self images and as another sign of our preoccupation with celebrity culture Ultimately he contends these presidential temples reflect not only our civil religion but also the extraordinary expansion of executive authority and presidential self commemoration since FDR Smithsonian Research Opportunities Smithsonian Institution. Office of Education and Training, 1967 Inventing a Voice Molly Meijer Wertheimer, 2004 Inventing a Voice is a comprehensive work on the lives and communication of twentieth century first ladies Using a rhetorical framework the contributors look at the speaking writing media coverage and interaction and visual rhetoric of American first ladies from Ida Saxton McKinley to Laura Bush The women's rhetorical devices varied some practiced a rhetoric without words while others issued press releases gave speeches and met with various constituencies All used interpersonal or social rhetoric to support their husbands relationships with world leaders party officials boosters and the public Featuring an extensive introduction and chapter on the First Lady as a Site of American Womanhood Wertheimer has gathered a collection that includes the post White House musings of many first ladies capturing their reflections on public expectations and perceived restrictions on their communication Governing Codes Karrin Vasby Anderson, Kristina Horn Sheeler, 2005-08-23 Familiar narratives and simplistic stereotypes frame the representation of women in U S politics Pervasive containment rhetorics such as the distinction between women as mothers and caregivers and men as rational thinkers create unique hurdles for any woman seeking public office While these governing codes generally act to constrain female political power they can also be harnessed as a resource depending on the particular circumstances e g party affiliation geographic location and personal style One of these governing codes the metaphor is an especially powerful tool in politics today particularly for women By examining the political careers of four of the most prominent and influential women in contemporary U S politics_Democrats Ann Richards and Hillary Rodham Clinton and Republicans Christine Todd Whitman and Elizabeth Dole_Karrin Vasby Anderson and Kristina Horn Sheeler illustrate how metaphors in public discourse may be both familiar narratives to embrace and boundaries to overturn
