Jones,2011-12-07 Drawing on the fields of political economy and historical sociology Jones dispels the overwhelming consensus among scholars that members of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN never interfere in the internal affairs of other states and pioneers a new approach to the understanding of regional politics in Southeast Asia

Environmental Politics and Governance in Southeast Asia Syed Mohammed Ad'ha Aljunied,2025-10-02 In this book Aljunied analyses how ASEAN and its key maritime member states of Singapore Malaysia and Indonesia govern environmental issues through strategic engagements with social forces In the new millennium ASEAN states power is enhanced and solidified through regulatory statehood strategic renewal and moral ideology in order to subdue civil resistance while managing non traditional security threats Through a comparative analysis of Southeast Asia this book highlights how state capitalist society relations are shaped by politics of scale and social conflict in order to reinforce authoritarianism and intensify capitalism development agendas at the expense of environmental preservation With this the book explores how civil society challenge and are suppressed by state power at national and regional platforms A pioneering scholarly work this book represents a major contribution to the intersection between political science environmental governance and Southeast Asian Studies by offering rich theoretical and empirical insights into the dynamics of state capitalist society relations in an era of global environmental crisis Social Forces and Communities in Southeast Asia

Takeshi Kawanaka,1998 Southeast Asia in the New International Era Robert Dayley,2016-08-02 Provides readers with up to date country by country coverage on a vibrant region of vast cultural diversity and dynamic globalized markets

Social Forces and Communities in Southeast Asia ,1998 The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen,1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization William Case,2015-04-24

Southeast Asia an economically dynamic and strategically vital region seemed until recently to be transiting to more democratic politics This progress has suddenly stalled or even gone into reverse requiring that analysts seriously rethink their expectations and theorizing The Routledge Handbook of Southeast Asian Democratization provides the first book length account of the reasons for democracy's declining fortunes in the region today Combining theory and case studies it is structured in four major sections Stunted Trajectories and Unhelpful Milieus Wavering Social Forces Uncertain Institutions Country cases and democratic guises This interdisciplinary reference work addresses topics including the impact of belief systems historical records regional and global contexts civil society ethnicity women Islam and social media The performance of political institutions is also assessed and the volume offers a series of in depth case studies evaluating the country records of particular democratic hybrid and authoritarian regimes from a democratization perspective Bringing together nearly 30 key international experts in the field this cutting edge Handbook offers a comprehensive and fresh investigation into democracy in the region This timely survey will be essential reading for scholars and students of Democratization and Asian Politics as well as policymakers concerned with democracy's setbacks in Southeast Asia and the implications for the region's citizens

The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia Gerard Clarke, 2006-05-17 The Politics of NGOs in Southeast Asia traces the history of the emergence of NGOs in the Philippines and southeast Asia and the political factors which encouraged this The main focus is on the period from the mid 1990s when NGOs first became a notable force in the region It documents the complex relations between NGOs and other political actors including the state organised religion foreign donors the business sector and underground insurgent groups and their impact on NGO strategy

Understanding ASEAN's Role in Asia-Pacific Order Robert Yates, 2019-03-25 This book assesses the important role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN in the management of regional political security and economic relations The author argues that ASEAN's prominent role in the region spanning 50 years is largely due to the acquiescence of the great powers who endorsed ASEAN accepted its regional position and accorded the institution a legitimacy and durability that otherwise it would not have This text offers a key intervention into the debate regarding ASEAN and regional order by showing how ASEAN's contribution to order management is part of a negotiated division of labour with the great powers The author applies an innovative social roles analysis which captures the dynamic interactions between ASEAN and the great powers from the Cold War to the present day

Cora Du Bois Susan Christine Seymour, 2015 Although Cora Du Bois began her life in the early twentieth century as a lonely and awkward girl her intellect and curiosity propelled her into a remarkable life as an anthropologist and diplomat in the vanguard of social and academic change Du Bois studied with Franz Boas a founder of American anthropology and with some of his most eminent students Ruth Benedict Alfred Kroeber and Robert Lowie During World War II she served as a high ranking officer for the Office of Strategic Services as the only woman to head one of the OSS branches of intelligence Research and Analysis in Southeast Asia After the war she joined the State Department as chief of the Southeast Asia Branch of the Division of Research for the Far East She was also the first female full professor with tenure appointed at Harvard University and became president of the American Anthropological Association Du Bois worked to keep her public and private lives separate especially while facing the FBI's harassment as an opponent of U.S. engagements in Vietnam and as a liberal lesbian during the McCarthy era Susan C. Seymour's biography weaves together Du Bois's personal and professional lives to illustrate this exceptional first woman and the complexities of the twentieth century that she both experienced and influenced

China and the Major Powers in East Asia A. Doak Barnett, 2001-09-19 The foreign policy of the People's Republic of China has been dominated in recent decades by the problems of dealing with the other major powers in East Asia. Although many ideological, political, and economic aims have shaped particular Chinese policies, Peking's dominant concern has been national security. Since the late 1960s its leaders have viewed the Soviet Union as the primary threat to China and have pursued a distinctive Maoist balance of power strategy against it. China's post-Mao leaders continue to give priority to strategic considerations and the problems of relations with the other major powers. It cannot be assumed, however, that they will simply continue past policies. The recent changes both within China and in the broad pattern of international relations in East Asia have created a new situation. In this study, A. Doak Barnett analyzes in detail China's bilateral relations with the Soviet Union, Japan, and the United States. He also examines the changing nature of the four-power relationship in East Asia. On this basis, he discusses possible future trends in Chinese policy and the prospects for achieving a more stable regional equilibrium

The Oxford Handbook of the International Relations of Asia Saadia M. Pekkanen, John Ravenhill, Rosemary Foot, 2014-08-19 In the past quarter century, the importance of Asia in international relations has grown exponentially. This Handbook gathers the most important scholars in the field of Asia's international relations to address this momentous change in world politics. The editors and contributors focus on three basic themes: assessing appropriate theories for explaining the evolution of the international relations of Asian countries within the region and with the rest of the world; tracing the recent history of Asia in world politics and focusing on emerging trends. The Handbook brings readers the latest scholarship on the bilateral, regional, and global relations of Asian countries in the fields of political economy, national security, and human security. Comprehensive in theme, breadth, and methodology, this Handbook is a timely addition to the existing literature on the changes currently underway in Asian countries that promise to have significant implications for world politics.
