Social Foundations of Postindustrial Economies Gøsta Esping-Andersen, 1999 The Golden Age of postwar capitalism has been eclipsed and with it seemingly also the possibility of harmonizing equality and welfare with efficiency and jobs Most analyses believe that the emerging postindustrial society is overdetermined by massive convergent forces such as tertiarization new technologies or globalization all conspiring to make welfare states unsustainable in the future Social Foundations of Postindustrial Economies takes a second more sociological and more institutional look at the driving forces of economic transformation What as a result stands out is postindustrial diversity not convergence Macroscopic global trends are undoubtedly powerful yet their influence is easily rivalled by domestic institutional traditions by the kind of welfare regime that some generations ago was put in place It is however especially the family economy that hold the key as to what kind of postindustrial model will emerge and to how evolving tradeoffs will be managed Twentieth century economic analysis depended on a set of sociological assumptions that now are invalid Hence to better grasp what drives today s economy we must begin with its social foundations Social Foundations of Postindustrial Economies Gøsta Esping-Andersen, 1999

economic sociological and psychological insights Kremer demonstrates that care is embedded in welfare states and that European women are motivated by culturally and morally shaped ideals of care that are embedded in welfare states and less by economic reality      Themes in Modern European History Since 1945 Rosemary Wakeman, 2003 Twelve chapters consider the key political cultural and economic changes of post 1945 Europe      Replacing the Dead Mie Nakachi, 2021 In 1955 the Soviet Union became the first country in the world to re legalize abortion on the principle of women s rights to abortion How could this happen in Stalinist society which prohibited feminist movements Replacing the Dead finds an answer in previously secret archives that document the difficult decade after World War II which killed 27 million Soviet citizens and the government s policy to increase fertility by promoting out of wedlock births The result was an abortion battle between women government and Soviet legal and medical professionals that has continued for decades      Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. loneliness of older women in poverty or prison Women at the Margins Neglect Punishment and Resistance addresses the effects of welfare reform the forgotten group women in prison and jail low income women and housing women marginalized by substance abuse poverty and incarceration teenage pregnancy children and their incarcerated mothers recidivism and reintegration women law and the justice system and much more Women at the Margins Neglect Punishment and Resistance acknowledges the long history of the inequality faced by women living in exclusion but focuses on the present with a hopeful but realistic eye toward the future It is an indispensable resource for sociology social work legal and penal system professionals and academics and an essential read for everyone

Postindustrial Germany Claire Annesley, 2004

This book is about the state of the German model of capitalism today It is the first book to offer an integrated analysis of the political economy of unified Germany rather than dealing with east and west as separate entities It challenges the standard view that Germany is lagging behind other capitalist states in the transition to a postindustrial economy and looks in detail at the expansion of the service sector the transformation of the industrial sector and the development of the knowledge economy in unified Germany The book finds that Germany is indeed becoming postindustrial but that it is not developing in any single direction Rather the research outlined in this book suggests that some regions perform well in services or the production of knowledge while others have successfully transformed industrial production This variation it is argued is the consequence of unification as well as older economic traditions which pre date the industrial revolution
