Social Relations In A Philippine Market Self Interest And Subjectivity:

Social Relations in a Philippine Market William G. Davis, 1973-01-01 Provisioning Paris Steven Laurence Kaplan, 2018-09-05 Dependence upon grain deeply marked every aspect of life in eighteenth century France Steven Kaplan focuses upon this dependence at the point where it placed the greatest strain on the state the society and the individual on the daily supply of grain and flour that furnished the staff of life He reconstructs the history of provisioning in pre industrial Paris and provides a comprehensive view of a culture shaped by the subsistence imperative Who were the agents of the provisioning trade What were their commercial practices What sorts of relations did they maintain with each other How did the authorities regulate their business To answer these questions Professor Kaplan combed the archives and libraries of France He maps out the elementary structures of the trade and shows how they were transformed as a result of cultural and political as well as commercial and technological changes In rich ethnographic detail he evokes the day to day life of merchants millers bakers brokers and market officials He shows how flour superseded grain and how the millers overtook the merchants in the provisioning process He explores the tension between the suppliers need for freedom and the consumers need for security Even as he weaves the intricate patterns of life inside and outside the marketplace he never loses sight of the immense interests at stake the stability and legitimacy of the government the durability of the social structure and the survival of the people The Growth of Market Relations in Post-Reform Rural China Hiroshi

Sato, 2003-08-27 This book assesses the different factors that are contributing to the transition to a market economy and the growth of networks in rural China It demonstrates the importance of the party state system and regional differences

Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F. Sherry, 1995-05-02 This exploration of marketing and consumer behaviour comprises original articles both theoretical and empirical and serves as a sourcebook for those interested in consumption and managerial consequences Issues discussed include elements of the marketing mix advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and stakeholder response organization behaviour economic development class and gender linked consumer behaviour and the production of consumption They are examined using anthropological perspectives and methods ranging from materialistic to semiotic Power and Intimacy in the Christian

Philippines Fenella Cannell, 1999-03-18 What kind of reciprocity exists between unequal partners How can a culture which makes no attempt to defend unchanging traditions be understood as such In the Christian Philippines inequalities global and local are negotiated through idioms of persuasion reluctance and pity Fenella Cannell s study suggests that these are the idioms of a culture which does not need to represent itself as immutable Her account of Philippine spirit mediumship Catholicism transvestite beauty contests and marriage in Bicol calls for a reassessment of our understanding of South East Asian modernity Combining a strong theoretical interest in the anthropology of religion with a broader comparative attention to recent developments in South East Asian studies she offers a powerful alternative to existing interpretations of the relationship between culture and tradition in the region and beyond This book addresses not only South East Asianists but all those with an interest in the anthropology of religion and post colonial cultures Power and Intimacy in the Christian Phillipines has won the Harry J Benda prize for 2001 Financial Landscapes Reconstructed F. J. A. Bouman,2019-03-11 The past few decades have seen special and changing emphasis in policy frameworks of rural financial intermediation in developing countries varying from the distribution of cheap credit via specialized farm credit institutions to the building of linkages between banks and savings groups to attempts to use traders or NGOs as new conduits of lending The destructive impact of cheap credit programs on rural financial markets has been the subject of two conferences organized by the Ohio State University in the USA in 1976 and 1981 in conjunction with the Agency for International Development and the World Bank They resulted in a collection of readings edited by J D Von Pischke Dale W Adams and Gordon Donald Rural Financial Markets in Developing Countries Baltimore Johns Hopkins Press 1983 followed by Undermining Rural Development With Cheap Credit edited by Dale W Adams Douglas H Graham and J D Von Pischke Boulder Westview Press 1984 Acknowledging the increasing interest of researchers and policymakers in the roles and uses of informal financial intermediaries the Ohio State University subsequently organized a Seminar in Washington D C in 1989 that produced Informal Finance in LowIncome Countries edited by Dale W Adams and Delbert A Fitchett Boulder Westview Press 1992 Small-Scale and Artisanal Fisheries: Insights and Approaches for Improved Governance and Management in a Globalized Context Steven W. Purcell,Beatrice Irene Crona,Robert Pomeroy,2020-08-21 Cities in Asia by and for the People Yves Cabannes, Mike Douglass,Rita Padawangi,2025-10-01 This book examines the active role of urban citizens in constructing alternative urban spaces as tangible resistance towards capitalist production of urban spaces that continue to encroach various neighborhoods lanes commons public land and other spaces of community life and livelihoods The collection of narratives presented here brings together research from ten different Asian cities and re theorises the city from the perspective of ordinary people facing moments of crisis contestations and cooperative quests to create alternative spaces to those being produced under prevailing urban processes The chapters accent the exercise of human agency through daily practices in the production of urban space and the intention is not one of creating a romantic or utopian vision of what a city by and for the people ought to be Rather it is to place people in the centre as mediators of city making with discontents about current conditions and desires for a better life This book examines the active role of citizens in constructing alternative urban spaces as tangible resistance towards capitalist production of space that continues to encroach various neighborhoods The Huk Rebellion Benedict J. Kerkvliet,1977-01-01 Contagion Alison Bashford,Claire Hooker,2002-11 Contagion explores cultural responses of infectious diseases and their biomedical management over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It also investigates the use of contagion as a concept in postmodern research The Malay World of Southeast Asia Patricia Lim Pui Huen,1986 Over 5 000 entries arranged in four parts Part I comprises reference and general works to provide a guide to information on Southeast Asia Part II provides the setting of space and time Part III features the people and Part IV the many facets of culture and society language ideas beliefs values institutions creative expression and social and cultural change Within each section the arrangement is geographical beginning with Southeast Asia as a whole followed by the various countries in alphabetical order Urban Food Marketing and Third World Rural Development T. Scarlett Epstein, 2019-07-19 Originally published in 1982 This book explores the nature of food marketing in Third World countries Economic development invariably involves a transition from the traditional subsistence and or barter economics to increasing participation in cash transactions In many less developed countries this transition has been facilitated by enterprising middlemen who provide the link between dispersed small satellite producers and urban buyers In spite of these developments producer seller markets still operate in numerous countries particularly the newly independent Pacific island states and large parts of Africa and Asia This book examines the phenomenon of producer seller markets basing the study on the situation in New Guinea The author then uses this data to construct theoretical propositions for the marketing of various food items and examines the producer seller market arguing that the lack of inter regional economic interdependence is likely to promote secessional movements particularly in states where two or more ethnic groups exist Explorations in Economic Sociology Richard Swedberg, 1993-08-19 Since the mid 1980s as public discourse has focused increasingly on the troubled economy many social scientists have argued the need for more analysis of the social relationships that undergird economic life The original essays in Explorations in Economic Sociology represent the most important work in this renewed field and employ a rich variety of research methods theoretical ethnographic and historical to illustrate its key concerns Explorations in Economic Sociology forges innovative social theories of such economic institutions as money markets and industry Although traditional economists have identified markets as driven solely by the forces of supply and demand social factors frequently intervene Sales at auction are determined not simply by a seller's personal knowledge of customers Shareholder attitudes and employee organization influence everything from the way firms borrow money to the way corporate performance is measured Firms themselves operate in social networks in which trust is a crucial factor in settling the terms for cooperation or competition Throughout the essays in this volume the contributors point the way to developing a more healthy economy by fostering productive industrial networks avoiding disintegration at management levels and anticipating the consequences of the shift from manufacturing to service industries Explorations in Economic Sociology is a pioneering work that bridges the gap between social theory and economic analysis and demonstrates the importance of this union in achieving an effective understanding of economic issues The book should stimulate new interest in economic sociology by bringing together many of its most fundamental voices Ibss: Anthropology: 1975 International Committee for Social Scien, 1978-08-24 First published in 1978 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Economic Sociology of Immigration Alejandro Portes, 1995-06-22 Portes suggests that immigration constitutes an especially appropriate Mertonian strategic research site for economic sociology in that it provides very good opportunities for investigating the embeddedness of economic relationships in social situations the contributors expand the conventional domain of economic sociology quite literally in both time and space Contemporary Sociology Alejandro Portes and his splendid band of collaborators make clear that the causes processes and consequences of migration vary dramatically from group to group that a group's history makes a profound difference to its fate in the American economy They have produced a sinewy book a book worth arguing with Charles Tilly Columbia University The Economic Sociology of Immigration forges a dynamic link between the theoretical innovations of economic sociology with the latest empirical findings from immigration research an area of critical concern as the problems of ethnic poverty and inequality become increasingly profound Alejandro Portes lucid overview of sociological approaches to economic phenomena provides the framework for six thoughtful wide ranging investigations into ethnic and immigrant labor networks and social resources entrepreneurship and cultural assimilation Mark Granovetter illustrates how small businesses built on the bonds of ethnicity and kinship can under certain conditions flourish remarkably well Bryan R Roberts demonstrates how immigrant groups expectations of the duration of their stay influence their propensity toward entrepreneurship Ivan Light and Carolyn Rosenstein chart how specific metropolitan environments have stimulated or impeded entrepreneurial ventures in five ethnic populations Saskia Sassen provides a revealing analysis of the unexpectedly flexible and vital labor market networks maintained between immigrants and their native countries while M Patricia Fernandez Kelly looks specifically at the black inner city to examine how insular cultural values hinder the acquisition of skills and jobs outside the neighborhood Alejandro Portes also depicts the difference between the attitudes of American born youths and those of recent immigrants and its effect on the economic success of immigrant children

Where Shrimp Eat Better than People Wilma Dunaway, Maria Cecilia Macabuac, 2022-10-31 East South and Southeast Asia are home to two thirds of the world's hungry people but they produce more than three quarters of the world's fish and nearly half of other foods Through integration into the world food system these Asian fisheries export their most nutritious foods and import less healthy substitutes Worldwide their exports sell cheap because women the hungriest Asians provide unpaid subsidies to production processes In the 21st century Asian peasants produce more than 60 percent of the regional food supply but their survival is threatened by hunger public depeasantization policies climate change land grabbing urbanization and debt bondage

Where Shrimp Eat Better than People Globalized Fisheries Nutritional Unequal Exchange and Asian Hunger is now available in paperback for individual customers

Textile Economies Walter E. Little, Patricia A. McAnany, 2011-09-22 Textiles have been a highly valued and central part of the politics of human societies across culture divides and over millennia The economy of textiles provides insight into the fabric of social relations local and global politics and diverse ideologies Textiles are a material element of society that fosters the study of continuities and disjunctions in the economic and social realities of past and present societies From stick loom weaving to transnational factories the production of cloth and its transformation into clothing and other woven goods offers a way to study the linkages between economics and politics The volume is oriented around a number of themes textile production textiles as trade goods textiles as symbols textiles in tourism and textiles in the transnational processes Textile Economies appeals to a broad range of scholars interested in the intersection of material culture political economy and globalization such as archaeologists cultural anthropologists economists museum curators and historians Globalization from Below Gordon Mathews, Gustavo Lins Ribeiro, Carlos Alba Vega, 2012-08-21 This book explores globalization as actually experienced by most of the world's people buying goods from street vendors brought by traders moving past borders and across continents under the radar of the law The dimensions and practices of globalization from below are depicted and analyzed in detail by a team of international scholars Topics covered include the New Silk Road African traders in China street hawking in Calcutta and pirate CDs in Mexico The chapters provide intimate portrayals of routes markets and people in locations across the globe and explore theories that can help make sense of these complex and fascinating case studies Students of globalization economic anthropology and developing world economics will find the book invaluable Economies and the Transformation of Landscape Lisa Cliggett, Christopher A. Pool, 2008 Economies and the Transformation of Landscape explores both the general and specific ways in which local economic ventures around the world such as mining ranching and farming affect the environment Critical Craft Clare M. Wilkinson-Weber, Alicia Ory DeNicola, 2020-05-26 From Oaxacan wood carvings to dessert kitchens in provincial France Critical Craft presents thirteen ethnographies which examine what defines and makes craft in a wide variety of practices from around the world Challenging the conventional understanding of craft as a survival a revival or something that resists capitalism the book turns instead to the designers DIY enthusiasts traditional artisans and technical programmers who consider their labor to be craft in order to comprehend how they make sense of it The authors ethnographic studies focus on the individuals and communities who claim a practice as their own bypassing the question of craft survival to ask how and why activities termed craft are mobilized and reproduced Moving beyond regional studies of heritage artisanship the authors suggest that ideas of craft are by definition part of a larger cosmopolitan dialogue of power and identity By paying careful attention to these sometimes conflicting voices this collection shows that there is great flexibility in terms of which activities are labelled craft In fact there are many related ideas of craft and these shape distinct engagements with materials people and the economy Case studies from countries including Mexico Nigeria India Taiwan the Philippines and France draw together evidence based on linguistics microsociology and participant observation to explore the shifting terrain on which those engaged in craft are operating What emerges is a fascinating picture which shows how claims about craft are an integral part of contemporary global change
